Background and Personal Data:

The following personal data unverified by other sources has been made available concerning Wilkins:

He was born August 13, 1901 in St. Louis, Missouri. He received his AB degree from the University of Minnesota where he majored in Journalism and sociology. From 1923 to 1931 he was managing editor of the "Kansas City Call," Negro newspaper. Since 1931 he has been assistant secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and since 1934, he has also served as editor of the "Orbis," an official organ of the National Association for Colored People.

(Section of Book "What the Negro Wants")

Connections and affiliations:

It has been reported that on December 21, 1934, Roy Wilkins, along with Edward P. Levitt, Emmitt E. Dorsey, and Charles Houston, was arrested for parading without a permit in front of the Memorial Continental Hall at 17th and D Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C.

It is reported that on the stationery of the International Juridical Association in September, 1936, there appeared as a member of the National Committee the name of Roy Wilkins. It might be noted that the International Juridical Association has been reported to be a Communist influenced organization in the legal field. (61-7559-1159)

The Daily Worker of July 29, 1937, carries an article pertaining to a scheduled meeting of the Scottsboro Defense Committee on that same date, at which time there would be a "victory celebration" to greet the "four freed Scottsboro Boys." Among the various groups participating were the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Communist Party, the International Labor Defense, and the League for Industrial Democracy. It was stated that among the list of outstanding speakers scheduled for the meeting was Roy Wilkins. (100-2563-2612)

The "Daily Worker" for September 21, 1937, carried an article pertaining to a scheduled mass meeting of the American League Against War and Fascism and of the American Friends of Chinese People, both organizations sponsoring a meeting, for October 1, 1937. The article sets forth a number of "religious sponsors" of the meeting and included the name "Rev. Roy H. Wilkins." (61-7561-157313)

The October 13, 1937, issue of the Daily Worker contained an articles concerning plans made by the Harlem Scottish Defense Committee for a meeting scheduled October 25, 1937. The article listed among the speakers scheduled Roy Wilkins of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and Richard B. Moore of the Communist front group, the International Labor Defense. (61-7563-62X32)

[REDACTED]

There are available the proceedings of the Fourth National Congress Against War and Fascism held in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, November 26-28, 1937. The records reflect that there were a number of sessions in which the delegates took part and the one entitled, "Sub-Session on National and Racial Minorities" was set forth as having for its Chairman Roy Wilkins, "delegate from the Book and Magazine Guild and Editor of the Crisis." (61-6589-62, pg. 192)

[REDACTED]

A press release of the Book and Magazine Guild issued in the early part of April, 1938, reported on a scheduled meeting for April 22, 1938, at the Central Industrial High School, 42nd Street, New York City. Among the listed speakers was Roy Wilkins, "Editor of the Crisis," and his subject was set forth as being "The War Danger — and What to Do About It." (61-7566-9181)

In the testimony of Mr. Walter Steele before the Dies Committee on August 16, 1938, he discussed the last convention (1937) of the American League Against War and Fascism. In his testimony he stated that among the "headliners" at this convention was "Roy Wilkins," along with such people as Earl Browder, Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, Max Yergan, and Max Bedacht. (Dies Committee, Vol. 1, pg. 463) scheduled for February 10, 1939. The article stated that among the scheduled speakers were Roy Wilkins of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Helen Harris, New York Director of the National Youth Administration; David Lasser, and Herbert Benjamin, Secretary-Treasurer of the Workers Alliance. It might be noted that the Workers Alliance, during its existence, was known as a Communist influenced organization. (61-7551-16118)

The January 29, 1939, issue of the "Daily Worker" carried an article concerning the Negro Peoples Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy, which was designated as an affiliate of the Medical Bureau and North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy, which are related to have been Communist controlled groups. The article listed a number of "prominent Negro anti-Fascists", who sent pledges of support. Included among the names was that of Roy Wilkins.

(65-7563-69x78)

The January 30, 1943, issue of the Negro newspaper, the "New Jersey Herald News," published at Newark, New Jersey, contains an editorial by Harry V. Webber in which he charges that the major Negro newspapers in the country do not reflect Negro opinion. He states in the editorial, "Once upon a time there was a relatively free press in America, even among the national newspapers (Negro)... The national newspapers have welded themselves into an alliance with certain race organizations, certain education leaders, and religious leaders, to tell the Negro what he ought to think or what they wanted him to think...by some secret arrangement which Roy Wilkins refused to reveal when asked point-blank here several years ago, nothing opposed to the NAACP and its allies can ever appear in these controlled national newspapers...one might almost call Walter White and Elmer Davis of the national newspapers. So the nationals continue to bore people with race issue propaganda along lines laid down by 69 Fifth Avenue (address of the NAACP)." The foregoing has been unverified by other information. During the course of rioting in Harlem, New York City during the first week of August, 1943, auxiliary police were appointed and among them Roy Wilkins of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was included.

(44-840-10)

The name of Roy Wilkins appears on the Board of Directors of the Citywide Citizens Committee on Harlem which group became active shortly after the rioting in the Harlem area in August, 1943. The purpose of this group, according to its advertisement, has been to better race relations in the City of New York.

(44-840-6)

The following speculation was offered by a usually reliable source in November, 1943, with respect to the columns of Roy Wilkins of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and W.E.B. DuBois, internationally known Negro editor, which has been reportedly suppressed by the Amsterdam News, New York Negro newspaper, because these columns were allegedly opposed to Republican candidates. It was stated that the Amsterdam News had been attacked by other Negro newspapers because of its support of the Republican Presidential candidate and because of the suppression of the columns. It was also stated that the possibility existed that the reason for the formation of a "league for a better press" in New York City was to offset attacks of the "Amsterdam News" on the Political Action Committee.

(100-7660-2664)

A flier announcing a series of forums on the general subject, "The Race Relations Battlefront Today," was distributed in February, 1944, by the Modern Trend Progressive Youth Group of New York City, an organization which was said to have had a number of speakers of divergent views appearing before the group, including Communist Party and Socialist Workers Party members. It was announced in the leaflet that the February 29, 1944, forum would deal with the "Negro press." Among the speakers listed was Roy Wilkins, editor of the "Crisis."

(100-172238-4)

The New York Amsterdam News for April 8, 1944, carried an article in which it stated that a move to draft A. Philip Randolph, leader of the March on Washington Movement and head of the Sleeping Car Porters Union, AF of L, as a candidate for Congress in opposition to Adam Clayton Powell. The article also stated that Harlem's nonpartisan committee chaired by Mack B. Rowe, announced that a conference would be held on April 15, 1944, and that the sponsors of the gathering were to have been Channing H. Tobias,

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Boy Wilkins, George E. Schuyler, Elmer Carter, Mrs. Rosa Elcker, Noah Walter, A. A. Austin, and Indlew V. Werner. It is further stated that a definite attempt was being made to have Randolph oppose Powell for the Congressional seat in a section in Harlem. (It might be noted that Randolph did not oppose Powell who subsequently won the election unopposed after having defeated preliminary opponents). (100-51230-36)

The January 14, 1944, issue of the "Daily Worker" contained an article discussing a scheduled meeting for January 16, 1944, sponsored by the National Workers Order, which meeting was labeled the "Partisan Inter-Group Unity Conference." A number of persons either known Communists or reliably reported Communists, were listed in the article as scheduled speakers. Boy Wilkins, editor of the "Crisis," was a scheduled participant for the panel at the meeting to consider "the fifth column."

It is reported that the Ohio State News, a Negro newspaper published at Columbus, Ohio, criticized the race relations representative at Patterson Field, Dayton, Ohio, in its November and December, 1944, issues. Subsequently, there was a tour of this Field made by a group of Negroes including Louis R. Lautier, Administrative Assistant, Civilian Aid to the Secretary of War; Samuel L. Foster, race analyst of the Army Service Forces; Arnold B. Walker of the National Urban League, and Boy Wilkins of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. It is said that at the conclusion of the tour those who made it were loud in praise of racial conditions and complimented the race relations representative at the Field on his accomplishments. Affiliation with National Association for Advancement of Colored People.

The "Daily Worker" for July 29, 1938, contains an article concerning an apparent interview had by the writer, Will Lawrence, with Boy Wilkins, the editor of the "Crisis" and Assistant Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The writer of the article states that Wilkins condemned the forces of big business which cause "misrepresentation of the Negro." In his remarks as reported by the author, Wilkins traced generally the plight for the Negro during and after the Civil War and pointed out that the movies, the press, the radio, the schools, and the theater premeditatively repeat that the Negro is a bafeen, an "ignorant, happy-go-lucky, irresponsibly member of society." Wilkins reportedly referred to lynching and mistreatment of Negroes and alleged that many employers formerly were able to pit Negro workers against white workers. The article ends by stating that Wilkins informed the writer of the article along the following lines: "I am in favor of any program that will bring out the identity of class interests of the masses of Negro and white workers. Meanwhile, educate the white workers in the history and struggle of achievements of the Negro people. Teach them that not only have Negroes given of their sweat and blood to make this the richest country in the world, but that Negro engineers, scientists, writers, artists, and musicians have enriched the cultural life of the country."

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People held its 33rd annual conference in Los Angeles, California, during the period July 14-19, 1942. On the night of July 14, 1942, Roy Wilkins gave the keynote address. He is reported to have stated that the organization would continue its fight against segregation and discrimination against Negroes and for equal rights of Negroes with white people. He is quoted as having made the following additional statements:

"We are determined forever to be through with status quo... this is no war--this is a social revolution. Nations and societies are being shattered and remolded overnight. I say to you that the reason why this association was born in 1909 and has lived 33 years -- the reason why I am here and you are here -- is because we are determined forever and a day to be through with the status quo. Are we worms to sit in a corner and say we yearn not for green pastures? We are impelled to impose the status quo by the imperatives of the situation. If you are in a crack you must get out...I do not recall a time when there has been such unity of thought and such clearness as to the path we have to follow. It is not luxuries as freedom of speech, by the control over his own body, the right to walk around and not be strung up to a tree, that concerns the Negroes at this time and that give rise to the association... Some say we should let things go during the war period so there will be no disunity, in other words remain in a status quo. That we will not do because to make people free is why the war is being fought. No one can call us subversive if we refuse to remain in a status quo position." (100-3176-45)

Wilkins addressed an open forum sponsored by the Portland Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People on November 1, 1942, at which time Wilkins dwelt at length upon the minority in the United States, particularly the Negro minority. He referred to the situation involving the Negro during wartime. He discussed industry and employment of Negroes therein and their situation in various labor unions. He also stated the following according to a reliable source present:

"We are also concerned with the world front... Justice for all and not just for some. We cannot just sit here in Portland and say we will do as we please. After this war, we will have no separation from other places. The world is too small.... Why do you suppose that Japan took Java, a country of forty million people in one week... They were already sick of the people who were over them. It made no difference to them who was the slave driver. A yellow boss is just as good as a white boss. These countries would still be free if these people had felt they had something to die for. They will never take the United States if they will just wipe out some of these things. The Negro belongs here; it is as much their country as it is ours. We will fight for it just as long as the white man, just so we have a reason to fight. Give him, then hope for freedom, dignity, and security."

(Agent Coverage; 100-135-41-4)

On October 30, 1943, Wilkins spoke at the National Youth Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, held at Lincoln University, Oxford, Pennsylvania. It is reported that he devoted his address to criticizing the "reactionary forces in America" specifically mentioning Westbrook Pegler and stated in 1863 the Negro was thrown into a competitive world with nothing to struggle to the top with, and for that reason must continue to fight, first as an American for rights and second as a Negro, maintain the tradition to fight with two hands and whip. (61-3176-263 p. 67)

It is reported that in 1943 Wilkins was sent on a tour of the communities and army camps in the Western and Pacific Coast states by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He reported on his tour in the "Crisis," the official organ of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, at which time he described various areas he visited. He ended his article by stating that all was not dark for the Negro soldiers stationed in the West, pointing out isolated cases in which Commanding Officers are to be praised for their fair play and sincerity in trying to better the conditions faced by the men under their command. He stated, "If the Army could in some way adopt the philosophy of these Commanding Officers and make it work (most Commanders give only lip service to the 'no discrimination' rule), it would boost morale among Negro soldiers overnight." (G-2 100-174048-3)

On June 11-12, 1944, the annual conference National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in the state of South Carolina was held, at Hunter, reported that the principal speaker of the session on June 12, 1944, was Roy Wilkins. According to a source present, Wilkins reviewed the history of the Negro relating how the Negro has always been disregarded as a personality both physically and politically in this country and added that the day of persecution for the Negro race was terminating. He is said to have extolled the efforts of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in citing the cases of the Negro and criticized representatives and political figures in the state of South Carolina for their degues on white supremacy in the south. He reportedly stressed the fact that the Negro in South Carolina was still practically a slave to the white man and that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People with the assistance of all the Negroes would win their rights through the courts. According to the source, Wilkins emphasized the fact that the Negro did not desire to acquire his lawful rights through revolution but would do so by lawful court procedure.

It is reported that at the thirty-third annual conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, held at the Second Baptist Church, Los Angeles, California, Wilkins on July 14, 1944, as Assistant Secretary of the organization gave the key note speech. He is quoted as having stated, "We will fight against segregation and discrimination and for equal rights..... I know of no time when there has been such unity of thought on the path we must follow. Everywhere the sentiment is that now is the time for decision, and action.... We are determined forever to be through with status quo." He is also reported as having stated that some say "we" (Negroes) should let things go during the war, so there will be no disunity; in other words, remain in a status quo. He is said to have emphasized that Negroes would not let things go because to make people free is why the war is being fought. He also reportedly stated that no one can call Negroes subversive if they refuse to remain in a status quo position.

It is reported that at an annual Director's meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People held January 2, 1945, at 69 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Roy Wilkins, Acting Executive Secretary during the absence of Walter White, stated that although progress had been made politically and economically and in the Armed Forces in subduing dangerous racial trends, "the picture for 1945 is not a very one."

STATEMENTS AND WRITINGS

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The February 24, 1943, issue of the Daily Worker carried an article concerning the celebration of Negro History Week, which had just previously taken place. Among the speakers listed by the article as having addressed the group assembled were Roy Wilkins, of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Benjamin Davis, Jr., and Gwendolyn Bennett, both known Communists.

It is reported that during the early part of March, 1943, Wilkins spoke at a Forum sponsored by the Resident Group and Public Affairs Committee of the Harlem branch of the YMCA. He is said to have addressed his audience on "What technique shall we use and how shall we use them to insure democracy here now and during the postwar period?" According to the source, Wilkins stated that at that time, for the first time in the history of the Negro, there was unity on what the Negro people wanted, but there were differences in the technique employed for the achievement of these wants. He reportedly stated that the Negro people want first of all to be primarily free to be employed on their merits, secondly, there should be an end to police brutality and lynching and, thirdly, there should be opportunity for education and, fourthly, there should be freedom from all humiliating restrictions on people when they travel through certain sections of the country. The source stated that Wilkins continued that these wants cannot be achieved through any mass organization on racial basis. It was his contention, according to the report, that large organizations do not "get" the masses of the people. He reportedly said that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People had only 175,000 members, which is a small amount of Negro population, but that there is a need of a million people to back up some sort of program and according to his statement no great organization would do it on a racial basis. (G-2, 100-7660-1255)

It is reported that Wilkins spoke at a conference of the Peoples Committee in New York City on March 18, 1943. The Peoples Committee has been reliably reported to be subject to Communist influence. It is an organization interested in bettering conditions for Negroes both locally and nationally. It has had a number of known and reliably reported Communists on its Board of Directors and list of officers including such people as Benjamin Davis, Jr., Charles Collins, Thelma Dale, Clifford McAvoy, Max Yergan, and others. Wilkins is said to have stressed in his speech at the conference the need for unity among various groups interested in racial conditions.

A usually reliable source reported that on May 3, 1943, the Residence Club and Public Affairs Committee at the Harlem Branch, YMCA, held the Fourth of a series of forums at 180 West 135th Street. Wilkins spoke on the subject, "What techniques shall we use and how shall we use them to insure democracy here now and during the postwar period?" The source reported that Wilkins said the Negro people want primarily to be free to be employed on their merits and to put an end to police brutality and lynching, an opportunity for education and freedom from all humiliating restrictions when they travel through certain sections of the country. He reportedly outlined the following techniques to be employed in order to successfully accomplish an undertaking during the war:

1. In wartime identify your case with the war and show that the correction of certain evils is in line with the war effort.
2. Attempt to influence legislation.
3. Unite with other groups, small minorities, labor unions, Catholic groups, other Christian groups, and Jewish groups.

(G-2 100-135-35-96)

The Amsterdam Star News, issue of August 21, 1943, carried an article by Roy Wilkins in which he severely criticized the Attorney General's suggestion to curb the migration of Negro workers to industrial areas.

(100-135-35-167)

During the early part of September, 1943, Wilkins, in his column, "The Watch Tower," published in the Amsterdam News, Negro newspaper, applied the term "quiesling" to Warren Brown, Negro whose then recent article published by the Saturday Review of Literature and the Reader's Digest, advised the Negro press "not to holler as loud as the white folks would get mad."

(G-2 100-135-164)

In November, 1943, Benjamin Davis, Jr., Negro Communist functionary, was elected on the Communist Party ticket to the New York City Council. The "Daily Worker" for November 23, 1943, carried an article to the effect that Wilkins in his column "The Watch Tower" in the "New York Amsterdam News", made the following statements after condemning the New York World Telegram in publishing articles on how Communists used racial and religious issues to win places in the elections:

"....Moreover, the Communist appeals were not vicious or based on hatred, whereas the Governorship battle was the slimiest waged here in many a decade....As our system of government is so weak that two Communists out of a council of 17 members constitute a danger, then we had better be looking into our foundations....As a matter of fact, the presence of two declared Communists in our council probably will benefit everyone. Communists stimulate activity. They stimulate progressive measures more often than they voice the aspirations of the plain peoples, even though these plain people would not go so far as to espouse Communism itself.....As for Ben Davis himself... it is to be doubted whether there is a single Council member of any higher caliber. Davis is a graduate of Amhurst and the Harvard Law School...Needless to say, with this background and with the graduate course he has received in the Communist Party, Davis is far from being a greenhorn....." (100-149163-4)

A usually reliable source reported on a meeting held December 15, 1943, under the caption "Freedom Now Mass Meeting" at the O. V. Catto Elks Hall auditorium, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The meeting was given under the auspices of the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America, CIO, and the Baptist Ministers of Philadelphia to celebrate the releases of Negro employees Henry T. McCrary and Willis Pickett, formerly employed by the Sun Shipbuilding Corporation, Chester, Pennsylvania, who had been sentenced to prison as a result of a shooting which took place at the Sun Shipbuilding Yard during the summer of 1943. Presiding as chairman of the meeting, according to the source, was Russell Watson, whom the source stated to be a registered Communist and Communist Party organizer. Among the speakers was Wilkins. He reportedly stated in substance that the Negro in America has three obstacles in his way and that one is a political one. He then referred to the poll tax in various states.

He also is alleged to have stated that economically the Negro must continue to fight in order to enjoy equal opportunities, and that through the CIO and other militant labor organizations the Negro is extending the opportunity of becoming united with powerful forces that will not only fight the cause of the Negro but will fight the cause of all working classes.

In March, 1944, the House Military Affairs Committee Chairman condemned the use of the War Department of the pamphlet "Races of Mankind". Subsequently, this pamphlet was banned by the War Department. The "Daily Worker" for March 7, 1944, contained an article listing a number of persons who criticized the ban of the book. The article said that Roy Wilkins, acting secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People stated that Representative May's outburst against the booklet "exhibits fear of scientific truth with respect to relations between the Negro and the white people of this country." Wilkins, according to the article, also said that the fact that the information of the pamphlet was known to science for decades is no reason "why the Kentucky Congressman should have been aware of it."

(100-135-A)

[REDACTED]

A meeting was held on May 17, 1944, sponsored by the Minorities Workshop of the Socialist Party located at 303 Fourth Avenue, New York City, which was described as a "protest meeting against Mayor LaGuardia's proposed Japanese-American discrimination policy." (Mayor LaGuardia was alleged to have stated that he was opposed to the bringing of Japanese-Americans in the New York City area.) Among the speakers was Roy Wilkins, who described how the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which he represented, was the first to publish anything about the Japanese evacuation program, and the first to condemn that action. He compared this action with discrimination against Negroes. He stated that Italians and Germans on the East Coast were the cause of the Nazis sending some five to ten ships a day in 1942 because of the signals which they were able to give and that in contrast not one Japanese had been convicted of espionage or sabotage in the United States. He further stated that in Salt Lake City, Utah, there was a curfew at a certain hour of night after which Japanese-Americans were not permitted to leave certain sections of that city but rather remained at home. He said that in California, Negroes had absorbed the propaganda directed by Anti-Japanese forces and consequently a lot of Negroes were of the opinion that the Japanese had not done the Negroes any good. He described his conversation with one Negro in California and quoted that person as saying, "I do not know why we are fighting the Japanese. They have not done anything to me. When I go to a hotel operated by white people they either tell me that they are full or that they do not accept colored people, and here in California there was only one hotel at which I could stay and that hotel was run by the Japanese, so why should we fight the Japs."

(Agent Coverage 100-164629-11)

Wilkins further described the Japanese as being the best truck farmers in America and stated that "they are the backbone of this country." He further criticized Mayor LaGuardia for the attitude which he took against the Japanese.

(Agent Coverage 100-164629-11)

In his column in the July 8, 1944, issue of the "Amsterdam News," Wilkins wrote the following under the title, "Memo on 'Rape' Charges": He stated that Negro soldiers are getting "a thorough rooking in military courts on 'rape' charges." He cited life sentences given to two Negro soldiers in New Caledonia and the proposed hanging and later life sentences given to four Negro soldiers and a Merchant Marine in Australia for similar sex offenses. He also cited a recent conviction of a Captain Morrison Wilkinson (white) by Court-martial in Santa Ana, California, to a sentence of 30 years' imprisonment for four sex offenses, bigamy and theft, "contrasted with the conviction of Negroes in the Army on charges of sex offenses" as being bound to raise the question of the differences between rape by white men and rape by black men.

In the August 3, 1944, issue of the Los Angeles "Sentinel", a Negro newspaper, Wilkins in an editorial declared that the Negro vote was necessary for the winning party in the forthcoming election. He stated, "It may be true that most of them, like a great many white voters, are not exactly cheering for Dewey but they cannot even get up a smile for the Democratic platform and Truman. It might be that unless the Roosevelt Administration does something positive between now and November, great sections of the Negro population will swing to the G.O.P."

Wilkins' column, (100-135-27-127) "The Satan Tower," appeared in the November 23, 1944, issue of the Los Angeles "Sentinel." This article relates that Fordham Catholic University of America and Manhattan College and Sacred Heart had lowered the bars to Negroes in the past few years, but Notre Dame has the church baffled. No Negro has ever tried the campus at Notre Dame, according to the article, or worn its athletic uniform. The article also implied that an injury suffered by a great Negro football player on the Illinois football team during the fall of 1944, in the game with Notre Dame, was something more than just an accident.

The December 23, 1944, issue of the "Peoples Voice" carries an article entitled "Views on Dewey Ousted Writer." This article stated that Wilkins had been ousted from his post as columnist for the New York "Amsterdam News". The article stated that Wilkins interpreted his dismissal at the end of November instead of during the summer or fall as a desire on the part of the Editor to avoid "discussion of the muzzling of a supposedly 'free' columnist during a political campaign."

It is reported that during the period January 19-21, 1945, a race religious institute was held at the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church in Cleveland, Ohio. Among the speakers on January 20, 1945, were Roy Wilkins and James L. Farmer, the latter being with the Fellowship of Reconciliation. According to an informant, Wilkins spoke on the subject, "A Program for Today" and stated that America is coming to age on the question of race relations. He reportedly made the following additional remarks: The Second World War caused us to realize this a great deal more. The good neighbor policy does not mean for us to be good to our neighbor but for our neighbor to be good to us. Security is necessary for all groups. This includes physical protection, economic security, and the right to work.

The March 1, 1945, issue of the Peoples Voice, Negro newspaper of New York City, carried an article devoted to the directive of the Fair Employment Practice Committee to the Capital Transit Company in Washington, D. C., that it employ and upgrade Negroes as bus and trolley operators. The article advises that the head of this company insisted that a strike threat barred the company from employing Negroes in these capacities. The article further stated that Roy Wilkins, Acting Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, pointed out that the refusal of the Capital Transit Company to employ Negroes was more than a local issue. He is quoted as having stated, "The eyes of the country are on this case. The eyes of our soldiers overseas are upon it."

On March 14, 1945, the sub-Committee of the Senate Labor and Education Committee concluded its hearings on the permanent Fair Employment Practice bill. Wilkins testified before the sub-Committee. He read into the record a five page prepared statement calling to the attention of the group the fact that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People then had more than 400,000 members, Negro and white, in some 800 local chapters, located in 44 states and the District of Columbia. In connection with the employment of Negroes in government agencies, Wilkins stated that an overwhelming majority of these employees are still limited to custodial and minor clerical positions, so that the general trend does not reflect any basic changes in governmental policy of limiting Negroes to laborious and unremunerative positions. Wilkins then referred to the discrimination against Negroes by the railroads and declared the adoption of S-101 would give real meaning to democracy and equality for 13 million Negroes. Wilkins criticized Senator Taft's bill, and pointed out that there was no defined area in which it was to operate, that it failed to provide for the inclusion of nondiscrimination clauses in contracts met by the government. He concluded with the statement that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was irrevocably opposed to the Taft bill but that it strongly supported S-101 in its then present form.

SYNOPSIS:

Newspaper story reflects on April 11, 1955, Roy Wilkins was unanimously elected by Board of Directors of NAACP to succeed the late Walter White as Executive Secretary of the organization. Director noted, "What do we know of him?" Roy Wilkins born St. Louis, Missouri, 1901; received A.B. degree from University of Minnesota, 1929, majored in journalism, economics and sociology. Has been connected with NAACP in various capacities since 1931. Approximate 400 references to Wilkins in Bureau files although never investigated by Bureau. The majority of references are newspaper items and review of them would indicate that in 1930's and early 1940's Wilkins tended to adhere to Communist Party line but since that time, appears to be strongly anti-Communist and has done all possible to steer NAACP away from any Communist infiltration. In September, 1936, was member of National Committee of International Workers Order, a Communist influenced organization. In 1937 also was active on the Scottsboro Defense Committee. Also associated with Congress Against War and Fascism in 1937. According to "Daily Worker," Wilkins in 1938 active in Farmers Alliance which was a Communist influenced organization. In June, 1939, confidential source alleged that Wilkins was Communist. Also in 1939 Wilkins was active in Negro Peoples Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy, a Communist controlled group. In 1948 Wilkins, keynote speaker at 39th Annual Conference of NAACP in Kansas City, Missouri, urged delegates not to be intimidated by cry of Communism and said Negroes did not want totalitarian state either of the right or of the left. In 1949 stated Communist Party greatly concerned over election of Roy Wilkins to fill vacancy caused by year's leave of absence of Walter White. Informant alleged Wilkins openly opposed to tactics of Communist Party and had been one of leaders in NAACP responsible for defeat of the Communists in their effort to take over the organization on a national scale. Wilkins sided with Paul Robeson regarding the Peekskill riot in 1949. Benjamin Davis and Henry Winston, Communist Party functionaries on national level, critical of Wilkins in January, 1950, because he would not accept Communist help. Frederick Woltman's article in February, 1950, alleged NAACP a top priority target of Communist Party strategy and ultimate objective of the Communists was to oust Wilkins.

as he was outspoken anti-Red. "American Magazine" for December, 1954 carried an article by Roy Wilkins entitled "Stalin's Greatest Defeat". This article concerned the Communist Party's attempt to recruit Negro people. Article considered excellent treatise on Communist Party approach to the Negro question by the Bureau. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Bureau files further reflect that since initial association with NAACP Wilkins has traveled throughout the country speaking before various branches of the organization. Has urged Negroes to fight for equal rights but has never advocated violence or radical measures. In 1948 Wilkins repudiated allegations that NAACP would support Henry Wallace in his Presidential campaign. NAACP at 41st Annual Convention in Boston in 1950 voted 6 to 1 in favor of appointing a special board for purpose of uprooting Communist infiltration. "New Leader" for February, 1950, stated, "The Commies in the NAACP are gunning for Roy Wilkins, its determinedly anti-Stalinist secretary." Bureau has had little contact with Wilkins and files reflect he has written to us only twice in absence of Walter White and we have directed the letters to Wilkins.

PURPOSE AND BACKGROUND:

A news story appearing in the April 12, 1955, issue of the "New York Herald Tribune" was headlined "Roy Wilkins Leader of N.A.A.C.P." The story stated that Wilkins, Administrator of the NAACP, had been named on April 11, 1955, to succeed the late Walter White as Executive Secretary of the organization, Mr. White having died on March 21, 1955. Wilkins was elected unanimously by the Board of Directors of the NAACP.

In regard to this news item, the Director noted, "What do we know of him?" The purpose of this memorandum is to answer the Director's inquiry.

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA:

Summary

Who's Who in America, 1954-55, reflects that ~~Wilkins~~ Wilkins, Social Welfare Executive, was born in St. Louis, Missouri, August 30, 1901. He received an A.B. degree from the University of Minnesota in 1923. He was Managing Editor of the "Kansas City Call" from 1923 to 1931. He was Assistant Secretary of NAACP from 1931 to 1949, Acting Secretary from 1949 to 1950, and Administrator of the organization from 1950 to his recent election as Executive Secretary. He was Editor of "Crisis" magazine, monthly official NAACP organ, from 1934 to 1949.

Pa.
Mass.

Wilkins' home is at 147-15 Village Road, Jamaica, New York, and his office is at 20 East 40th Street, New York City.

Additionally, the news story referred to above reflects that Wilkins majored in journalism, economics and sociology. The news story also reflects that Wilkins' former position of Administrator in the NAACP was abolished at the election in which he became Executive Secretary.

INFORMATION IN BUREAU FILES:

There are approximately 400 references to Roy Wilkins in Bureau files. The Bureau has never conducted an investigation concerning him. A review of these references reflects that for the most part they are newspaper clippings referring to his activities in connection with his duties as an official of the NAACP. Because of the volume of this material, information will not be set forth in its entirety. The files have been reviewed and only significant references which will tend to characterize Wilkins are being set forth. It would appear from a review of Bureau files that in the 1930's and early 1940's Wilkins tended to adhere closely to the Communist Party line, but since that time, it appears that he has been strongly anti-Communist and has done all possible to steer the NAACP away from any Communist infiltration.

In April, 1945, Mr. Fred Lyons of the State Department submitted the names of five Negroes who were being considered for the position of American Minister to Liberia. One of these five individuals was Roy Wilkins. We, accordingly, prepared a 14-page blind summary memorandum of information appearing in Bureau files on April 20, 1945, and furnished it to the State Department. In connection with this memorandum, the above summary was utilized and brought up to date. (62-39749-456; 62-78270)

Connections and Affiliations

On December 11, 1934, Roy Wilkins, along with other individuals, was arrested for parading without a permit in front of the Memorial Continental Hall at 17th and D Streets, Northwest, Washington, D. C. (100-1411-1)

In September, 1936, the name of Roy Wilkins appeared on the stationery of the International Juridical Association as a member of the National Committee. The International Juridical Association was reported to be a Communist influenced organization in the legal field. (61-7559-1159)

The "Daily Worker" of July 29, 1937, made reference to a meeting of the Scottsboro Defense Committee. Among the various groups participating were the NAACP, Communist Party and International Labor Defense. Roy Wilkins was listed as one of the outstanding speakers scheduled. (100-7563-36X12)

Roy Wilkins was Chairman of a subcommittee of the Fourth National Congress Against War and Fascism held in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, in November, 1937. (61-6589-62)

In the testimony of Walter Steele before the Dies Committee on August 16, 1938, he discussed the last convention (1937) of the American League Against War and Fascism. In his testimony, he stated that among the "headliners" at this convention was Roy Wilkins, along with such people as Earl Browder, Elizabeth Gurley Flynn and others.

According to the "Daily Worker," in 1939 Wilkins was active in the affairs of the Workers Alliance which was a Communist influenced organization. (61-7551-161X18)

In June, 1939, a confidential source advised that Roy Wilkins, columnist for the "Amsterdam News," a Negro newspaper in New York City, was a Communist. He was alleged to have been extremely active in keeping the Book and Magazine Guild "in line" and at the same time active in the American League for Peace and Democracy. (61-7566-1566)

In 1939 also, Wilkins was active in the organization, Negro Peoples Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy, which was a Communist controlled group. (65-7563-69176)

The January 14, 1944, issue of the "Daily Worker" contained an article discussing a scheduled meeting sponsored by the National Workers Order. A number of persons, either known Communists or reliably reported Communists, were listed as scheduled speakers. Also listed as a speaker was Roy Wilkins, Editor of "Crisis." (61-7341-344169)

At the 39th Annual Conference of the NAACP held in Kansas City, Missouri, in June, 1948, Roy Wilkins, as the keynote speaker, stated, "Anyone who speaks up for his rights or who does not follow the beaten path is likely to be called a Communist." He urged the delegates not to be intimidated by the cry of Communism. He said that the Negroes do not want a totalitarian state either of the right or of the left and further stated that they wanted democracy and that they would speak and work for it with every weapon in their command. leave of absence of Walter White of the NAACP. The informant alleged Wilkins had been openly opposed to the tactics of the Communist Party and had been one of the leaders in the NAACP responsible for the defeat of the Communists in their effort to take over the organization on a national scale. The informant stated the Communist Party was and had been attempting to infiltrate the local branches of the NAACP, and with the election of Roy Wilkins, they expected a great deal of opposition. (100-3-3068)

Furthermore, the Anti-Communist newsletter put out by the American Business Consultants, in its issue of September 2, 1949, stated the following: "That's the reason for the protest of Roy Wilkins, Acting Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, against the riot at the Robeson concert? Wilkins is hated by the Communists... They denounce him often in their meetings and their press. Yet as a high officer of the greatest mass organization of Negroes, he is protesting in behalf of civil liberties in general and in defense of the rights of Paul Robeson, a Negro in particular." (100-350518-261)

The "Daily Worker" for December 8, 1949, reflects that the American Civil Liberties Union in a 43-page report charged that Westchester county police permitted the assault on the Paul Robeson concert near Peekskill. The article stated that five additional organizations concurred in the report and signed it. Roy Wilkins, as Acting Secretary of the NAACP, was one of the signers. (61-190-A) b7D [redacted] advised in January, 1950, that instructions were given out to all Communist Party members to make every effort to attend the National Civil Rights Mobilization sponsored by the NAACP on January 15-17, 1950. In connection with this, Benjamin J. Davis, member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, on January 8, 1950, criticized Roy Wilkins and top leadership of the NAACP for the efforts of the organization to rid itself of all forms of Communist assistance in the Mobilization.

According to the "Daily Worker" for May 16, 1950, Henry Winston, Organizational Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, was principal speaker at a mass rally sponsored by the Harlem Communist Party on May 14, 1950. In his speech, Winston attacked NAACP Administrator Roy Wilkins in supporting the cold war and confusing the Negro people in a way "that can only lead to slaughter." (100-135-34-583)

According to a news article from the "Sunday Star" for January 8, 1950, about 2,000 representatives from more than 50 national anti-Communist groups were expected to come to Washington the following week for three days of campaigning for passage of President Truman's program of civil rights legislation. These representatives would be known as the National Emergency Civil Rights Mobilization, and Roy Wilkins was scheduled to be Acting Secretary. (66-6300-44-A)

On January 10, 1950, the Pittsburgh branch of the NAACP and the Allegheny County Committee on Civil Rights held a joint meeting in Pittsburgh. Roy Wilkins attended this meeting and stated that the NAACP definitely would desire the participation of the Communist Party at the demonstration referred to above to be held in Washington January 16-17, 1950. (100-87870-13)

The "New York World Telegram and Sun" in its issue of February 14, 1950, contained an article by Frederick Weltman which stated that the Communists had set their sights on the NAACP with intent to "capture or wreck this organization." Weltman stated that the NAACP had become a top priority target of the Communist Party strategy and the ultimate objective of the Communists was to oust Roy Wilkins, NAACP Acting Secretary and an outspoken anti-Red. MISCELLANEOUS:

A review of Bureau files further reflects that since his initial association with the NAACP, Wilkins has traveled throughout the country speaking before various branches of the organization. A review of excerpts of talks he has given through the years as reflected in Bureau files would indicate that he has urged the Negro through the organization to fight for equal rights and against discrimination and segregation. There is no indication that he has ever advocated violence or radical measures but advocated fighting through teaching the Whites that the Negro is equal in all respects. He has criticized "reactionary forces in America" specifically mentioning Westbrook Pegler.

In 1943, Wilkins was sent on a tour of the communities and Army camps in the western and Pacific Coast states by the NAACP. He has been the principal speaker at numerous annual conventions of the NAACP throughout the country. The Amsterdam Star News issue of August 21, 1943, carried an article by Wilkins in which he severely criticized the Attorney General's suggestion to curb the migration of Negro workers to industrial areas. (100-135-35-167)

In November, 1943, Benjamin Davis, Jr., Negro Communist functionary was elected on the Communist Party ticket to the New York City Council. The Daily Worker for November 23, 1943, carried an article to the effect that Wilkins in his column "The Watch Tower" in the New York Amsterdam News made the following statements after condemning the New York World Telegram on publishing articles on how Communists used racial and religious issues to win places in the elections:

"....Moreover, the Communist appeals were not vicious or based on hatred, whereas the Governorship battle was the slickest waged here in many a decade....As our system of government is so weak that two Communists out of a council of 17 members constitute a danger, then we had better be looking into our foundations....As a matter of fact, the presence of two declared Communists in our council probably will benefit everyone. Communists stimulate activity. They stimulate progressive measures more often than they voice the aspirations of the plain peoples, even though these plain people would not go so far as to espouse Communism itself....As for Ben Davis himself...it is to be doubted whether there is a single Council member of any higher caliber. Davis is a graduate of Amherst and the Harvard Law School...Needless to say, with this background and with the graduate course he has received in the Communist Party, Davis is far from being a greenhorn....." In 1943, Wilkins is alleged to have been a member of the Executive Board of the Peoples Committee, a Negro organization in Harlem. This organization was reported to be Communist infiltrated.

On March 14, 1945, Wilkins testified before the Subcommittee of the Senate Labor and Education Committee which was holding hearings on the permanent Fair Employment Practice bill. Wilkins was very critical of Senator Taft in his testimony. (100-872-184-13)

According to a news item in the New York Times for March 20, 1948, Roy Wilkins, as spokesman for the NAACP, repudiated statements that the organization would assist Henry Wallace in his presidential campaign and the organization reaffirmed its nonpartisan policy. (61-3176-A)

The Boston Herald for June 24, 1950, carried a story headlined "Reds Told To Cease Attempts To Sabotage NAACP Program." The news item indicated that the delegates at the forty-first annual convention then convened in Boston had voted 309 to 57 in favor of a special board to be appointed for the purpose of uprooting Communist infiltration. The news item said that Roy Wilkins offered the following statement, "The decisive vote of almost 6 to 1 by which the delegates declared the opposition of this association to Communism is formal recognition of the oft-demonstrated fact that liberal organizations seeking reforms under the American system cannot work effectively with Communists." (61-3176-563)

The New Leader for February 4, 1950, in a column entitled "Heard On The Left" stated, "The Commies in the NAACP are gunning for Roy Wilkins, its determinedly anti-Stalinist secretary." (61-3176-A)

A news story appearing in the New York World Telegram-Sun for February 16, 1950, and headlined "NAACP Backs Wilkins Under Fire By Reds" stated that the first move in a Communist backdrive to oust Roy Wilkins, Acting Secretary of the NAACP, was decisively defeated by the NAACP Board of Directors at a meeting the previous day by a vote of 14 to 3. (61-3176-A)

The Bureau is currently conducting investigation in a case entitled "The Citizens Councils (of Mississippi), AKA Association of Citizens Councils of Mississippi" under an Internal Security-X caption. By memorandum to the Director dated March 3, 1955, Warren Olney III of the Department enclosed three Photostats of a news article which appeared in the Los Angeles Tribune on January 28, 1955, regarding the subject organization. Olney pointed out that according to the news article, certain Negro citizens of Mississippi transmitted affidavits to the NAACP regarding economic pressure brought against them by the Association of Citizens Councils. Olney pointed out that the article indicated that the affidavits referred to might be in the possession of Roy Wilkins of the NAACP and suggested that copies of these affidavits be obtained if possible in order to complete investigation. Olney's memorandum was acknowledged on March 15, 1955, and the New York Office requested to contact the NAACP for copies of the affidavits referred to. (105-34237-9)

CONTACTS WITH THE BUREAU:

Roy Wilkins has had very little contact with the Bureau. In the absence of Walter White he did write to the Director on September 10, 1947, in connection with "the so-called Robeson incident in Peoria, Illinois, last April." He requested investigation concerning this matter. Wilkins had received his information from a Mr. Hazelwood of Peoria, Illinois, a vice president of the Peoria Chapter of the NAACP. Hazelwood had written directly to the Bureau at an earlier date regarding this matter. Wilkins' letter was acknowledged on September 15, 1947, and he was advised that Hazelwood's letter had already been referred to the Attorney General for his consideration and any further action he deemed appropriate. We took no further action in this matter. (100-12304-87)

By letter dated August 14, 1953, Wilkins wrote to the Director and merely acknowledged receipt of a letter the Director had written on August 5, 1953, to Walter White. Wilkins advised that Mr. White would communicate with the Director upon his return to his office. (61-3176-852)

By letter dated November 15, 1954, the chief Post Office Inspector furnished to the Bureau for further action a letter dated November 5, 1954, received by him from Roy Wilkins. Attached to Wilkins' letter was a mimeograph of a copy of an extortion type letter wherein the writer signed himself "Yours for the NAACP, Rufus Tecumseh Washington III." This letter is dated September 8, 1954, and contains scurrilous language and threats against Governor White of Mississippi. Wilkins in his letter indicated that the NAACP had no connection with the mailing of the letter to Governor White and that the letter had been mimeographed and distributed in Mississippi in an effort to slander and discredit the NAACP. He requested investigation of the distribution of this letter through the mails. Actually, we had received an earlier copy of this letter through other channels, and investigation by the Bureau had failed to identify the sender of this letter to Governor White.

By letter dated November 19, 1954, Wilkins was advised that his letter had been referred to the Bureau from the Post Office Department. He was advised that the Bureau was already conducting investigation regarding this letter as a possible violation of the Federal Extortion Statute.

By letter dated December 22, 1954, Wilkins was advised that the Assistant Attorney General of the Criminal Division, Department of Justice, had advised that there did not appear to be a violation within the Bureau's jurisdiction and consequently no investigation was being conducted by the Bureau. The New York Office by letter dated 8-2-56 forwarded a letter received by Walter Winchell. The letter written to Winchell is anonymous and is an attack on Negroes, particularly the NAACP. The anonymous letter writer quotes Wilkins as saying before the Bahai Assembly, 119 West 57th Street, in 1941, that "We Negroes are praying for a Japanese victory." According to the anonymous letter, during the question period a man sitting in the audience inquired "Why do you want a Japanese victory." Wilkins supposedly replied "Because the Japs will give us a better deal. You white people gave us a rotten deal."

Walter Winchell has written in the margin, "Is this true?"

A review of the numerous references to Wilkins in Bufiles failed to reveal such an incident.

The files do reflect that Wilkins supposedly described his conversation with another Negro in California in 1944 quoting the other Negro as saying, "I do not know why we are fighting the Japanese. They have not done anything to me. When I go to a hotel operated by white people they either tell me that they are full or that they do not accept colored people, and here in California there was only one hotel at which I could stay and that hotel was run by the Japanese, so why should we fight the Japs." Wilkins further described the Japanese as being the best truck farmers in America and "They are the backbone of this country. This information is the result of Agent coverage of a meeting at which Wilkins spoke. (100-164629-11)

The only other similar reference is the following supposedly said by Wilkins at an open forum on 11-1-42 at Portland, Oregon. "We are also concerned with the world front...Justice for all and not just for some. We cannot just sit here in Portland and say we will do as we please. After this war, we will have no separation from other places. The world is too small.....Why do you suppose that Japan took Java, a country of forty million people in one week....They were already sick of the people who were over them. It made no difference to them who was the slave driver."

A yellow boss is just as good as a white boss. These countries would still be free if these people had felt they had something to die for. They will never take the United States if they will just wipe out some of these things. The Negro belongs here; it is as much their country as it is ours. We will fight for it just as long as the white man, just as we have a reason to fight. Give him, then hope for freedom, dignity, and security." This was also the result of Agent coverage.

FUGITIVE.

Dear Sir:

Under date of November 11, 1937, Mr. Roy Wilkins, Assistant Secretary of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People, 65 Fifth Avenue, New York City, addressed a communication to the Attorney General, in which he advises that thirty negroes are being held virtually as slaves in a stockade at Halley, Arkansas, and are being worked at the point of guns. It is stated in this letter that the information has been relayed to Mr. Wilkins by way of Chicago, Illinois, and he urges an immediate investigation of this situation at Halley.

For your information, several complaints have been received through the above named Association, one particularly to which I refer is a complaint made by [redacted] Memphis, Tennessee, who, on July 18, 1937, addressed a letter to the Department of Justice, in Washington, complaining of the fact that three negro boys who were residents of Memphis, had been detained at Halley, Arkansas, on a plantation of one [redacted]. For your complete information, I am forwarding a copy of this communication, together with the report of Special Agent [redacted] dated at Memphis, Tennessee, September 24, 1937, entitled [redacted], which sets forth an interview with [redacted] and furnishes information to the effect that the victims, [redacted] all colored, were at that time residing in Chicago and New York City.

Special Agent [redacted] of this office, conducted investigation in connection with this matter, same being reflected in his report rendered in connection with the above mentioned case and dated [redacted] 1, 1937, copy of which report is furnished for your information.

The matter was presented in its entirety to the United States Attorney, at Little Rock, on December 2, 1937, at which time prosecution was declined, in view of the fact that the Fugitive Statute, in the opinion of the United States Attorney, had not been violated.

It appears that there is a possibility that the [redacted] complaint is based upon information which is an outgrowth of the case entitled [redacted] and it is for this reason that [redacted]

The matter is being referred to your office, with the request that Mr. Wilkins be interviewed and that full and complete information be obtained from him concerning the thirty persons, or at least a few of them, who are being held at Halley, Arkansas. In order that the investigation may be brought to a logical conclusion. At the present time, appropriate inquiry is being made by agents of this office at Halley, Arkansas, particularly of

It is further desired that you ascertain from Mr. Wilkins the sources of his information, in order that the complainants may be interviewed.

All of these cases reflect an initial complaint similar or identical with that contained in the letter of the Memphis Office dated May 16, 1938, and it is particularly noted that that letter reflects the lawful conviction of [REDACTED]
As indicated in the above files, these facts have been presented to the United States Attorney at Little Rock, Arkansas, and he has consistently advised that as long as the plantation constitutes a regular detention farm for prisoners, and so long as prisoners are lawfully charged and sentenced in a court of law, they are lawfully detained and there is no indication of violation of the Peonage Statute.

It is noted that in the case entitled "[REDACTED]"

[REDACTED] the plantation owned and operated by [REDACTED] is a regular detention farm for St. Francis, Cross and Woodruff Counties, and [REDACTED] County, Arkansas, the point of the alleged offense, is located in [REDACTED] County, Arkansas.

RECORDED 50-1359-8
It is respectfully requested that this office and the Memphis Office be advised whether an investigation is desired in view of the fact that the United States Attorney's office holds that these facts, as indicated, do not constitute a violation of the Peonage Statute.

EXTORTION - RACIAL MATTERS

JAMES R. MAPP, President, Local Chapter, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Chattanooga, Tennessee, advised he received the following letter at the NAACP Office, Chattanooga, Tennessee, November 1, 1969. The letter was postmarked Chattanooga, Tennessee, October 31, 1969. The contents of the letter contained a single sheet of white paper with a newspaper photograph of ROY WILKINS taped thereto, and the handprinting message was as follows:

"Remember what we did to MEDAR EVERS and MARTIN LUTHER KING,

A hot time in hell did our bullets to these agitators bring;

Now, this _____ pictured here is destined as number three,

May we remind you _____ that our methods are not only accurate but very DEADLY!

The Term Klavern of the United Klans of America"

Mr. MAPP advised that Mr. WILKINS was in Chattanooga, Tennessee, on the night of October 29, 1969, for a speaking engagement and departed Chattanooga, Tennessee, on the morning of October 30, 1969, enroute to New York City.

UNKNOWN SUBJECT,
ROY WILKINS - VICTIM

The contents of this letter were discussed with United States Attorney, Chattanooga, Tennessee, who advised he felt the contents of this letter might possibly be a violation of Title 18, Section 876, paragraph 3, but expressed doubt as to whether or not the NAACP could be construed as a person within the purview of this statute but felt that this matter should be investigated.

Preliminary investigation is being conducted.

For the information of the Bureau, the facts of this letter were discussed with USA JOHN L. BOWERS, Jr., on 11/4/69. At this time he advised that he felt the letter might be a violation of Title 18, Section 876, Paragraph 3. There was a misunderstanding at this time as to whether or not the Postal Inspectors should handle this matter. However, on later recontact with the USA, it was determined that the Bureau should be handling and this has been done.

Synopsis: The local office of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Chattanooga, Tennessee, on 11/1/69, received an envelope postmarked Chattanooga, Tennessee, 10/31/69, with the handprinted address "NAACP 601 E. 9th St. Chattanooga, Tennessee". A slip of paper was contained in the envelope which bears a cut-out newspaper photograph of "ROY WILKINS" and handprinted message, "Remember what we did to MEDGAR EVERS and MARTIN LUTHER KING. A hot time in hell did our bullets to these agitators bring; Now, this _____ pictured here is destined as number three, May we remind you _____ that our methods are not only accurate, but ~~very~~ DEADLY!", signed "The Tenn. Klavern of the United Klans of America." The USA, Chattanooga, is of the opinion the letter might constitute a violation of Title 18, Section 876, Paragraph 3. He was not completely sure at the time as to whether or not The NAACP constituted a "person" as listed in the statute. No suspects developed. The envelope and letter were not identified with other submissions in the Anonymous Letter File of the FBI Laboratory. Two latent fingerprints of value were located on the letter but are not identical with fingerprints in the Extortion Section of the Single Fingerprint File, Identification Division of the FBI. No other letters received by the NAACP, Chattanooga, and the office of ROY WILKINS, National President, NAACP, New York informed.

The 11-28-42 issue of the "Lighthouse", Negro newspaper of San Diego, Calif., carried a front page lead article and photo of Roy Wilkins of the NAACP who spoke at a meeting in San Diego on 11-24-42. The article indicated that Negroes were told to fight for their rights during the war.

At the meeting in San Diego on 11-24-42, Wilkins charged national legislators and administrators with failure to aid the Negroes. Wilkins was reportedly one of 20 Negro editors who conferred with War Department officials in Washington on general policies in the use of Negro soldiers and the morale of Negro Americans.

The "Los Angeles Sentinel" in January 1943 quoted Roy Wilkins, Assistant Secretary of the NAACP, as saying in regard to a riot at Vallejo, Calif., between Negro and white sailors, in December 1942, that, "The outbreak at Vallejo was in the cards and its occurrence is no surprise."

[REDACTED] furnished a letter dated 8-15-50 which Howard wrote to Roy Wilkins, Administrator, NAACP, 20, W. 40th Street, N.Y. The letter was apparently a reply to a letter of August 8, from Wilkins. Howard points out, in his letter, the areas of his disagreement with Wilkins' conduct of the policies and activities of the NAACP. He mentions Wilkins' wholehearted allegiance to the Democratic Party, his violent animosity toward the Republican and Progressive Parties and his fight against "Left-Wingers." He takes issue with Wilkins' labeling everyone who disagrees with him a "Comrade" or "Communist." He reminds Wilkins that he "goes overboard assaulting the people who have been your water carriers over a long number of years." (Letter set out)

The "Greenwich Times," Greenwich, Conn., on 12-8-50, carried an article entitled: "NAACP Told Negro Soldiers in Korea Being Victimized." The article was an account of the address made by Roy Wilkins, Administrator for the NAACP, on 12-7-50 at the Eighth Anniversary Dinner of the Greenwich Branch of NAACP. In his address, Wilkins stated that the Negro soldier in Korea was being discriminated against and victimized. Wilkins spoke of the problem of race relations as the "number one problem before your country and the western world." He pointed out the people of India, Asia, and Africa wanted to know how Democracy worked in regard to the treatment of Negroes in the U.S. as compared to the Soviet Union. He also discussed race discrimination in education, transportation and the armed services and attacked Republican opposition to FEPC.

The "Daily Worker" on 8-23-55 carried an article on page 4, entitled "NAACP Head Says Politicos Stop School Law in N.C." The article disclosed that following a speech by Roy Wilkins, NAACP Executive Secretary, before the Council of Presbyterian Men of the Synod of Catawba,* at Sedalia, N.C., the President of the North Carolina NAACP received a telegram urging him to "caution your man Wilkins." Wilkins declared in his speech that desegregated schools would already exist in many North Carolina communities if the choice had been left to private citizens instead of the politicians. Wilkins also charged that Assistant Attorney General of N.C., Beverly Lake, was the Attorney General of the white people only. Wilkins asserted that he had personally been disillusioned about race relations in North Carolina. A photograph of Wilkins appeared in the article.

On 9-8-55 Mr. Caldwell of the Civil Rights Section of the Department of Justice advised that a conference was held in the office of Assistant Attorney General Olney on 9-7-55, which was attended by representatives of the NAACP. Those present included Thurgood Marshall, Roy Wilkins and Mrs. Ruby Hurley, Southeastern representative of the NAACP at Birmingham, Ala. The conference concerned the situation involving colored people in Mississippi. During the conference Mrs. Hurley made the allegation that there was a Bureau agent in Mississippi who was formerly on the police force and the colored people felt they could get no assistance from this agent and would not talk with him or go to see him.

The "Long Island Sunday Press" of 6-26-55, page one, second news section, contained an article paying tribute to Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the NAACP. (no further details).

The August 1955 issue of "Political Affairs" contained an article entitled: "The 46th Annual Convention of the NAACP" by Dorey A. Wilkerson, [REDACTED] b1

[REDACTED] The article which covered the activities of the NAACP Convention in Atlantic City, N.J. on June 21-26, 1955, contained the following statement: "As noted in the concluding address by Roy Wilkins, sharp criticism at this convention was directed, not only at Eisenhower and the G.O.P. but likewise at the Democrats." (u)

The "Daily Worker" on 10-20-55 contained an article entitled "Georgia Plans to Outlaw NAACP as 'Subversive'," which discussed the charges made by Georgia Attorney General Eugene Cook in a speech before the Annual Convention of Georgia Peace Officers. The article stated that Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the NAACP had denounced the accusations made by Attorney General Cook as part of a conspiracy by some Southern Officials to combat the Supreme Court's order to desegregate the public schools. Wilkins further charged that "the real subversives are those who defy the constitution of our country and openly declare they will not obey it, or who scheme to evade it and counsel others to do likewise."

This reference was a Bureau memo dated 5-9-56 captioned: Communist Infiltration of the NAACP, IS-C. It was indicated that Mr. Tolson had instructed that the memo be prepared regarding the remarks made by Congressman Gathings of Arkansas as they appeared in the Congressional Record of 2-23-56, concerning the communist connection of the principal officers of the NAACP. It was noted that, Congressman Gathings inserted into the Congressional Record the communist front associations of the leaders of the NAACP, as obtained from the files of the HCUA.

It was noted that the material included the past record of Roy Wilkins, the present Executive Secretary of the NAACP, which indicated that Wilkins was associated with five communist front organizations and had voted for Benjamin J. Davis, a convicted Smith Act subject, in the 1940's. The records of Thurgood Marshall, special counsel for the NAACP and Dr. W. E. B. Dubois, one of the founders of the NAACP were also cited. It was noted that Wilkins stated on 10-19-54 that Dubois resigned from the NAACP in 1934 in a dispute over policy matters. According to Wilkins, Dubois returned to the NAACP in 1944 as director of special research but his position was terminated in 1948.

It was indicated in the memo that Bureau investigation of communist infiltration of the NAACP had established that the current leadership of the NAACP had repudiated the CP and had strongly resisted communist attempts to infiltrate the organization.

A copy of the "Congressional Record" of 2-23-56, which was enclosed with this memo, contained on pages 2805 through 2849 the records of NAACP officers whose communist connection were cited by the HCUA. Information concerning the CP affiliations of Roy Wilkins appears on pages 2805 and 2806.

On 8-5-56, Roy Wilkins appeared on the Television program "Meet the Press" and was interviewed by Thomas Waring of the "Charleston News and Courier," Charleston, S.C.; Mrs. Elizabeth May Craig of the "Press Herald," Portland, Maine; Lynn Van der Linden, of the "Nashville Banner," Nashville, Tenn.; Lawrence Spivak and the moderator, Ned Brooks. The program was devoted to a discussion of the power wielded by Negro voters. Wilkins pointed out that Negroes may hold a balance of power in electing candidates. He deplored the lack of action on the part of either the Republican or Democratic parties in obtaining full civil rights for Negroes as called for by the Supreme Court. Wilkins was asked whether he had made a statement attributed to him by the "Daily Worker" in which he allegedly stated, "the communist party has a wholesome effect on Negroes." Wilkins denied ever praising CP actions and stated he did not recall making such a statement. He said he had been under fire from the CP for certain statements and added that he was never a sponsor or member of any group associated with the CP.

The Internal Security Sub-committee of the Senate Judiciary Committee made available the Report of Proceedings of a Hearing, regarding the "Scope of Soviet Activity in the US," held before the committee on 2-20-57. The report contained the testimony of Carl Rachlin, identified as a New York Attorney and a member of the Board of Directors of the New York Civil Liberties Union, who was an unofficial observer at the recent Communist Party convention in New York City. Rachlin, who was a co-operative witness, furnished the committee his general observations and analysis of the convention proceedings. His testimony included the following statement: "Another thing that they made quite clear at the convention and which, in a way, was disturbing, is that the CP is going to make an extra special effort to infiltrate into Negro mass organizations. I read in the press later that Roy Wilkins, who is the head of the NAACP, publicly repudiated them, but there is no doubt from the nature of the national committee elected, approximately five or six of the 20 were Negroes, that the CP is going to make an extremely special effort to infiltrate and take over control of Negro groups."

On 3-5-57 the "Birmingham Post - Herald," Birmingham, Ala., carried an article by columnists John Temple Graves, under the title, "The Mists of Conflict Are Lifting." The article indicated that Mr. Graves had received a note from Roy Wilkins of the NAACP, asking for comment on a story, of the distribution by a certain Citizens Council group of a faked lecture by a non-existent Negro professor calling for racial inter-marriage. Comment was also requested on the statement by an official of the Council concerning the story, who said "We never claimed it to be authentic." Graves replied to Wilkins by commenting that "it was a stupid and damnable thing to do." He further commented however, that it was "more stupid but less damnable" than the NAACP's distribution of the story.

A "Washington City News Service" release dated 3-9-57 at Baton Rouge, La., reported on testimony given by witnesses before a Louisiana Legislative Committee. Sgt. Hubert Badeaux of the New Orleans Police Dept. read sections of a report of a Divisional meeting of the CP, held in Birmingham Ala. in the spring of 1955. He stated the report was found in a raid on the quarters of Hunter Pitts O'Dell, the top communist in Louisiana. The report contained a statement that the Party should build up such organizations as the NAACP and should help organize NAACP branches. According to the news release, Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the NAACP, stated in reply to the charges, that the communists had failed in all their attempts to organize branches of the organization. Wilkins said "they haven't

The article quoted remarks made by Robert Webb, Associate Editor of the "State Times" at a meeting of the South Jackson Lions Club. Webb expressed the view that if the NAACP had been sincere in its efforts to advance colored people it could have prevented the student walkout at Alcorn A and M college. His statement said in part: "Had Roy Wilkins spoken earlier before the damage was done, the student body would have remained at Alcorn. As it was Wilkins waited until the demonstrations were six days old to admonish the students that Prof. King was merely exercising the tolerant right of free speech."

Roy Wilkins
Executive Secretary
National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

Roy Wilkins was born August 30, 1901. He is a male, resides at 147-15 Village Road, Jamaica 35, New York, and is occupied as Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

The April 25, 1933 edition of the "Daily Worker," page 1, column 8, contained an article captioned "NAACP Crowd Line Up for Scottsboro Boys". This article showed that Roy Wilkins, Assistant National Secretary of the NAACP, attended a meeting of the NAACP and introduced one Frank Spector, Assistant National Secretary of the International Labor Defense, to that meeting.

The International Labor Defense has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Page 2 of the January 11, 1937 edition of the "Daily Worker" carried an article entitled "Call Anti-War Parley Here for Jan. 29." This article showed that one Roy Wilkins, not further identified, was listed herein as a sponsor of the Fourth Annual New York City Conference Against War and Fascism. This article showed that the conference was held under the auspices of the New York City Division of the American League Against War and Fascism.

The American League Against War and Fascism has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On January 24, 1944, G-2, United States Army, made available information which showed that Roy Wilkins, Editor of "The Crisis," a monthly magazine of the NAACP, was one of the principal speakers at the Wartime Inter-Group Unity Conference held January 24, 1944, at the International Workers Order (IWO) Fraternal Club House, New York City.

The IWO has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Column 2, page 12 of the December 24, 1944 edition of the "Daily Worker" contained an article captioned "Back IWO Drive for Negro Members." This article showed that 13 Negro and white leaders in the fields of education, arts, letters, religion and labor had endorsed the IWO campaign to enroll 6,000 Negro Americans into its fraternal ranks by May 31, 1945. Among the names of leaders listed was Roy Wilkins, Editor of "The Crisis," official NAACP publication.

The June 11, 1944 edition of the "Daily Worker," page 7, magazine section, contained an article captioned "A Day With Councilman Davis." This article referred to the daily activities of New York City Councilman Benjamin E. Davis, Jr., and stated that a letter from Roy Wilkins, Acting Secretary of the NAACP, was received by Davis. According to this article, Wilkins thanked Davis for offering his services as a lawyer in the fight in Georgia to enforce the Supreme Court "white supremacy opinion."

[REDACTED]

The CP, USA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Column 1, page 6 of the July 2, 1950 edition of "The Worker" contained an article captioned "NAACP Leaders Dared Rights of Negroes". This article stated that it had been remarked that the 41st Annual NAACP Conference, concluded the previous Sunday in Boston, was the "best-organized public gathering run by the United States State Department since the 1949 CIO anti-Communist bee in Cleveland..."

"Roy Wilkins, NAACP Administrator, was the main front man for the State Department's disastrous anti-Negro policies." The article continued to abuse Wilkins for the manner in which he conducted the convention.

[REDACTED]

advised that Roy Wilkins was the National Administration Secretary of the NAACP. It was this source's belief that Wilkins would not knowingly be used by the Communists; that Wilkins had fought Communism for many years and that he was then openly anti-Communist.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Will introduce myself as friend of [redacted] (he let me read your autographed copy Whitehead's book) and as a member of St. Johns No. 11

About a month ago I happened to see Chat Huntley TV discussion on intergration having a South Carolina editor and Roy Wilkins, Naacp lawyer, as guests. The editor gave a good impression of the NAACP being extremely left-wing, and then Wilkins took up your book and said J. Edgar Hoover has cleared NAACP of being communist led, or infiltrated, or some such subversion, making out the editor a liar.

Am writing at this late date because last week I read an excerpt in the N.Y. Herald Tribune that Wilkins is pushing this theme on New York television station.

Those who know, know that Wilkins himself has at least 9 Communist-front citations by the House Committee on UnAmerican Activities. During the past three years anyone who has followed the integration battle knows that NAACP agitation is directed toward strife and not peaceful trends toward integration. They also know the extensive records of Communist citations of NAACP leaders and officers.

I have Masters of Deceit and see clearly the misrepresentation of your appraisal of certain NAACP activities which Wilkins is exploiting to the country. He makes it sound that J. Edgar Hoover says there are no reds in his organization - you have given it a clean bill of health.

I hope you will keep you eye on him and on his next overt act you make your position clear.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely, 20 MAR 16 1959

Pursuant to instructions, I met with Mr. Wilkins 2-24-60. He desired to express his appreciation to the FBI for the continuing good cooperation between the Bureau and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). He asked that his comments be conveyed to the Director and was assured that they would be immediately.

Mr. Wilkins conceded there were a number of communists in the NAACP. He stated he could not prove this and actually was unaware of their identity. He stressed and emphasized that communists were not in control of any of their chapters and would be "booted out" if enough proof could be obtained on them. He pointed out that the Los Angeles NAACP branch was at present composed of "extremists" and that he feared the activities of this group very much. He stated that administrative steps were being taken to rid the Los Angeles branch of this group of "extremists" and he sincerely hoped that within the next several years conditions would improve. He advised he did not want to mention any names at this time but would keep in close touch with us in the event this group became too strong in their demonstrations.

I took the liberty of expressing the Director's appreciation to Mr. Wilkins for his support of the FBI and the fact that he had mentioned us very favorably on a number of occasions in his speeches. I told him the Director deeply appreciated the very favorable resolution passed by the NAACP at its last convention in New York. Mr. Wilkins stated he and Irving Ferman had engineered this matter.

I told Mr. Wilkins that as he well knew considerable pressure had been put on the FBI by minority groups to make available to the public FBI reports in the Mack Charles Parker case. He was told that the FBI had withstood all types of disadvantages in order to solve this case against great odds. However, notwithstanding this fact, we have never received adequate credit for the great work done. I told Mr. Wilkins that actually we had received a number of letters containing insults to our actions in this case and particularly as to why our reports were not made available to the public. I explained in some detail why it would be wrong under our democratic system of government to expose these reports.

ROY WILKINS
Born: August 20, 1901
St. Louis, Missouri

Roy Wilkins has never been the subject of an investigation conducted by this Bureau. He has been associated with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) since approximately 1931. His name, therefore, has appeared frequently in the public press as he has endeavored to further the publicly known aims and purposes of this nationally known organization.

During the 1930's and 1940's various communist publications contained articles concerning Wilkins's activities when those activities coincided in purpose with programs sponsored by the Communist Party (CP). No information has been received, however, that Wilkins has ever been a CP member.

Roy Wilkins

"Roy Wilkins, NAACP Administrator, was the main front man for the State Department's disastrous Anti-Negro policies." The article criticized Wilkins for the manner in which he conducted the convention.

b'2 [REDACTED] expressed his belief that Roy Wilkins, the "National Administrative Secretary" of the NAACP, would not knowingly be used by the communists; that Wilkins had fought communism for "many years" and that he was then openly anticommunist.

A National Conference of the NAACP was held during the weekend of April 6, 1957, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. At this conference, Roy Wilkins, National Secretary, NAACP, announced that all delegates to the March on Washington to be held in May, 1957, would be closely screened in order that all "leftists" be definitely omitted.

5-2 [REDACTED] advised that Roy Wilkins was one of the speakers who spoke at the Lincoln Memorial, Washington, D. C., on May 17, 1957, in connection with the above-mentioned March on Washington. Mr. Wilkins stated that the CP was an evil force, that it attempted to use the NAACP as a front for CP activities, and that the CP can only mean poverty, economic strain and slavery. (62-78270)

The Ninth Report of the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Un-American Activities In California, 1957, set out the following:

In 1949, the NAACP sponsored a nationwide civil rights mobilization and many liberal organizations participated. William E. Patterson Executive Secretary of the CRC, demanded that his group be included. Set out is a letter signed by Roy Wilkins dated 11/22/49 to Patterson, in which he set out reasons for not inviting the CRC to participate. He diagnosed the CRC as a communist front.

Set out is the testimony of Franklin H. Williams, Administrative Officer of the West Coast Region for the NAACP, in which he stated that the NAACP's leaders had resisted communist inroads. Consequently the communists had waged intermittent war on Roy Wilkins and other NAACP officers. Williams presented a letter dated 11/7/55, signed by Roy Wilkins, beginning "Dear Branch President". In this letter Wilkins advised that the NAACP should be alert against communist infiltration of the NAACP.

On 3/8/57 Manning Johnson, self admitted CP member, testified before hearings of the State of Louisiana Joint Legislative Committee at Baton Rouge, regarding Subversion in Racial Unrest. Manning stated that the CP at its recent convention in NYC adopted a resolution concerning cooperation and work with the NAACP. Abner Berry explained this policy in his column in the "DW" on 2/19/57. Roy Wilkins quickly came out to say that he wasn't for any support of the communist and Berry had proceeded to answer him. (statements by Berry set out)

On 3/9/57 Sgt. Hubert Badeaux, New Orleans, PD, testified before the Committee that one Father Droulet had taken part in a debate in which he defended Willie Dorsey, a Negro, head of Local 207, International Longshoremen and Warehousemen's Union, who had been ousted for some type of union maneuver. Father Droulet read a letter he had received from Roy Wilkins, in which he congratulated him for this liberal stand for Negroes in Houma, La.

This reference is a letter dated 3/25/58 to the Director from Roy Wilkins. Wilkins referred to an article in the 3/29/58 issue of the "New York Times Magazine" by Gertrude Samuels, a staff writer, regarding the school situation in Little Rock, Ark. Wilkins stated that Samuels had stated in the article that extremists planned to stage a big-scale demonstration to prevent a senior, Ernest Green, from marching with his class. Samuels expressed fear of violence if national guardsmen were removed from the school. Wilkins stated he knew the FBI was keeping close watch on the situation and assumed the possibility of a disturbance had not escaped the attention of the Bureau.

Attached to this letter is a letter dated 3/28/58, in which the Bureau advised Wilkins that a copy of his letter had been furnished to the Dept. of Justice. He was also advised that the above information had previously been furnished by the Bureau to the Dept. of Justice, Army authorities and local police at Little Rock, as well as the Dept. of the Army in Washington, D.C.

Bureau memo dated 2/9/59 advised that as a result of the controversy created by Chet Huntley's (100-378033) program, "The Second Agony of Atlanta," presented on 2/1/59, his program on 2/8/59 consisted of prepared statements by Mr. Thomas B. Waring, Editor, "The News and Courier" Charleston, S.C. and Mr. Ray Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the NAACP. Mr. Waring read his statement and made reference to the fact that communist sympathies of some leaders of the NAACP were well known to investigative Congressional Committee.

In rebuttal, Wilkins held a copy of the Director's book, "Masters of Deceit," and referred to the Director as the foremost authority in the U.S. on communism (Director's notation).

The NY Office advised that the Mike Wallace News Beat show (WNTA-TV Channel 13, NYC) of July 13-17, 1959, consisted in part of a special report called "The Hate That Hate Produced," the story of the rise of black racism in the U.S. On 7/15/59 Roy Wilkins was interviewed. (No further information concerning the interview). After the interview Wallace stated he found it incredible that Roy Wilkins was unaware of the existence of Elijah Muhammad, head of the Nation of Islam and Malcolm X, (100-399321) his heir apparent, as every responsible Negro in the city knew about the Muslims. Wallace then produced pictures which he stated had been unearthed by his research staff. The pictures according to Wallace were of Wilkins conversing with Malcolm X, and of the two shaking hands.

On 10/23/59 a Bureau Agent attended a program relating to the Nation of Islam (25-330971) and other racist groups, held in the studios of Television Station WTTG in the Raleigh Hotel, Washington, D.C. The show was a condensed version of a Mike Wallace program, "The Hate That Hate Produced." The second hour was devoted to a panel discussion consisting of individuals including Roy Wilkins. The panel reached the conclusion that the Nation of Islam was a force to be reckoned with in the future. Other topics included the "buy black" campaign (not further identified) and whether or not mass organizations such as the NAACP were reaching enough people to help eliminate racist groups through elimination of prejudice and race hat b7D [REDACTED] advised that on 3/5/60 an NAACP committee headed by Roy Wilkins met in Dallas, Texas with Dallas civic leaders to confer regarding Negro student sit down strikes. Wilkins was told that any racial trouble would only deter any chances the Negroes had of getting a satisfactory solution to the intergration of Dallas schools. Further that if there was a strike the white business leaders would not raise funds for the new Bishop College whi was to be relocated in Dallas. Wilkins agreed to do all he could to prevent any strikes in business houses in Dallas. He said he was meeting with the Negroes on 3/6/60, and he would have to make remarks in public which would indicate to the Negroes that he was in favor of the student sitdown strikes, but this would be only for the public consumption of Negroes.. Roy Wilkins

National Association for the

I BACKGROUND

Roy Wilkins was born August 30, 1901 at St. Louis, Missouri. He is a Negro male, resides at 147-15 Village Road, Jamaica 35, New York, and is employed as Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (N.A.A.C.P.), 20 West 40th Street, New York 18, New York, and is Editor of "The Crisis", official organ of the N.A.A.C.P.

II SUBVERSIVE INFORMATION

The April 25, 1933 edition of the "Daily Worker", page 1, column 8, contained an article captioned "N.A.A.C.P. Crowd Line Up For Scottsboro Boys". This article reflected that Roy Wilkins, Assistant National Secretary of the N.A.A.C.P. attended a meeting of the N.A.A.C.P. and introduced one Frank Spector, Assistant National Secretary of the International Labor Defense, to that meeting.

The "Daily Worker" was an east coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

The International Labor Defense has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Page 2 of the January 11, 1937 edition of the "Daily Worker" carried an article entitled "Call Anti-War Parley Hearing for Jan. 29". This article reflected that one Roy Wilkins, not further identified, was listed as a sponsor of the Fourth Annual New York City Conference Against War and Fascism. This article reflected that the conference was held under the auspices of the New York City Division of the American League Against War and Fascism.

The American League Against War and Fascism has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On January 23, 1944, G-2, United States Army, made available information that Roy Wilkins, Editor of "The Crisis", a monthly magazine of the N.A.A.C.P., was one of the principal speakers at the Wartime Inter-Group Unity Conference held January 24, 1944, at the International Workers Order (IWO) Fraternal Clubhouse, New York City.

The IWO has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Column 2, page 12 of the December 24, 1944 edition of the "Daily Worker" contained an article captioned "Back IWO Drive for Negro Members". This article reflected that 13 Negro and White leaders in the fields of education, art, letters religion and labor had endorsed the IWO campaign to enroll 6000 Negro Americans into its fraternal ranks by May 31, 1945. Among the names of leaders listed was Roy Wilkins, Editor of "The Crisis."

Column 1, page 6, of the July 2, 1950, edition of "The Worker", an east coast Communist newspaper, contained an article captioned "N.A.A.C.P. Leaders Dumped Rights of Negroes". This article stated that it had been said that the 41st Annual N.A.A.C.P. Conference concluded the previous Sunday in Boston was the "best organized public gathering run by the United States State Department since the 1949, CIO anti-Communist bee in Cleveland...".

"Roy Wilkins, N.A.A.C.P., Administrator, was the main front man for the State Department's disastrous anti-Negro policies". The article went on to further abuse Wilkins for the manner in which he conducted the convention.

b7D [REDACTED] advised that Roy Wilkins was the National Executive Secretary of the N.A.A.C.P. It was this source's belief that Wilkins would not knowingly be used by the Communists; that Wilkins had fought Communism for many years and that he was then openly anti-Communist.

b7D [REDACTED] furnished information that a letter was sent by Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary, N.A.A.C.P. to local branches of the N.A.A.C.P. According to the information furnished by this source, Wilkins was also Chairman of a Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, a group of 51 national organizations which was sponsoring a National Delegate Assembly for Civil Rights in Washington, D.C., March 4-6, 1956. According to this source, Wilkins stated that if the scheduled assembly were captured by left-wing individuals it would get very little attention from Congress. He further warned local N.A.A.C.P. branches to be very careful in selecting individuals to the nationwide conference in Washington, inasmuch as left-wingers were making a special effort to be selected as delegates by local branches of the N.A.A.C.P. Wilkins stated that the N.A.A.C.P. policy was not to cooperate with any Communist front or left-wing groups.

b7D

[REDACTED] advised that a regional conference of the N.A.A.C.P. held during the weekend of April 6, 1957, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Roy Wilkins, National Secretary of the N.A.A.C.P. made an announcement regarding the march on Washington which was to be held in May, 1957. Wilkins stated that all delegates to this "pilgrimage" had to be closely screened in order that all "leftists" be definitely omitted. According to this source, Wilkins indicated he was aware of the potential propaganda medium this affair would afford to "leftists" if they were permitted to participate therein.

b7D

[REDACTED] advised that at the March on Washington held May 17, 1957, Roy Wilkins was one of the speakers at the Lincoln Memorial, Washington, D.C. According to this source, Wilkins stated that the CP was an evil force, that it attempted to use the N.A.A.C.P. as a front for CP activities and that the CP can only mean poverty, economic strain and slavery.

Stalinist line.

Berman introduced and read a letter from Roy Wilkins, Acting Secretary, to the Acting President of the Honolulu Branch, NA.A.C.P., revoking the charter of the Honolulu Branch for failure to hold an election etc.

On September 17, 1963, Investigative Clarke
[redacted] again checked the indices of the HCUA ^{b7c} and found them to contain no additional pertinent information with the exception of the following, which appeared under the caption "Communist Activities" in the Cleveland, Ohio Area, Part I:

Brown Exhibit Number 8; an Associated Press Report dated October 11, 1951, contains a statement from Roy Wilkins, Administrator for the N.A.A.C.P. in which he voices his opposition to the formation of the National Negro Labor Council. Wilkins is quoted as having said that the N.A.A.C.P. was on record against Communist infiltration and activity and would not support in any manner an effort to split the CIA--by communists especially--or look with favor or encourage in any way the setting up of separate Negro labor organizations.

THE PHYSICIANS FORUM, INCORPORATED

Records in the office of the Clerk of New York State Supreme Court, Foley Square, New York, reflect that The Physicians' Forum, Inc. (PF) was issued a Certificate of Incorporation on April 27, 1944, under the laws of the State of New York, to operate as a non-profit, membership organization principally in the United States. The PF, under the name of the New York Physicians' Forum, had been in existence as an unincorporated association since about 1939.

A source, on September 13, 1954, furnished a folder of PF entitled "What is the Physicians' Forum?" which stated in part that to maintain freedom of thought and expression in medicine, the Forum opposes the imposition of "loyalty oaths" as a prerequisite for licensure, for hospital appointments or privileges, in medical schools, on hospital staffs and against patients; to re-establish the freedom of the medical press, the Forum urges medical society publications to open their volumes to diverse views on controversial subjects; and to provide a forum wherein socially liberal doctors may express their views in opposition to the policies of organized medicine.

The report of the Sub-Committee to Investigate the Administration of the Internal Security Act and other Security Laws of the Committee of the Judiciary, United States Senate, 82nd Congress, 1952 on "Subversive Influence in the Educational Process" on page 37 sets out the testimony of BELLA DODD, member of the National Committee of the Communist Party from 1944 to 1948. DODD testified that the PF was established primarily by the Communist Party (CP) and although not all members of the PF were Communists, the "initiative for organizing the PF came from the CP, came from the ninth floor (35 East 12th Street, New York City), where the National Committee of the CP existed."

On April 24, 1963, the above source advised that the PF is opposed to the resumption of nuclear testing and is against compulsory membership for physicians in the American Medical Association (AMA). It continues to be active in a program of supporting legislation which would provide medical care for the recipients of Social Security benefits, and provide for Social Security benefits for physicians.

The Physicians Forum is located at 510 Madison Avenue, New York, New York.

Dear Sir

After reading the current issue of "U.S. News & World Report" page 14 where Mr. Hoover is quoted as saying "Be alert to fanatics" I take this opportunity to write you concerning the enclosed booklet that was given to me by a "Friend" here in Salt Lake City. Dec 16 '63

If it isn't too much trouble I would like to have a comment from someone qualified in your dept. on this subject. I am particularly interested in the information alledged to on page 22 concerning Roy Wilkins. Are the allegations made true? Is or was Mr. Wilkins a Communist? Is, or was he connected in anyway with the organizations mentioned? Did he make any of the alledged statements on this page?

If you are unable to give this information to me is it possible to get it from some other Dept. of the Government?

I am not a negro, nor do I ever expect to be one, but if these allegations are not true, nor a basis for truth then I would like to pin this "Friend" to the wall and stop this nonsense. d

I thank you for your time and trouble

Very truly Yours,
[REDACTED] b7c

P.S. I would appreciate the return of this booklet along with any information that you might send.

The "New York Amsterdam News" a NY Weekly Negro newspaper, of 1/20/62, reported that the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights (62-107653) would stage a mass mobilization of civil rights leaders throughout the country to Washington, D.C., in early March, 1962, to seek bi-partisan support behind certain civil rights bills. Roy Wilkins, Chairman of the Leadership group and Executive Secretary of the NAACP, stated, according to this article, that this year's mobilization would not seek to have a large mass of people but to have a wide cross section of representation from all parts of the country, "to show that we don't agree with the Kennedy Administration's civil rights position---." Wilkins said the Leaders Conference represented sixty national organizations.

This article was the third in a series by Negro author Louis E. Lomax (62-102926) which disclosed the increasing friction among Roy Wilkins, James Farmer and Martin Luther King, leader of the NAACP, CORE and SCLC, respectively. Who would get the credit for holding mass demonstrations and to whom well-wishers should send their money, were at the root of the "current" crisis. In a speech in Virginia, Wilkins claimed the NAACP was doing all the work and footing the bills while other organizations including CORE and King, were making all the noise and grabbing the headlines. NOI through the leadership of Elijah Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, has affiliates throughout the US, and publishes a newspaper called "Muhammad Speaks." NOI's teachings stress separation of the black and white race, destruction of the white race, America, and Christianity by Allah, and non-participation in the white man's wars.

Members of NOI attended a rally at which Wilkins was a speaker, and at one time discussed asking Wilkins to speak at one of their outdoor rallies. Muhammad stated he would be glad to meet with Wilkins to discuss their working together on racial problems. On occasions officials of NOI thanked Wilkins and other officials of the NAACP for their love, sympathy and support of the black people and called for a united "Black Front to Fight Injustice." NOI leaders worked to undermine the prestige of Wilkins and other leaders of the Negro movement, and denounced Wilkins and the NAACP as an "Uncle Tom leader of an Uncle Tom Association which is led by white folk."

He stated that "Down with the Proletariat" was becoming the battlecry of militant Negroes in Mississippi and Alabama and the same thing was true with respect to Negro allegations of laxness on the part of the FBI. He felt Negroes have been led by King and Bayard Rustin to believe the FBI could do nothing right and as a result solutions by the FBI of civil rights cases made little impression upon some Negroes in the civil rights movement.

U.S.
Wilkins admitted that he had criticized me unjustly. He said he has a difficult time controlling his Board of Directors, consisting of 32 members, since King is a member of this Board. He stated "we're hurting" and that something must be done.

Wilkins stated he will be lecturing in California most of this week and that before he leaves for the coast he will attempt to see King, along with other Negro leaders, [REDACTED]

Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, called me from New York at 12:55 p.m. today. He stated that he had to fly down to Washington to see me immediately. He asked if I had any available time. He apologized for attempting to arrange an appointment on what he termed a "holiday weekend." I told him the "holiday weekend" made no difference to us and that despite his unwarranted statements concerning the Director and the FBI I would sit down and talk to him.

Wilkins arrived at 4:00 p. m. He stated that he was greatly concerned. He made reference to the Director's Loyola speech last Tuesday, 11/24/64, in which the Director had made reference to "sexual degenerates" in pressure groups. Wilkins stated he personally knew about whom the Director was talking, although many other Negroes did not know. [REDACTED]

Re: Roy Wilkins, Appointment 11/27/64

[REDACTED]

Wilkins stressed the fact that he was not seeing me as an emissary. I stated he had some influence on King but not much. He added that there were other within his movement who had greater influence and that perhaps together some pressure could be brought on King. Wilkins then added that he hoped that the FBI would not expose King before something could be done.

I interrupted Wilkins at this point. I told him that the Director, of course, did not have in mind the destruction of the civil rights movement as a whole. I told him the Director sympathized with the civil rights movement as exemplified by the Director's supervision of the FBI's many brilliant accomplishments in this field. I added, however, that we deeply and bitterly resented the lies and falsehoods told by King and that if King wanted war we certainly would give it to him. Wilkins shook his head and stated there was no doubt in his mind as to which side would lose if the FBI really came out with all of its ammunition against King. I told him the ammunition was plentiful and that while we were not responsible for the many rumors being initiated against King, we had heard of these rumors and were certainly in a position to substantiate them.

I told Wilkins that inasmuch as he was attempting to hold out the feast of peace he should know a few positive facts of life. He asked what I meant. I told him my point was that he was attempting to prevent the FBI from exposing King, and certain highly-placed informants of ours had tipped us off to absolutely reliable information that King had organized a bitter crusade against the Director and the FBI. I told Wilkins these long-standing and well placed informants had advised us that King it to him and let the chips fall where they may. Wilkins stated this would be most disastrous, particularly to the Negro movement and that he hoped this would never come about. I told him that the monkey was on his back and that of the other Negro leaders. He stated he realized this. We then shook hands and he left to return to New York.

ACTION:

It is suggested that the attached letter be sent to the President in connection with the above conversation.

had contacted people in various parts of the United States to get them to send telegrams to the President, the Attorney General, and the FBI asking for Mr. Hoover's retirement or resignation. I told Wilkins that King had also encouraged telegrams to be sent advising the FBI of laxness in the investigation of civil rights matters. I asked Wilkins how in the hell could he expect the FBI to believe his offers of friendship and request for peace when King was at this time attempting to ruin us. Wilkins merely hung his head and stated he had no idea that King was carrying on such a campaign. He stated that this upset him greatly and made him all the more determined to initiate action to remove King as soon as possible.

278 [REDACTED] Wilkins diverted from the subject of the conversation to spend some time in explaining that he had also noted communist influence in the civil rights movement in Mississippi. He stated that the cry of "Down with the Proletariat" was getting to be the battlecry of the militant Negroes in Mississippi and Alabama. He mentioned the same thing was true with respect to Negro allegations of laxness on the part of the FBI. He mentioned that the Negroes have been led by King and Bayard Rustin to believe that the FBI could do nothing right; consequently, FBI solution of civil rights cases made little impression upon some Negroes in the civil rights movement.

Wilkins stated he was wrong in his criticism of the Director. He added that he was attempting to accomplish, in a mild manner, a division between the battle of the Director and King and any phases of the battle which would reflect upon the civil rights movement. He stated he has a hard time controlling his 32-man Board of Directors, particularly since King is a member of this board. He then added, "We're hurting," and something must be done.

Wilkins told me that he will be lecturing in California most all of next week. He stated that before he leaves for the coast he will attempt to see King, along with other Negro leaders, and tell King that he can't possibly win in any battle with the FBI. [REDACTED] He stated he may not have any success in this regard, however, that he is convinced that the FBI can easily ruin King overnight. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] I told Wilkins this, of course, was up to him; however, I wanted to reiterate once again most strongly, that if King wanted war we were prepared to give it.

SYNOPSIS:

BACKGROUND:

The Director will be sitting between General Wallace Martin Greene, Marine Corps Commandant, and Roy Wilkins, Executive Director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), at the Gridiron Club on 3-20-65. Detailed information regarding these individuals follows the synopsis.

General Wallace Martin Greene, Jr.:

Roy Wilkins:

Wilkins associated with NAACP since 1931, became Executive Secretary in 1955 (title changed to Executive Director). Numerous references to Wilkins in Bufile. In 1930's and early 1940's Wilkins tended to adhere to Communist Party (CP) line and associated with communist front organizations. Since then he has been strongly anti-communist and has done everything possible to prevent communist infiltration of NAACP. Since about 1950 the communists have been critical of Wilkins and efforts were made by CP to oust him. Wilkins has urged Negroes to fight for equal rights.

but has not advocated violence or radical measures. Martin Luther King, Jr., James Forman and some Board Members of the NAACP feel he is not as aggressive civil rights movement as he should be. Indications dissident NAACP members may attempt to remove him next convention. Wilkins opposed to irresponsible demonstration. The Director has noted "Very well stated" regarding Wilkins public comments in June 1964, regarding demonstrations. He has participated to some degree in racial imbalance situation in New York public schools. In radio interview on 8-9-64 Wilkins urged civilian review board to handle police matters following Harlem riots. NAACP officers and very brief background re NAACP set forth in details.

Wilkins and five other civil rights leaders met President 11-25-64 and expressed concern over Director's published remarks about Martin Luther King. Several were demanding dismissal of Director; however, Wilkins did not, according to published accounts. On CBS-TV, "Face The Nation," Wilkins indicated remarks did not warrant dismissal and referred to Director as "good public servant" with a "long and distinguished career" who is "simply wrong in this." You (Mr. DeLoach) have several cordial meetings with Wilkins. He contacted you on 11-27-64, admitted he criticized Director unjustly.

You had met with Wilkins on 2-24-60 after he had requested interview with Director for latter part of February, 1960. He expressed appreciation for cooperation between Bureau and NAACP; revealed concern about possibility of communists in the NAACP. On 8-12-64 you again met with him in New York City. Wilkins pleased with Director's personal trip to Mississippi; expressed displeasure with Negro civil rights leaders including Martin Luther King, Jr.; James Forman (Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee). He considers Mississippi Summer Project as failure in view of unruly undisciplined individuals who went to Mississippi.

Informant advised in 2-65 of possible efforts for a meeting between El Muhammad, head of Nation of Islam; James Forman and Roy Wilkins to show Negro unity. Wilkins arrested 12-11-34 for parading without permit and 6-1-63 for violation of Mississippi Code (not further described)--no disposition for either case.

DETAILS

BACKGROUND:

In connection with the Director's attendance at the Gridiron Club on March 20, 1965, the Director is to be seated between General Wallace Martin Greene, Jr., Marine Corps Commandant, and Roy Wilkins, Executive Director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). There follows detailed information regarding General Greene and Roy Wilkins.

WALLACE MARTIN GREENE, JR.

Biographical Data:

General Greene, the 23rd Commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps, has been a Marine officer since 1930. He assumed his present duties and was promoted to his current rank on 1-1-64. Greene was born 12-27-07 at Waterbury, Vermont, attended public schools in Burlington, Vermont, and spent a year at the University of Vermont before entering the United States Naval Academy where he graduated 6-5-30 and received a commission as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Marines. His assignments have been many and varied, having served aboard ship and in foreign countries, as well as in the United States.

He was commended for performance of duties during the Sino-Japanese hostilities during 1937 and 1938. For his outstanding service as Assistant Chief of Staff, G-3 Tactical Group, during the planning and effecting of the Marshall Islands invasion, Greene, then a Lieutenant Colonel, was awarded the First Legion of Merit with Combat "V." For his outstanding services prior to and during the combat on Saipan and Tinian, he earned a second Legion of Merit. He was promoted rapidly through the ranks and graduated from the National War College in Washington in June, 1953, the following month becoming Staff Special Assistant to the Joint Chiefs of Staff for National Security Council Affairs. He became a Brigadier General on 9-1-55. In June, 1957, he became Commanding General of the Marine Corps Base at Camp Lejeune. While serving as Assistant Chief of Staff at Headquarters Marine Corps in 1958, he was promoted to Major General, subsequently, becoming Deputy Chief of Staff (Plans). On 1-1-60 he was designated Chief of Staff of the Marine Corps with the rank of Lieutenant General.

The late President Kennedy nominated General Greene, on 9-24-63, to be the 23rd Commandant of the Marine Corps for a four-year term, which was confirmed; and, when he assumed that command, 1-1-64, he was promoted to a full General (four-star).

ROY WILKINS:

Wilkins has not been investigated by this Bureau; however, there are over 700 references in our files to him. Jones to DeLoach memo of 4-13-55 set for detailed data from Bufiles regarding Wilkins for the Director's information. There is set forth below data from this memorandum and other pertinent items in Bufiles since that time.

Biographical Data:

Roy Wilkins was born 8-30-01 at St. Louis, Missouri. He received his A.B. degree from the University of Missouri in 1923 and married Amanda Bace on 9-15-29. From 1923 to 1931 he was Managing Editor of the "Kansas City Call" newspaper. He became associated with the NAACP as an Assistant Secretary in 1931.

SECRET

which position he held until 1949 when he became Acting Secretary. In 1950 he became Administrator and, since April, 1955, has been Executive Secretary of the NAACP. He was editor of "Crisis" magazine, a monthly official NAACP organ, from 1934 to 1949. According to "Who's Who in America" his home address is 147-15 Village Road, Jamaica, New York, and his office is located at 20 West 40th Street, New York City.

Connections with Communist Infiltrated or Dominated Organizations:

Over the years, due to Wilkins' extremely active participation in the civil rights movement, he has associated with or come into contact with individuals connected with the Communist Party (CP). There is no definite indication he has ever been a member of the CP, but in 1939 a source made such an allegation. In his early years (1930's and early 1940's) it appeared that he was adhering to the CP line but since the early 1940's Wilkins has evidenced a very strong and firm anticommunist stand and has given every indication of steering the NAACP away from any communist infiltration or influence. More details on this will be set forth later.

Included among some of the communist influenced organizations he associated with are the following: in September, 1936, a member of the National Committee of the International Juridical Association (communist influenced); in 1936, active in the Scottsboro Defense Committee; in 1937, associated with the Fourth National Congress Against War and Fascism, and described as a "headliner" at the Convention in 1937 of the American League Against War and Fascism; in 1939, active in the Workers Alliance (communist influenced) according to "Daily Worker"; in 1939, active in Negro Peoples Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy (communist controlled); allegedly active in the American League for Peace and Democracy; in 1944, listed as speaker before Modern Trend Progressive Youth Group of New York City (group had speakers of divergent views including CP and Socialist Workers Party members); in 1944, a scheduled speaker before a meeting of the National Work Order (some of the other speakers scheduled either known or reliably reported communists). Some of the foregoing organizations have been cited by either the House Committee on Un-American Activities or the Department of Justice pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The 12-8-40 issue of the "Daily Worker" revealed that American Civil Liberties Union charged that Westchester County Police permitted the assaults on the Paul Robeson concert near Peekskill, New York. Among those who signed the report was Roy Wilkins as Acting Secretary of the NAACP.

In November, 1943, Benjamin Davis, Jr., Negro communist functionary, was elected on the Communist Party ticket to the New York City Council. The "Daily Worker" for November 23, 1943, carried an article to the effect that

Wilkins, in his column, "The Watch Tower," in the "New York Amsterdam News," made the following statements after condemning the "New York World Telegram" on publishing articles on how communists used racial and religious issues to win place in the election:

"....Moreover, the Communist appeals were not vicious or based on hatred, whereas the Governorship battle was the slimiest waged here in many a decade....As our system of government is so weak that two Communists out of a council of 17 members constitute danger, then we had better be looking into our foundations....As a matter of fact, the presence of two declared Communists in our council probably will benefit everyone. Communists stimulate activity. They stimulate progressive measures more often than they voice the aspirations of the plain people, even though these plain people would not go so far as to espouse Communism itself.... As for Ben Davis himself...it is to be doubted whether there is a single Council member of any higher caliber. Davis is a graduate of Amherst and the Harvard Law School...Needless to say, with this background and with the graduate course he has received in the Communist Party, Davis is far from being a greenhorn..." (100-149163-A)

At the 39th Annual Conference of the NAACP held in Kansas City in June, 1948, Wilkins, as the keynote speaker, stated, "Anyone who speaks up for his rights or who does not follow the beaten path is likely to be called a communist." He urged the delegates not to be intimidated by the cry of communism. He pointed out that Negroes do not want a totalitarian state either of the right or of the left and further stated that they want democracy and that they would speak and work for it with every weapon at their command.

Indications of Anticomunist Attitude:

Since the early 1940's, as indicated previously, Wilkins' attitude has been strongly anticommunist. In 1949, [redacted] stated that the Party was greatly concerned about the election of Roy Wilkins to fill the vacancy of Walter White of the NAACP during a year's leave of absence. According to [redacted] Wilkins had been openly opposed to the tactics of the CP and had been one of the leaders in the NAACP responsible for the defeat of the communists in their effort to take over the organization on a national scale. [redacted] further stated that the CP was and had been attempting to infiltrate the local branches of the NAACP and with the election of Roy Wilkins they expected a great deal of opposition.

b7D [REDACTED] advised in January, 1950, that instructions had been given out to all CP members to make every effort to attend the National Civil Rights Mobilization sponsored by the NAACP in January, 1950. A top official of the CP criticized Wilkins and top leadership of the NAACP for the efforts of the organization to rid itself of all forms of communist assistance in the Mobilization.

There are numerous other instances in the 1950's wherein Wilkins would not allow his organization to participate in affairs with or sponsored by the CP. The Party had set its sights on the NAACP with the intention to capture the organization and it was said in one newspaper that the ultimate objective of the CP was to oust Roy Wilkins.

The December, 1951, issue of the "American Magazine" carried an article entitled "Stalin's Greatest Defeat" which was written by Roy Wilkins. The article set forth pertinent information concerning the CP's attempt over the years to recruit the Negro people into the CP and stated that this recruitment had been met by failure. Within the Bureau, this article was considered a rather excellent treatise on the CP approach to the Negro question.

[REDACTED]

b7D [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that a fight was shaping up in the NAACP between the Walter White forces and the Roy Wilkins forces. It was stated Wilkins actually represented the Trotskyite element in the NAACP and although the CP was not interested in taking over the NAACP, the CP did not want the Trotskyites to take over. Consequently, the purpose of CP infiltration would be to combat Wilkins and support White. As of December, 1954, Walter White was Chairman of the "Leadership Conference on Civil Rights" and Roy Wilkins was Chairman of the Executive Committee of the NAACP. (61-3176-914)

A 12-9-64 release of Fulton Lewis, Jr., concerned the activities of the groups campaigning to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Lewis concluded his article by stating that the more moderate civil rights leaders including Roy Wilkins of the NAACP and Whitney Young of the Urban League "have refused to join the anti-House Committee on Un-American Activities chorus." (100-433447-572)

General Contacts With The Bureau:

Wilkins' contacts over the years with the Bureau have been very limited. You (Mr. DeLoach) have spoken with him on several occasions. These contacts are set out separately in this memorandum under contacts with you.

In the absence of Walter White of the NAACP, Wilkins did write to the Director on 9-10-47 in connection with a "so-called Robeson incident in Peoria, Illinois, in April, 1947." He requested investigation concerning this matter. The matter had already been furnished to the Attorney General. By letter dated 8-14-53, Wilkins wrote to the Director to merely acknowledge receipt of a letter the Director had written several days previous to Walter White.

By letter dated 11-15-54 the Chief Postal Inspector furnished the Bureau with a letter dated 11-5-64 received from Wilkins. Attached to Wilkins' letter was a mimeographed copy of an extortion-type letter, wherein the writer signed himself "Yours for the NAACP, Rufus Tecumseh Washington III." The letter was dated 9-8-64 and contained scurrilous language and threats against Governor White of Mississippi. Wilkins indicated the NAACP had no connection with the mailing of the letter and the letter had been mimeographed and distributed in Mississippi in an effort to slander and discredit the NAACP. Wilkins requested investigation. We had received a copy of the letter through other channels, but we were unable to identify the sender.

Contacts With You (Mr. DeLoach):

You (Mr. DeLoach) have had several meetings with Roy Wilkins. By letter dated 1-21-60 Wilkins requested a meeting with the Director during the period 2/16-31/60. It was recommended that if Wilkins contacted the Director when in Washington during that period the Director's regrets be expressed and he be referred to you. You met with Mr. Wilkins on 2-24-60, at which time he expressed appreciation for the continuing good cooperation between the Bureau and the NAACP. He was assured these comments would be passed along to the Director. You expressed the Director's appreciation for Mr. Wilkins support of the FBI and the fact that he had mentioned us favorably on a number of occasions in speeches. Further, appreciation was expressed for the very favorable resolution passed by the NAACP at its last convention in New York. The discussion revealed his concern about the possibility of communists in the NAACP, but he strongly emphasized that the communists were not in control of any chapter and that such persons would be eliminated if proof could be obtained. He was also concerned about extremists in the Los Angeles Branch of the NAACP. The Mack Charles Parker case was discussed and Wilkins indicated his intentions to see to it that the FBI got the credit it deserved in the matter.

On 8-12-64 you (Mr. DeLoach) met with Roy Wilkins in New York City with the Director's approval. This was a lengthy conference covering a number of general topics with regard to civil rights. Briefly, Wilkins was pleased with the Director's personal trip to Mississippi to open the Jackson Office, expressing the feeling that this had greatly restored the faith of the Negro people in the FBI. Wilkins explained there are two groups in the Negro movement responsible for criticism of the FBI. One group would not change its tactics no matter what miracle the FBI might bring about, and prominent in this group are Martin Luther King, Jr.; John Lewis of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNVCC); James Forman of the same group; Bayard Rustin; and Clarence Jones, formerly connected with the Ghandi Society for Human Rights. He felt that these individuals deliberately foment trouble in order to add to their own stature and that it is wrong for the Government and the President to attempt to pacify these people. He referred to the second element as the great majority of the Negro race who do not have good educations and intelligence, resulting in their misunderstanding of the FBI's jurisdiction. Wilkins recommended that you appear before the next NAACP Regional Conference in Denver, Colorado, during the Spring of 1965; that an article in "Reader Digest" entitled "The FBI's Participation in the Racial Crisis" be prepared; and you meet with the President of the Negro Publishers' Association in Philadelphia. The Director approved the implementation of these recommendations where possible.

Wilkins indicated his desire to stay on for many years with the NAACP commenting that only about one-fifth of the 60 individuals on the Executive Board have criticized him for not being loud enough or militant enough in protesting discrimination and unequal rights. These individuals would like to take over the leadership of the NAACP. (We have since received information from sources indicating that these dissidents would like to accomplish this at the next NAACP Conference.) Wilkins described John Lewis of the SNVCC as being a poor or inarticulate Negro who does not control his own organization.

570 [REDACTED] He feels the Mississippi Summer Project is a failure in view of the unruly, undisciplined individuals of this group who went to Mississippi. He also did not agree with the picketing of automobile agencies and banks in California. He concluded that SNVCC and CORE consist of immature young whites and Negroes who are obviously frustrated in their own lives and turn to irrational activities for self-satisfaction.

~~SECRET~~

[REDACTED] and Wilkins indicated responsible leaders of the Negro movement have been alarmed about the communist association and procommunist statements of King. Wilkins mentioned that James Forman of SNVCC is also believed to be affiliated with the communists and highly suspect among the Negroes. Wilkins told of his fight against the communists over the past 30 years. In conclusion, Wilkins was invited to come and visit us at FBI Headquarters and that, if the Director was in, he would like to shake hands with Wilkins.

News articles indicated six top civil rights leaders, including Roy Wilkins, met with President Johnson, 11-25-64, and expressed concern and disagreement with Mr. Hoover's recent published remarks about Martin Luther King. Several demand Director's dismissal; however, Wilkins did not. Wilkins told a CBS-TV, "Face The Nation," audience that the Director was "a good public servant" with a "long and distinguished career" who is "simply wrong in this."

On a 2-15-65 memorandum from Baumgardner to Mr. Sullivan, the Director noted, "I don't want anything furnished to Wilkins or Forman in view of the visit to the President demanding my dismissal because of what I had to say re King, particularly since they knew I had stated the truth. H."

Negroes in Mississippi and Alabama, and the same thing was true with respect to Negroes' allegations of laxity on the part of the FBI. Wilkins felt that King and Rustin had led the Negroes to believe that the FBI can do nothing right.

In this conference, Wilkins admitted that he had criticized the Director unjustly. He pointed out also that he has a difficult time controlling his Board of Directors since King is a member of the Board.

There has been evidence in the past year of a split between Martin Luther King, Jr., and Roy Wilkins. There have been a number of examples of this split. For instance in mid 1964 Wilkins denounced King and James Forman, the head of CORE, with respect to their planned purpose after the Civil Rights Bill became law. According to Wilkins, King and Forman were trying to outdo one another and the approach to the situation should be slower for the most effective movement. According to confidential sources, King feels that Wilkins' attitude strengthens the resistance of the southern people. Confidential sources have revealed at other times that King has commented that Wilkins is always in conflict with him and he is getting tired of it.

Attitude Toward Civil Rights Demonstrations:

Generally, Wilkins has indicated a more moderate or "go slow" attitude in the field of civil rights. While Wilkins is said to oppose demonstrations for the sake of demonstrations and has opposed irresponsible demonstrations, he has been associated with them on occasions. In June, 1964, when speaking on the matter of civil rights before the graduates of Morris Brown College he said, "Marches and demonstrations have their places and have proved their value but they are not necessarily the key to unlock all doors. We have a duty to recognize that for part these solutions we must look within ourselves and our group as well as without." He indicated that, "We need frank appraisals of ourselves and, where indicated, corrective measures. We cannot have standards different from those of great and successful peoples throughout history. We must impose upon ourselves those measures of reliability, responsibility and excellence that are universally applied to men everywhere." In this connection, the Director noted, "Very well stated." It is noted, however, that the NAACP made plans for possible nationwide demonstrations, including a work stoppage, in the event Congress did not pass the Civil Rights Bill, and the NAACP gave Wilkins stand-by powers to call the demonstrations.

Wilkins has participated to some degree in the racial imbalance situation with regard to New York public schools. Much publicity has attended this effort. The purpose of these demonstrations concerns a move of children from schools which are generally all white to schools which are generally all colored and vice versa. It was indicated that he also was involved in a similar type of school boycott in Boston (157-4-5-23, 21; 154-4-34-64, 56; 147-6-34-A (WCNS); 100-3-116-1546; 100-442529-157-157-

Civilian Review Boards:

With regard to the New York City riots last summer, in an interview over WCBS on 8-9-64, Wilkins urged a civilian review board made up of reputable and distinguished citizens to handle police matters. Wilkins believed that the Harlem riots were due to the refusal of the police department to handle the shooting of "Powell" by Lieutenant Gilligan in anything but a routine manner. Wilkins claimed that everyone in Harlem felt they had been done wrong in the Lieutenant Gilligan matter. Wilkins, of course, was referring to the riots which were precipitated after the shooting of a young colored hoodlum by a police lieutenant. (100-3-116-2150)

African Policy:

The 11-29-64 issue of the "New York Times" indicated that 6 of the prominent American Negro leaders including such individuals as Roy Wilkins; James Farmer of Congress of Racial Equality (CORE); Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.; and Whitney M. Young, Jr., of the National Urban League, indicated to the Administration that they favored a complete revision of the United States policy in Africa including the withdrawal of support from Premier Moise Tshombe of the Congo. In a letter to the President they indicated that the "Mercenaries and other external forces, including those of the United States, should disengage from all military commitment until such time as aid can be given in the context of requests from the Governments of the Congo, acting in concert with the African Governments represented in the Organization of African Unity." The remarks of these Negro leaders were drawn from resolutions passed by the American Negro Leadership of Africa held in September, 1964, in Washington. (105-116631)

The NAACP:

The national officers of the NAACP are:

Bishop Stephen Gill Spottswood, Chairman, Board of Directors
Arthur B. Spingarn, President
Jesse H. Turner, Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors
(Previous Board member replacing Dr. Ulysses S. Wiggins as Vice-Chairman)
Roy Wilkins, Executive Director (Title changed from Executive Secretary)
Alfred Baker Lewis, Treasurer
Dr. Harry J. Greene, Assistant Treasurer

Briefly, according to an August, 1964, news article the NAACP was founded in 1909 by white people, headed by a woman crusader Mary White Overtun. According to the article this group later affiliated with a Negro group led by the late W.E.B. DuBois. The NAACP today reportedly has 500,000 members of all races and religions and has 1,600 local groups. The article pointed out that most of its victories have been won in legal struggles. Wilkins reportedly heads a staff of 125. (100-3-116 "New York Times" 3-10-64)

An article in the 1-24-65 issue of "New York Times" indicated that with one exception the civil rights organizations suffered declining revenue and budget deficits in 1964. The exception to the pattern of financial embarrassment was the National Urban League which increased its revenue in 1964.

Miscellaneous:

Bufiles indicate that since his initial association with the NAACP, Wilkins has traveled throughout the country speaking before various branches of the organization. Excerpts of talks he has given through the years would indicate that he has urged the Negro to fight for equal rights and against discrimination and segregation through the organization. There is no indication that he has ever advocated violence but has advocated the fighting of segregation through teaching the whites that the Negro is equal in all respects. He has criticized "reactionary forces in America" particularly mentioning Westbrook Pegler.

In 1943 a news article indicated that Wilkins severely criticized the Attorney General's suggestion to curb the migration of Negro workers to industrial areas.

A 3-20-48 item in "New York Times" indicated that Roy Wilkins, as spokesman for the NAACP, repudiated statements that the organization would assist Henry Wallace in his presidential campaign and reaffirmed its non-partisan policy.

RE: ROY WILKINS
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF NAACP

The Journal Herald, a daily morning newspaper of general circulation published in Dayton, Ohio, published the following article on page 35 of the final edition on March 13, 1965. The article under caption "Wilkins Stresses Need for Fair Housing Here" stated as follows:

"Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) urged Daytonians to fight for a strong state fair housing bill and a local fair housing ordinance with teeth last night in an address at Tabernacle Baptist church.

Satirically referring to Dayton as a 'little paradise', he stressed the need in Dayton for fair housing.

'You have a problem here,' he declared.

'And I hope you're not going to let anyone frighten you out of an ordinance or maneuver you into a bad or weak law.

'It's better to have no law at all than one with absolutely no teeth.'

His statements about the Dayton's housing situation brought applause from the 450 negroes and whites in the audience.

'But watch those housing laws. Keep in touch with the state legislature,' he warned.

'You're getting along pretty well in Dayton with your school board in eliminating de facto segregation,' he added. ENCLOSURE

'It's nothing to crack your heels about, but at least you're moving.'

While praising Rev. Martin Luther King's Selma, Ala., actions, he warned that Negroes should not criticize President Lyndon Johnson for not 'going to Selma and fighting with his bare hands.'

'That's not his job,' Wilkins declared. 'He has not remained silent. His stand on voting rights is clear. His outrage over Selma is evident in his sending his emissaries to Alabama along with the attorney general and the FBI. That's what he has an administration for.'

'Wilkins, who delivered an emotional address full of description of the recent Selma beatings by state police, drew several responses from the audience.

'That's right, it's true,' Negroes commented aloud.

He said the NAACP has scheduled two new programs for the south for this summer, including a Mississippi project and citizenship training clinics.

'Colored people must learn to become better, more efficient citizens all over the country,' he said.

He forthrightly placed some blame for the Negro's second class citizenship in the laps of the Negroes.

'There isn't one large corporation in this country that isn't crying for Negroes,' he declared. 'They will hire any good secretary if she's as black as coal and looks like a locomotive after a wreck.'

'Don't ever lump all white people together. Do for them what you ask of them-see them as people and individuals, not as just white people.'

He stressed the reality of unity of white and Negro in the Selma situation, referring to last Sunday's violence as 'Selma Sunday.'

Echoing King when he spoke in Dayton two months ago, Wilkins reminded the Negroes that 'We've made progress, but we've got a long way to go.'

'I think there will be a new civil rights law that will provide for federal registrars, state and local elections and will abolish literacy tests,' he added.

He pointed out the greatest task for the Negro today is to 'analyze the obstacles ahead of us.'

'How are you going to fight the Gov. George Wallaces and the Sheriff Jim Clarks?' he asked. 'What kinds of minds are these?'

He said he has been invited to speak at a memorial service for Rev. James Reeb, the Boston Unitarian minister who died in Selma Thursday after being beaten by whites.

'He had the old fashioned religion', Wilkins said. 'That kind of religion isn't fashionable any more. People just count their money and try to figure out how they can get ahead now.'

Statement for all news media by Roy Wilkins, Executive Director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

March 28, 1966

The reports in the Vernon Dahmer case are good news. The real test, however, is whether convictions can be secured in Mississippi or whether, as in a sickening succession of similar cases, the arrested persons will go free.

This record of delays, softening of charges, and acquittals has become such an invariable pattern that we in the NAACP are urging the enactment of a bill by this Congress to improve jury selection, to transfer these cases to federal courts and to indemnify the survivors of the victims.

Director J. Edgar Hoover and the Federal Bureau of Investigation are to be commended for repeating the excellent work they did in the Mack Charles Parker lynching in Mississippi in 1959; the murder of the three young civil rights workers in Philadelphia, Mississippi, and the Lemuel Penn case in Georgia, both in 1964; and the killing of Mrs. Viola Liuzzo in Alabama in 1965.

Dear Mr. Wilkins:

I received your letter of March 28th, with enclosure, and want to thank you for the thoughtfulness in writing.

You may be assured your favorable remarks regarding the work of this Bureau in apprehending individuals charged with violations of the Civil Rights statutes and the Voting Rights Act of 1965 in connection with the death of Vernon Dahmer mean a great deal to my associates and me. It is my hope that our future endeavors continue to merit your support and approval.

Sincerely yours,

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Cartha D. DeLoach
Assistant to the Director, FBI

DATE: November 10,

FROM : Harold F. Reis
Executive Assistant to the Attorney General

SUBJECT: Roy Wilkins -- Trip to Mississippi, November 11-16, 1966.

I have just been advised that Roy Wilkins is making a trip to Mississippi starting tomorrow. During the course of the trip he will make a number of public appearances.

I am also advised that his family is somewhat worried about him and contacted Roger Wilkins about the trip. The family understands, and I told Roger Wilkins, that the Bureau is not in a position to provide protection. I did, however, ask for Roy Wilkins' schedule and am attaching a copy for the information of the Bureau.

Alexander, Jr., Director, Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities, State of Louisiana, Old Capitol Building, Baton Rouge, La., furnished copies of Report No. 5, of The Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities, State of Louisiana. The report covered the hearing before the Committee on 3/19/64 and set out the connection between the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF) (100-10355), and the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. Two documents, a letter dated 9/10/63, which made reference to Roy Wilkins and an undated letter to Wilkins from Aubrey Williams, President Emeritus of the SCEF, were offered to the Committee as evidence. The letter to Wilkins bitterly condemned Wilkins for his criticism of Martin Luther King, Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth and others who were connected with the SCEF.

The following references in the file captioned "NAACP" contain information concerning the activities of Roy Wilkins, Executive Director, from 6/1/64 to 7/8/66. The references disclosed that prior to the early 1940's, Wilkins tended to adhere to the CP line. Since that time, however, he had endeavored to steer the NAACP from communist infiltration. During attempts to follow up the 8/28/63 March on Washington, D.C., Wilkins stepped in and prevented direct action programs.

On 1/4/65, during his annual report at NAACP headquarters, NYC, Wilkins stated that the enactment of the Civil Rights Act and achievement of voter registration were the highlights of the year. He indicated that concentrated efforts would be placed on the Anti-Poverty Act in the future.

Wilkins was scheduled to speak at NAACP functions at Birmingham, Ala., Raleigh, N.C., and Peoria, Ill., but no indication was given that these plans were executed. FBI protection was requested for the proposed Peoria visit. The references indicated that Wilkins spoke at an NAACP voter registration rally at Flint, Mich., on 7/26/64

VISIT OF ROY WILKINS
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE (NAACP), NEW YORK, NEW YORK, TO MERIDIAN, MISSISSIPPI
MAY 5, 1968

On April 3, 1968, Reverend R. H. Porter, President of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Meridian, Mississippi, advised that the Meridian Chapter of the NAACP had invited Roy Wilkins, Executive Director of the NAACP, to come to Meridian, Mississippi, to speak to the local chapter. He said that Wilkins had accepted this invitation and would speak at the First Union Baptist Church, Meridian, Mississippi, on May 5, 1968. He added that he does not know of any speeches that Wilkins will make or locations he will visit.

b7D

On April 3, 1968, Chief of Police C. L. Gunn, Meridian Police Department, Lauderdale County, Mississippi, Sheriff Alton Allen, and H. C. Slay, Inspector, Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol, all of Meridian, Mississippi, have been advised of the above proposed visit.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

DIRECTOR, FBI

DATE: 4/23/68

FROM :

SAC, NEW YORK (157-1967) (RUC)

SUBJECT:

VISIT OF ROY WILKINS, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
NAACP, MERIDIAN, MISSISSIPPI RACIAL MATTERS
(OO:JN)

ReJNlet to Bu, dated 4/5/68.

Dr. JOHN A. MORSELL, Assistant Executive Director,
NAACP, 1790 Broadway, NYC, confirmed on 4/22/68, that ROY
WILKINS, Executive Director, NAACP, will be in Meridian, Mississippi, 5/5/68. However, when his engagement there is completed, he will leave the area and has no plans to make additional appearances in the state. Dr. MORSELL stated that Mr. WILKINS' present commitments would not allow him to extend his trip to other cities in Mississippi at the present time.

(NAACP), NEW YORK, NEW YORK, TO MERIDIAN, MISSISSIPPI,

b7D

[REDACTED] advised that Roy Wilkins, Executive Director, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), arrived in Meridian, Mississippi, via Southern Airlines at about 2:50 p.m. on that date. He stated that Wilkins was met by a number of local NAACP members and they proceeded via automobile to the First Union Baptist Church, Davis Street, Meridian, Mississippi, where at 3:15 p.m. Wilkins spoke to a crowd of about 150 persons. During his talk he commented on the aims of the NAACP and stated that the NAACP was taking no active part in the "Poor People's March on Washington." He stated that as in the past the only assistance being given this program was some legal counsel, and where dire needs arise, some financial assistance.

[REDACTED] stated that at about 5:30 p.m. Wilkins and other NAACP Meridian officials proceeded to the Virginia Court Restaurant, Tom Bailey Drive, Meridian, where they had dinner. At about 7:30 p.m. Wilkins, in the company of Charles R. Darden, member of the National Board of Directors, NAACP, Meridian, Mississippi, left Meridian en route to Jackson, Mississippi, where Wilkins boarded an airlines for New York City. Gunn stated that there were no incidents

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled, "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto", the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963 by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, then residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto disclosed that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the crime of kidnaping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he published a monthly newsletter entitled, "The Crusader" from Havana. As of December, 1966, WILLIAMS was residing in Peking, China.

This source, in September, 1964, advised RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence, if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese Communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World", that is, the non-white races of the world rather than to any national entity, as such.

On November 16, 1964, a second source advised he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization began in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of DON FREEMAN, described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin". FREEMAN served as RAM Chairman, with MAXWELL STANFORD (now of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania) serving as RAM Field Chairman.

On May 12, 1967, a third source advised that the RAM still remains active; however, there is no formal headquarters, as such, for the RAM. The source advised that MAXWELL STANFORD of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is considered the leader of RAM and if a RAM headquarters ever existed, it will most likely be where STANFORD resides.

ROY WILKINS - Summary
Born: August 30, 1901
St. Louis, Missouri

Roy Wilkins has never been the subject of an investigation conducted by the FBI. He has been associated with the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) since approximately 1931. His name, therefore, has appeared frequently in the public press as he has endeavored to further the publicly known aims and purposes of this nationally known organization.

During the 1930's and 1940's various communist publications contained articles concerning Wilkins's activities when those activities coincided in purpose with programs sponsored by the Communist Party (CP). No information has been received, however, that Wilkins has ever been a CP member.

An article captioned "NAACP Leaders Dumped Rights on Negroes" appeared in the July 2, 1950, edition of "The Worker." This article stated that it had been remarked that the Forty-first Annual NAACP Conference, concluded on the previous Sunday in Boston, was the "best-organized public gathering run by the United States State Department since the 1949 CIO Anti-communist bee in Cleveland..."

Roy Wilkins

"Roy Wilkins, NAACP Administrator, was the main front man for the State Department's disastrous Anti-Negro policies." The article criticized Wilkins for the manner in which he conducted the convention.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on March 1, 1951, expressed his belief that Roy Wilkins, the "National Administrative Secretary" of the NAACP, would not knowingly be used by the communists; that Wilkins had fought communism for "many years" and that he was then openly anticommunist.

A National Conference of the NAACP was held during the weekend of April 6, 1957, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. At this conference, Roy Wilkins, National Secretary, NAACP, announced that all delegates to the March on Washington to be held in May, 1957, would be closely screened in order that all "leftists" be definitely omitted.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Roy Wilkins was one of the speakers who spoke at the Lincoln Memorial, Washington, D. C., on May 17, 1957, in connection with the above-mentioned March on Washington. Mr. Wilkins stated that the CP was an evil force, that it attempted to use the NAACP as a front for CP activities, and that the CP can only mean poverty, economic strain and slavery. (62-78270-8)

In recent years Wilkins has been active in the establishment and promotion of demonstrations of a peaceful nature and has seemingly taken a moderate stand on civil rights issues. His speeches have dealt primarily with voter registration, school segregation and civil rights legislation in Congress. He has been observed at rallies, mainly as a speaker, and at memorial services for civil rights participants who have met with violence.

Following the riots in the large ^{urban} modern cities in 1964, Wilkins requested the Department of Justice to initiate a full scale investigation of the riots due to his suspicions that outside influences were involved.

that

b7D [REDACTED] plan to kill Roy Wilkins, head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) [REDACTED]

b7D [REDACTED]

On August 27, 1968, the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) advised Miss Earlene Bollin, Secretary to Roy Wilkins, Executive Director, NAACP, New York City, of the above threat to kill Roy Wilkins. Miss Bollin stated Wilkins was in Chicago to testify before a Democratic National Convention Platform Committee hearing the prior week; however, had no plans to return to Chicago during the time of the Democratic National Convention. Roy Wilkins subsequently telephonically acknowledged receipt of the alleged threat.

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled, "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto," the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963 by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, then residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto disclosed that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, it should be noted that on August 28 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the crime of kidnaping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he published a monthly newsletter entitled "The Crusader" from Havana. As of December, 1966, WILLIAMS was residing in Peking, China.

This source, in September 1964, advised RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence, if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese Communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World," that is, the non-white races of the world rather than to any national entity, as such.

On November 16, 1964, a second source advised he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization began in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of DON FREEMAN, described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin." FREEMAN served as RAM Chairman, with MAXWELL STANFORD (now of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania) serving as RAM Field Chairman.

On May 12, 1967, a third source advised that the RAM still remains active; however, there is no formal headquarters, as such, for the RAM. The source advised that MAXWELL STANFORD of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is considered the leader of RAM and if a RAM headquarters ever existed, it will most likely be where STANFORD resides.

NATION OF ISLAM

CONFIDENTIAL

A source advised on May 3, 1968, that the Nation of Islam (NOI) is an all Negro organization originating in Detroit, Michigan, in the early 1930s. ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the leader of the NOI and self-styled "Messenger of Allah" in that he claims Allah (God) selected him to lead the so-called Negro out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation within the United States. Headquarters of the NOI is located at Muhammad's Temple (or Mosque) Number 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

MUHAMMAD teaches there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "devils," in the United States; and that the white race because of its exploitation of the so-called Negro will be destroyed by Allah in an approaching "War of Armageddon, a war between God and the devil.

Officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to comply with provisions of the Selective Service Act, stating that they respect laws of the United States as long as they do not conflict with the laws of the NOI, but do not believe the government should force them to participate in wars from which they have nothing to gain.

In the late 1950s MUHAMMAD, acting on legal advice, tempered NOI teachings against the white man and the government to avoid possible prosecution; however, basic tenets remain the same. He de-emphasized religious teachings in the NOI and emphasized economic benefits derived by so-called Negroes who join the NOI. MUHAMMAD believed this would create more interest in his programs and, of course, new followers.

Hits Rights 'Pussyfooting'

Civil rights leader Roy Wilkins accused the Nixon administration yesterday of "pussyfooting" on the problems of racial conflict and urban ill.

Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People, said the administration "frightens me by its attitude on the civil rights question."

The fact that it is easing up on school desegregation, that it has no cease-and-desist order for enforcement of employment discrimination, and that it cuts the housing appropriations below the minimum so we can't rebuild our cities—all of these things frighten me," Wilkins said.

Charging that the Nixon administration has not indicated how it intends to solve racial and urban problems, Wilkins said: "This is what holds everybody up in the air."

Captioned individuals have never been the subjects of an FBI investigation. Roy Wilkins has been associated with the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) since approximately 1931. His name, therefore, has appeared frequently in the public press as he has endeavored to further the publicly known aims and purposes of this nationally known organization. Sum

During the 1930's and 1940's various communist publications contained articles concerning Wilkins' activities when those activities coincided in purpose with programs sponsored by the Communist Party (CP). No information has been received, however, that Wilkins has ever been a CP member.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilkins

"Roy Wilkins, NAACP Administrator, was the main front man for the State Department's disastrous Anti-Negro policies. The article criticized Wilkins for the manner in which he conducted the convention."

b7D
[REDACTED] expressed his belief that Roy Wilkins, the "National Administrative Secretary" of the NAACP, would not knowingly be used by the communists; that Wilkins had fought communism for "many years" and that he was then openly anticommunist.

A National Conference of the NAACP was held during the weekend of April 6, 1957, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. At this conference, Roy Wilkins, National Secretary, NAACP, announced that all delegates to the March on Washington to be held in May, 1957, would be closely screened in order that all "leftists" be definitely omitted.

b7D
[REDACTED] advised that Roy Wilkins was one of the speakers who spoke at the Lincoln Memorial, Washington, D. C., on May 17, 1957, in connection with the above-mentioned March on Washington. Mr. Wilkins stated that the CP was an evil force, that it attempted to use the NAACP as a front for CP activities, and that the CP can only mean poverty, economic strain and slavery.

In recent years Wilkins has been active in the establishment and promotion of demonstrations of a peaceful nature and has seemingly taken a moderate stand on civil rights issues. His speeches have dealt primarily with voter registration, school segregation and civil rights legislation in Congress. He has been observed at rallies, mainly as a speaker, and at memorial services for civil rights participants who have met with violence.

SCHEDULED SPEECH OF ROY WILKINS,
SELMA, ALABAMA, JULY 24, 1969

[REDACTED] heard that Roy Wilkins, President of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), is scheduled to speak some time during the month of July 1969 in Selma, Alabama. He did not know the exact date that Wilkins was to be in Selma, nor did he know the nature of Wilkins' visit. It was his conjecture that Wilkins was probably coming to Selma in order to remold and regroup support from the responsible members of the Negro community, many of whom have become disgruntled with the Reverend Louis Lord Anderson and some of the direct action activities of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC).

b7D
[REDACTED] advised that Roy Wilkins will be in Selma, Alabama, on July 24, 1969, and will deliver a speech at the Selma University Auditorium at 8 p.m. on that date. The source further advised that the Reverend C. A. Lett, 821 First Avenue, Selma, Alabama, who is the Pastor of the Greene Street Baptist Church, is in charge of all arrangements in Selma, Alabama, in preparation for Wilkins' visit. Reverend Lett is the Treasurer of Selma University and is also Treasurer of the Negro Alabama State Baptist Convention.

b7D
[REDACTED] did not expect any demonstrations in connection with Wilkins' visit from within the NAACP but stated that SCLC might possibly stage some type of march in order to voice their opposition to recent stands on racial issues taken by the NAACP. This source stated he did not really expect this to develop but was just mentioning it as a possibility.

b7D
[REDACTED] learned that Roy Wilkins, President, NAACP, is to be in Selma on July 24, 1969. To his knowledge, there were to be no demonstrations, boycotts, et cetera, while Wilkins is

"The Washington Evening Star" dated 8/29/66 carried an article captioned "Black Power Parley To Draw 150 Leaders" by Larry A. Still. According to the article, Representative Adam C. Powell, Democrat, NY, stated that 150 representatives of "black organizations" had been invited to Washington, D.C., on 9/3/66 to a planning session for a National Conference on Black Power. Roy Wilkins was among those invited and was the only major leader who had expressed interest thus far.

b1c On 10/7/66 a self-identified black nationalist known as Ronald Everett [redacted] appeared as a guest on the television program "Contact," in Philadelphia. A transcription of the show indicated that Tom Snyder, the emcee, made reference to the appearance of Roy Wilkins and other civil rights leaders on the program "Meet the Press" about two weeks previously. Snyder asked Everett if he thought Martin Luther King, Wilkins and Whitney Young were wrong favoring integration rather than a separate black community. Everett replied that these three men were old, had outlived their usefulness, and needed to retire.

Discussion among SCLC members disclosed that these two individuals were considered by President Johnson as his men which was just what they wanted, thus placing Martin Luther King, Jr., head of SCLC, in a less advantageous position. King differed somewhat in his ideas and seemingly had no desire to be identified with them. It did not appear that Wilkins endorsed the SCLC; on the occasion of a civil rights rally in Cleveland, Ohio, he failed to mention a forthcoming SCLC campaign. A Paul Harvey news release on 7/2/68 by General Features Corporation, Los Angeles, Calif., spoke of the abortive poor people's march on Washington, the failure of the militants and the final emergence of the responsible Negro leaders. He then mentioned the NAACP convention in Atlantic City (date not given) where Wilkins told a group there advocating violence that they "ought to be ashamed!" Tampa is conducting no inquiry in connection with the appearance of WILKINS, but should demonstrations develop, the Bureau will be promptly informed.

For information of Bureau, MARVIN DAVIES, Field Director, Florida NAACP, was informed that the FBI could, in no way, offer protective service to Mr. WILKINS. Any information he obtained indicating violent activities toward Mr. WILKINS should immediately be furnished to local authorities who would be responsible for safe conduct of Mr. WILKINS.

ROY WILKINS

On August 14, 1969, Marvin Davies, Field Director, Florida National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), informed that Roy Wilkins, the National Executive Director of the NAACP, is scheduled to arrive in Tampa, Florida, on August 22, 1969, aboard Northwest Airlines Flight 719. Mr. Davies pointed out that Mr. Wilkins is to appear at a Freedom Fund dinner at 8 PM, August 22, 1969. The dinner is to be held at the Sheraton-Tampa Motor Inn, according to Davies. Mr. Wilkins is to remain overnight in Tampa, departing this city on August 23, 1969, via an unidentified airline. Mr. Davies continued by saying that the Freedom Fund dinner at which Mr. Wilkins is to appear, is being sponsored by the Tampa Chapter of the NAACP. He said that Bob Gilder, President, Tampa Chapter of the NAACP, has been instrumental in arranging for the Freedom Fund dinner and has a responsibility for arranging accommodations for Mr. Wilkins during the night of August 22, 1969. Mr. Davies, who said he possessed no information, indicating violent activity toward Mr. Wilkins, concluded by saying that he wanted representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) to be aware of the presence of Mr. Wilkins and to take whatever precautions are necessary in connection with Mr. Wilkins' visit. Fla.

VISIT OF ROY WILKINS, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION
FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED
PEOPLE TO MISSISSIPPI TO PARTICIPATE
IN PROTEST MARCH AT CLARKSDALE,
MISSISSIPPI, NOVEMBER 22, 1969

Reference Jackson, Mississippi, memorandum November 21, 1969.

Aaron Henry, President, Mississippi National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Clarksdale, Mississippi, announced through news media on November 20, 1969, that Roy Wilkins, Executive Director, NAACP, New York, New York, would participate in a protest march at Clarksdale, on Saturday, November 22, 1969. David Self, Negro male, active in Negro protest activity at Clarksdale, confirmed on November 20, 1969, that Wilkins was expected in Clarksdale, Mississippi, on November 22, 1969.

Aaron Henry advised a Special Agent of the FBI on November 21, 1969, that Wilkins would be present for a memorial service for President John F. Kennedy at the First Baptist Church, Clarksdale, Mississippi, 8:00 A.M., Saturday, November 22, 1969, after which there would be a meeting of Mississippi Chapter Presidents of the NAACP in what was termed "An Anatomy of a Movement", which Henry described as a discussion of the legal means of protest. He stated that the meeting would be followed by a protest march at 10:00 A.M., through downtown Clarksdale to the front of the Coahoma County Courthouse where Wilkins was to make a brief speech concerning the school desegregation issue in Clarksdale and Coahoma County, Mississippi.

A memorial service for President Kennedy was held at the First Baptist Church, Clarksdale, at 8:30 A.M., November 22, 1969. The service was led by Aaron Henry and Reverend Willie B. Crump, pastor of the Haven Methodist Church, Clarksdale. Wilkins was late in his arrival from Memphis, Tennessee; however, he arrived about 9:15 A.M., and he spoke briefly concerning his admiration for President Kennedy, particularly mentioning the fact that Kennedy had the courage to face the issue of his religion as a major factor in his campaign. Wilkins advised the group of about 80 Negroes that they should recognize that there are many white people who are willing to give assistance to Negroes.

The service was followed by a meeting of 40 Mississippi NAACP Chapter Presidents, according to Henry, who advised on November 22, 1969, that the chapter representatives contributed about $1,700.00 to the NAACP at the meeting.

At 10:00 A.M., 480 Negroes marched from the First Baptist Church through downtown Clarksdale, escorted by local police officers, to the Coahoma County Courthouse, where a public address system had been installed on the Courthouse steps.

VISIT OF ROY WILKINS, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION
FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED
IN PROTEST MARCH AT CLARKSDALE,
MISSISSIPPI, NOVEMBER 22, 1969

Wilkins addressed the group at that location, with particular reference to the decision of the Federal Court in Mississippi, to exclude children from school if they have refused to take achievement tests on which their assignment to particular schools will be based. He cited the need for white and black citizens to resolve this problem because it was his opinion that keeping children from school would not be the solution. He indicated that Negroes should follow the instructions of their leaders in the current protest movement at Clarksdale and he pointed out that neither the Negroes nor the whites of Coahoma County were going anywhere and it was important for them to resolve their problems.

The group marched back to the First Baptist Church, again led by Aaron Henry, Roy Wilkins, and Alex Waites, who is employed by the NAACP Welfare and Relief Board in Jackson, Mississippi.

There were no arrests or incidents.

Wilkins arrived and departed in a black over green 1968 Plymouth four door sedan, bearing Shelby County, Tennessee, license KO 7790. He left Clarksdale at 11:45 A.M., November 22, 1969.

Aaron Henry advised on November 22, 1969, that he is attempting to secure an appearance of entertainer Aretha Franklin for the protest activity of November 29, 1969, but no definite agreement had been made.

A characterization of the Black Panther Party will be found in the Appendix, attached hereto.

b7c On the afternoon of July 29, 1970, THOMAS VAUGHAN, Chief of the Hartford, Connecticut, Police Department, issued a statement to the press and to the public via radio and television that his men would be armed with shotguns that evening, and that they had orders to use them if necessary to protect themselves and the lives and property of residents of the North End of Hartford. He requested residents of that area to stay off the streets. Reports of developing trouble were received during the press conference. A former Hartford police officer [REDACTED] was acquitted of manslaughter in Superior Court in Hartford that afternoon. He had been charged with killing a Puerto Rican youth April 1, 1970, during a high-speed chase. The acquittal was unpopular with the Puerto Rican community, and they vowed vengeance.

Disorders Damages Worst Yet

By DAVE MCCARTHY
Times Staff Writer

Damages incurred in five days of disturbances in Hartford are expected to exceed $1.5 million, police reported today.

The estimate was made as police and fire officials began inspecting the disorder torn areas of the city and compiling a list of damages.

The damage report is expected to be completed by the end of this week.

If the $1.5 million figure holds true, this year's disturbances will go down in record as the most serious in Hartford history.

Last September's disturbances have held the dubious record. Ninety-seven businesses were burned and looted and damages then totaled $1.3 million.

Three hundred and twelve persons were arrested in connection with this year's disturbances. Of those, 16 were juveniles, police said.

Most of the juveniles—persons under 16 years of age—were arrested on charges of looting, breaking and entering and throwing stones and bottles at police, according to Lt. James M. Jordan, head of the Juvenile Division of the Hartford Police Department.

"On the other hand," Jordan said, "we have not had one juvenile arrested for curfew violation."

The most serious juvenile arrest of the past five days took place early Sunday morning, he said, when a 14-year-old Black Panther Party member was arrested on charges of conspiracy to commit murder, possession of

APPENDIXBLACK PANTHER PARTY, aka
Black Panther Party for Self-Defense

According to its official newspaper the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966 in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense. NEWTON is presently serving a sentence of two to fifteen years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther," which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service," stated that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, GEORGE MASON MURRAY which ends with the following:

"Black Men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is revolutionary culture. Change, Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere!"

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "the Black Panther" is the statement, "...We will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of the "Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MOA's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

Gonzalez Death Report Stirs Criticism of Police

By W. EDWARD WENDOVER

The Greater Hartford chapter of the Connecticut Civil Liberties Union and a Hartford minister have criticized Hartford police for their activities during city disturbances last summer. The police were particularly criticized for their involvement in the death of Efraim Gonzalez, which was investigated by the state coroner.

In a report released Wednesday, State Coroner Irving L. Aronson absolved Hartford police of criminal responsibility in the fatal shooting of Gonzalez on July 31, but said the shot that struck Gonzalez in the chest was fired by a policeman. Aronson also recommended that lawmen discontinue the use of shotguns as mob control weapons.

"This (coroner's) report indicated the lack of organization and administration in the Hartford police department," the Hartford CCLU chapter said in a statement released Friday. Poor Control.

"It was the general opinion of the community leaders that police department officials have very poor control of officers in the street during times of crisis," the statement said.

The CCLU statement also criticized police for making no public announcement of any investigation into the Gonzalez death.

"We are against indiscriminate use of shotguns by police," the CCLU statement said. "Violence begets violence—there will be an equal reaction from the people on the streets."

"We note the escalation of violence each summer," the CCLU said. "What is the City Council going to do to try and preclude this type of thing next summer?"

The CCLU statement also said some people believe the police department control of annual tion and firearms by policemen on the streets is lax. "This indicates negligence and poor administration," the CCLU statement said.

Minister Criticizes

The Rev. Charles Pickett, an Episcopal minister to the Spanish-speaking community, also criticized the coroner's findings. "The (coroner's) report is not only strange it's downright shocking," Pickett said.

"One can hope and pray that responsible citizens will not accept this report as final but that they will demand an impartial, thorough and proper investigation of the whole matter," Pickett said.

ett said.

"I urge all those who value law and order with justice to protest (this report) in a legal, peaceful, and non-violent manner," Pickett said.

"No one can be safe on our streets until this is clarified," he said. "It's not merely a matter of black people and Puerto Ricans in the North End."

"Had the victim been a prominent citizen, one suspects the report would have been quite different," Pickett said. "Mr. Gonzalez's crime was that he was a Puerto Rican on the wrong street in the wrong city at the wrong time," he said.

Recommended Fund Halt Upsets Students at UConn Law Clinic

Personnel at the University of state statute, which had been Connecticut law clinic feel that repealed by the General Assembly Gov. Meskill's budget recom- mendedly effective Oct. 1, 1971. meration to stop funding their. Clinic representatives repre- sented the man and were grant- ed a temporary restraining or- der prohibiting further arrests under the statute. The case is now being reviewed by a three- judge federal court.

The governor, in his Feb. 16 budget message, recommended that no state funds be allotted for the clinic. The program allows stu- dents to assist in real civil and criminal cases involving per- sons who can't afford to hire a lawyer.

"This clinic costs $100,000 annually to nothing more than Harbaugh make up less than 2 per cent of the clinic's business. on our institutions and our gov- ernment," the governor said in his budget message.

According to a report pre- pared by the clinic, the pro- gram's 1970-71 budget is about $35,000 and only $10,000 of that comes from the state. The state also provides office space at the UConn Law School in West Hartford and use of telephones which associate professor Jo- seph Harbaugh, director of the clinic, estimates at an addition- al $1,250 a year. The remaining $25,000 comes from a Ford Foundation grant.

As for the governor's appraisal of the program as nothing more than an agency to attack governmental institutions, the clinic personnel feel this shows Gov. Meskill really hasn't stud- ied their program.

300 Cases Handled
The report prepared by the clinic showed that 300 cases had been handled since the begin- ning of the school year in Sep- tember.

Of that number, five cases in- volved challenges of federal, state or municipal ordinances.

In April, clinic representatives served as co-counsel for the Anti-Aircraft Conspiracy, an an- tiwar group trying to get a per- mit to use Bushnell Park for a rally. City officials tried to block the rally but a U.S. Dis- trict Court ruled in favor of the demonstrators and stated that the city officials were violating the 1st Amendment rights by trying to stop them.

Later in the year, a man was arrested for waving a Viet Cong flag at a demonstration when Vice President Agnew came to Hartford. The man was charged cent was drawing money. Fitzgerald's letter to the gov- ernor also cited the cost of the state at $100,000, the same fig- ure the governor used in his budget message, which Sacks and Harbaugh say is way off.

Fitzgerald said that by the state funding the program, "we are sowing the seeds of our own destruction."

Fitzgerald and representa- tives of the clinic have opposed each other several times.

While Harbaugh will point to the small number of constitu- tional cases actually handled, no one at the clinic uses that re- cord to defend their actions in those five "unpopular" cases.

"The government should have interest in seeing the Constitu- tion upheld," said legal intern Atty. Steve St. Clair.

"It's become unpatriotic to defend the Constitution," stu- dent Ellen Lubell said with a look of bewilderment and dis- gust.

The small number of civil rights actions are complement- ed by a large number of cases on behalf of prisoners. More than half the clinic's cases involve counseling those challenging convictions, motions protesting the type of imprisonment and other cases dealing with con- victs.

All cases handled by the clinic, both civil and criminal in- volve those who can't afford a lawyer. It's a service those at the clinic feel is sorely needed because of the work load facing public defenders and neighbor- hood legal services.

Only 4 per cent of those repre- sented by the clinic have had to go to jail and in 65 per cent of their cases charges have been nolledd, according to the clinic report.

As for the educational benefit, the students feel they are get- ting experience they could never get in a classroom; experi- ence that will be vital after graduation.

But the program has a great- er value to the students, accord- ing to Miss Lubell, in that it sensitizes them to the problems of the poor.

Atty. Marjorie Gelb, a legal intern, agreed. "A lot of stu- dents have told me they weren't interested in this type of work before but now they think it's important."

Harbaugh denied that any stu-

Shotgun Use By Police Is Supported

By THOMAS J. BREEN
Times Staff Writer

Both the Hartford city manager and the police chief back the continued use of shotguns by police in "grave" situations, despite criticism from the Hartford County coroner.

"I will continue to authorize the use of shotguns but only under grave circumstances," said City Manager Elisha Freedman, reacting to a suggestion from Coroner Irving L. Aronson that use of shotguns to quell riots be discontinued.

Aronson, earlier this week, absolved the Hartford police of any criminal responsibility in the shotgun killing of Efrain Gonzales, 23, a north end man shot to death by police fire July 31 during Hartford disturbances.

He said the pellets that killed Gonzales were fired from a police shotgun while Gonzales walked peacefully along Seymour Street with his brother.

Aronson, in recommending that shotguns not be used, cited the wounding of an 11-year-old girl who was shot in the arm after pellets came through her window in the north end during the same disturbances. He said a shotgun has a spraying effect, scattering 200 bullets in a single blast.

Police Chief Thomas J. Vaughan, concurring with Freedman, said he would use shotguns again "if the situation called for it."

"When the lives of your officers are in danger, and they must protect their own lives from snipers, then they will have shotguns."

Both the city manager and chief expressed concern for the safety of innocent persons but neither saw any other means of controlling a riotous situation.

Freedman said he would authorize only the use of birdshot for the shotguns, a milder ammunition than some other pellets.

At normal times, the manager said the shotguns "are under lock and key" at police headquarters.

He said several other metropolitan cities have taken to the use of shotguns "at any time" but that he did not foresee a similar occurrence in Hartford.

"Who would have thought we'd come to this?" Freedman asked to no one in particular, circling his cluttered desk at City Hall.

Hartford policemen normally are armed with .38 caliber revolvers.

Hartford police union, which represents some 400 policemen, referred to Gonzales' death as "a tragic thing."

But, said Det. William L. Kearns, "the police are trying to protect themselves and the city."

Shotguns, Kearns said "have a psychological affect" on rioters.

"I think that just the sight of a shotgun being raised will stop bottle throwing and sniper fire during disturbances," Kearns said.

The detective admitted the shotgun's spraying effect but he, too, saw no other way to protect the city in a riot.

Meanwhile, the Gonzales' estate has instituted legal action against the city as has a North End woman who claimed she was slightly wounded from shotgun fire while sitting in her living room.

Information contained in the above anonymous letter has been furnished to the Attorney General, the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, and the U. S. Secret Service.

The Department has advised that the above anonymous letter constitutes a violation of the Federal Extortion Statutes. Inasmuch as the threats contained in the letter arise from a racial situation, original and one copy of a closing report is to be promptly submitted to the Bureau by Tampa, office of origin.

The original of the anonymous letter and the envelope in which it was contained have been retained at the Bureau for appropriate Laboratory examination. Results of these examinations will be furnished to the Tampa Office and should be included in Tampa report.

Tampa at St. Petersburg, Florida, will contact local authorities for any suspects in this matter and will conduct any other logical investigation in an attempt to identify the unknown subject.

New York will promptly contact the NAACP Headquarters and attempt to locate and interview Roy Wilkins for any information he may be able to furnish concerning this matter. Atlanta will also attempt to locate and interview Martin Luther King for any information he may be able to furnish in connection with this matter.

All offices expedite. Copies of the letter and envelope are enclosed for each office.

NOTE: By letters dated 1/13/64 the Attorney General, Secret Service, and the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy were advised of the receipt of the anonymous letter. The letter to the Attorney General confirmed discussion with Mr. John Murphy, Civil Rights Division, on 1/10/64 at which time Mr. Murphy expressed the opinion that the facts constitute violation of the Federal Extortion Statutes. Field instructed to conduct appropriate investigation and office of origin will submit closing report which will be disseminated to the Department in accordance with our present policy in extortion cases arising out of racial matters.

Specimens ~~not~~ available in Bureau

Q1 Envelope postmarked "SAINT PETERSBURG FLA. JAN 5 8 PM 1964" addressed to "TO F B I Washington D C"

Q2 Accompanying one-page threatening note beginning "Ruben shot Oswald afraid..." and ending "...we not fail no"

Result of examination:

Specimens Q1 and Q2 were searched through the appropriate sections of the Anonymous Letter File but no identification was effected. A photograph will be added to this file.

No indented writing of any significance was noted on specimens Q1 and Q2.

The stamp on the envelope, Q1, was torn from a booklet of five-cent postage stamps.

The envelope, Q1, was made of white bond paper, containing no watermarks, to measure approximately 6.50 inches across the top, 6.51 inches along the bottom edge, 3.70 inches along the right edge and 3.63 inches along the left edge.

Specimen Q2 was prepared on a sheet of ruled tablet paper which measures approximately 5.99 inches across the top, 6.00 inches across the bottom and 9.00 inches from top to bottom. This sheet of paper contains no watermarks and contains twenty-two blue-green lines on the front and twenty-five blue-green lines on the back. The sheet of paper was bound in a tablet with a red adhesive along the top edge.

Specimens Q1 and Q2 are retained in the Bureau's files.

Result of examination:

A definite conclusion could not be reached as to whether the questioned writing on specimens Q1 and Q2 in this case was prepared by [redacted] writer of specimen Kel and fingerprint card signatures. Most of the writing on Q1 and Q2 was prepared with either lower-case hand printed letters or broken script letters which are not comparable with the upper-case hand printing on Kel or with the signatures on Kel and the fingerprint cards.

Specimen Kel is retained in the Bureau's files.

Re New York airtel dated 1-20-64.

New York will recontact Roy Wilkins concerning his request for a copy of the envelope and letter involved in this matter and diplomatically decline to furnish this material. Point out to Wilkins that this letter was addressed to the FBI and therefore must be treated as confidential in the same manner as other information contained in Bureau files.

If deemed necessary, you may point out to Mr. Wilkins that the letter also mentions other individuals, therefore, a release of a copy of the letter to him would violate the privacy of the other individuals involved.

If not already done, New York should advise the New York Police Department of the threat involved in this matter.

NOTE:

An anonymous letter postmarked 1-5-64, at St. Petersburg, Florida, addressed to FBI states in part, "We here to get Martin Luthr King and Wilkson and Mayr Allan." It also indicates that the writer intends to get Attorney General Kennedy and President Johnson if Johnson pushes integration. By letter dated 1-13-64, the threats contained in the letter were furnished to the AG, Secret Service and J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel of the President's Commission. In view of the threats contained in this letter, the Atlanta Police Department has been advised and we have notified Roy Wilkins, NAACP, NYC.

We have not notified Martin Luther King due to the derogatory information available concerning him. The letter is being afforded examination by the Laboratory and a closing report will be submitted by Tampa and disseminated to the Department consistent with present policy concerning these matters.

When advised of the threat by our New York Office, Wilkins requested that if possible a copy of the envelope and letter be made available to him.

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECT,
MARTIN LUTHER KING, ET AL. - VICTIMS

Information contained in the above anonymous letter has been furnished to the Attorney General, the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, and the U. S. Secret Service.

The Department has advised that the above anonymous letter constitutes a violation of the Federal Extortion Statute. Inasmuch as the threats contained in the letter arise from a racial situation, original and one copy of a closing report is to be promptly submitted to the Bureau by Tampa, office of origin.

The original of the anonymous letter and the envelope in which it was contained have been retained at the Bureau for appropriate Laboratory examination. Results of these examinations will be furnished to the Tampa Office and should be included in Tampa report.

Tampa at St. Petersburg, Florida, will contact local authorities for any suspects in this matter and will conduct any other logical investigation in an attempt to identify the unknown subject.

New York will promptly contact the NAACP Headquarters and attempt to locate and interview Roy Wilkins for any information he may be able to furnish concerning this matter. Atlanta will also attempt to locate and interview Martin Luther King for any information he may be able to furnish in connection with this matter.

All offices expedite. Copies of the letter and envelope are enclosed for each office.

NOTE: By letters dated 1/13/64 the Attorney General, Secret Service, and the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy were advised of the receipt of the anonymous letter. The letter to the Attorney General confirmed discussion with Mr. John Murphy, Civil Rights Division, on 1/10/64 at which time Mr. Murphy expressed the opinion that the facts constitute violation of the Federal Extortion Statute. Field instructed to conduct appropriate investigation and office of origin will submit closing report which will be disseminated to the Department in accordance with our present policy in extortion cases arising out of racial matters.

The original anonymous letter and envelope are attached hereto for transmittal as follows:

1. To FBI Laboratory for appropriate document and/or handwriting examination.
2. Latent Fingerprint Section for appropriate examination.

It is requested these examinations be expedited and results furnished to Tampa and any other pertinent offices.

- Q2 Accompanying one-page threatening note beginning "Ruben shot Oswald afraid..." and ending "...we not fail no".

Result of examination:

Specimens Q1 and Q2 were searched through the appropriate sections of the Anonymous Letter File but no identification was effected. A photograph will be added to this file.

No indented writing of any significance was noted on specimens Q1 and Q2.

The stamp on the envelope, Q1, was torn from a booklet of five-cent postage stamps.

The envelope, Q1, was made of white bond paper, containing no watermarks, to measure approximately 8.50 inches across the top, 6.51 inches along the bottom edge, 3.70 inches along the right edge and 3.68 inches along the left edge.

Specimen Q2 was prepared on a sheet of ruled tablet paper which measures approximately 8.99 inches across the top, 6.00 inches across the bottom and 9.00 inches from top to bottom. This sheet of paper contains no watermarks and contains twenty-two blue-green lines on the front and twenty-five blue-green lines on the back. The sheet of paper was bound in a tablet with a red adhesive along the top edge.

Specimens Q1 and Q2 are retained in the Bureau's files.

Re Chicago teletype to Director, this date.

On 7/16/63 GRANVILLE REED, Program Assistant, Chicago Branch, NAACP, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, telephonically advised that the NAACP had received a postcard threatening the life of ROY WILKENS.

REED was interviewed on 7/16/63 and made available a pre-stamped postcard. The post mark on this postcard is cut off, however, it appears to have been post marked 7/15/63. The card is handwritten and is addressed to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 431 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois. The card reads as follows: "ATTENTION! All N.A.A.C.P. Members! If your head, Roy Wilkens, wants to live beyond Sat. 7/20 he had better leave the country. I warn you I make no empty threats! K. P."

Although this card has been handled by a number of people and by the NAACP Office, the Lab is requested to examine this card for any latent fingerprints and also search the card through the appropriate files to determine if there is any similar correspondence coming to the attention of the Bureau. The Lab is requested to handle this expeditiously in order that the report may be included in the 10-day closing report.

Re Chicago teletypes 7/16/63 and Bureau telephone call to New York 7/17/63.

Information of Chicago, in referenced telephone call New York was instructed to immediately locate Wilkins and advise him of threat. In event Wilkins remains away from New York, appropriate local authorities covering his present location should also be advised. When Wilkins is located, he should be interviewed to determine if he has any suspects in this matter or knows who might use the initials "K.P."

From a review of information submitted to date, it appears that the post card containing this threat was mailed in the Chicago area. If this is true, Chicago should make inquiry with local authorities to determine if they have any knowledge of any person who might use the name "K.P."

Any logical investigation should be conducted by Chicago and upon receipt of Laboratory examinations requested, Chicago will submit two copies of a closing report. Designate one copy for U. S. Attorney, Chicago. Do not consult U. S. Attorn in this matter as Department reserves the right to make all prosecutive decisions in cases of this type. Interview of Wilkins should be included in Chicago closing report. All phases of this matter should be expedited and Bureau kept advised of all pertinent developments.

JULY 16, 1963
RACIAL MATTERS

On July 16, 1963, Mr. Granville Reed, Program Assistant, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised the Chicago Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation that he was in receipt on this date of a postal card addressed to the NAACP, 431 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois. Mr. Reed stated the card arriving in the morning mail is believed to have been mailed at Chicago, Illinois although the postmark is not thoroughly legible.

On the reverse of the post card is the following message:

"A T T E N T I O N!

All N.A.A.C.P. members!

If your head, Roy Wilkins wants to live beyond Sat. 7/20 he had better leave the country.
I warn you I make no empty threats! K. P."

Reed advised that Roy Wilkins is currently in charge of the NAACP and maintains his residence and office in New York City. He stated that on July 16, 1963, he had been in telephonic contact with Wilkins' office at New York but had determined that Wilkins was not present in the office. Reed stated that he was unable to ascertain Wilkins' whereabouts as of the time of that call.

On July 16, 1963, details concerning this matter were furnished to [REDACTED] Human Relations Section, Chicago Police Department.

Re Chicago teletype to Director, this date.

On 7/16/68 GRANVILLE REED, Program Assistant, Chicago Branch, NAACP, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, telephonically advised that the NAACP had received a postcard threatening the life of ROY WILKENS.

REED was interviewed on 7/16/68 and made available a pre-stamped postcard. The post mark on this postcard is cut off, however, it appears to have been post marked 7/15/68. The card is handwritten and is addressed to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 431 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois. The card reads as follows: "ATTENTION! All N.A.A.C.P. Members! If your head, Roy Wilkens, wants to live beyond Sat. 7/20 he had better leave the country. I warn you I make no empty threats! K. P."

Although this card has been handled by a number of people and by the NAACP Office, the Lab is requested to examine this card for any latent fingerprints and also search the card through the appropriate files to determine if there is any similar correspondence coming to the attention of the Bureau. The Lab is requested to handle this expeditiously in order that the report may be included in the 10-day closing report.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

On July 16, 1963, GRANVILLE W. REED, Program Assistant, Chicago Branch, NAACP, 431 South Dearborn, telephonically advised that he had received a postcard through the mail. This card threatened the life of ROY WILKINS if he did not leave the country.

GRANVILLE W. REED, Program Assistant, Chicago Branch, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 431 South Dearborn Street, made available a pre-stamped postcard. This card was addressed to the "National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 431 S. Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois." The postmark was cut off but appeared to have been mailed on July 15, 1963. This card was handwritten in blue ink and stated "ATTENTION! All N.A.A.C.P. members! If your head, Roy Wilkins, wants to live beyond Sat. 7/20 he had better leave the country. I warn you I make no empty threats!" This card was signed "K.P.".

This card also contained additional printing which read "RECEIVED JUL 16 1963". REED stated that this stamp was placed on the card when it was received in the mail.

REED stated that this card was received in the regular morning mail delivery this date. He stated that several people in the office have handled the card and he also had copies of the card made.

REED could furnish no suspects. He stated that his office has not received any crank letters to his knowledge and he only recalls that approximately one month ago, Reverend CARL A. FUQUA, the Executive Secretary, received a package which contained a dummy bomb. This matter was turned over to the local police. He stated that he also recalls that a number of months ago his office received a crank telephone call but does not recall the contents of this call. b7D

REED stated that he has notified [redacted] about this matter. He was advised that he should notify them if he felt that protection was needed.

By report dated July 19, 1963, the FBI Laboratory

By report dated July 22, 1963, the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division

Date 7/19/63

ROY WILKINS, Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), was interviewed at his office, 20 West 40th Street.

b7c He said he had previously been informed by SA [REDACTED] that a postcard had been received at the office of the NAACP at Chicago, Illinois, which threatened his life. He had in his possession a facsimile of this postal card which had been sent to him by his Chicago office.

He said he had no suspects and did not know who might use the initials K.P.

He was informed that protection could not be afforded him by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). He was told that the nature and contents of the threat had been brought to the attention of the New York City Police Department and that if he desired protection, he should contact that department. He had not contacted the New York City Police Department as of the time of the interview.

Mr. WILKINS said he did not inform his wife of the receipt of the threat as he did not want to unduly alarm her. He said his wife is employed on the staff of the Commissioner of Welfare, City of New York. She is director of Community Relations and is employed in the offices of New York City Department of Welfare, 250 Church Street, on the 14th floor. The telephone number is DI 4-8700, extension 615.

Mr. WILKINS pointed out he had attended a convention of the NAACP in Chicago, and he had left Chicago on July 7, 1963, traveling to Charleston, South Carolina. He had stayed in Charleston, South Carolina, a short time and then traveled by train to New York, arriving at noon, July 8, 1963.

The following description of WILKINS was obtained by observation and interview:

GRANVILLE W. EKEED, III, Program Assistant, Chicago Branch, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised that the postal card containing the threat to the life of ROY WILKINS, Executive Secretary, NAACP, New York City, was received in that organization's Chicago office on July 16, 1963. The card was contained in a stack of other mail for their office, and, as such, was not handled separately by NAACP personnel.

To the best of his knowledge, Mr. EKEED stated, no one other than himself at the NAACP office handled the card. Following its receipt he took the card to the firm of Engin Equipment Company, located in that same building, where he requested [redacted] of that firm to make several photostat copies of the card. Mr. EKEED stated that he does not know if persons other than [redacted] handled the card, but would attempt to secure [redacted] information as soon as possible. He noted that [redacted] is currently on vacation and should return to the Chicago area during the week August 12-16, 1963. b7c

Mr. EKEED advised that he recalls having been fingerprinted on several occasions, but his only specific recollection is at the time he served with the National Guard in the State of Michigan. He stated that in 1955 he served on active duty with the National Guard at Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri, [redacted]. He stated that he was born January 9, 1938, at Leavenworth, Kansas.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

During the weekend of April 19, 1969, incendiary devices were thrown through the windows of the residences of both Newallo and Jackson. They failed to ignite and minimal damages resulted. Newallo has publicly stated these acts were perpetrated by his enemies in the CCGP. Hempstead police officials are investigating these incidents but no suspects have been developed.

b7D

It is noted that the trouble described above concerns blacks only and there are no whites involved. Therefore, any tense racial situation in Hempstead is the result of blacks disagreeing with each other and there is no evidence of white involvement.

80 year old labor and civil rights leader, recently retired as president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, urged militant Negro youths to reject confrontationism and violence in their struggle for freedom and justice. He said "we must reject racial separatism and together with the conviction that one day our nation can cease to be divided within itself, reaffirm our abiding faith in integration. We cannot reject these principles without also denying ourselves the possibility of freedom".

The May 13, 1969, issue of the "New York Post", a New York City daily newspaper, on page 24 carried an article indicating that Roy Wilkins, Executive Director of the NAACP, stated "It's not how a black man wears his hair but what he has inside his head", thereby explaining his, Wilkins', stand that the demands for black studies are "a lot of nonsense".

SANITATION WORKERS DISPUTE
OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA

Reference memorandum dated August 11, 1969, at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

The August 11, 1969, issue of the "Oklahoma Journal" contains an article reflecting Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the nation-wide NAACP, had pledged wholehearted support for the Oklahoma City garbage workers' demand for a $100 per month pay raise and five-day work week. According to the article, Wilkins, in New York, stated "We haven't made any definite plans. It's just a question of what form the action will take." The article quoted another NAACP official in New York, Henry Lee Moon, as comparing the Oklahoma City situation with earlier confrontations in Tennessee and South Carolina. Moon stated, "There is no question that we will stand behind them just as we stood by the workers in Memphis and Charleston."

The August 12, 1969, issue of the "Oklahoma Journal" contains an article indicating that a group of ministers representing 26 black members within the 75-member Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance in Oklahoma City, OKIA, announced that they were "shocked" by the city sanitation workers' wages, working conditions and gave their support to the workers' threat to strike. Reverend J. C. West, President of the Alliance, was asked by newsmen what form the pledged support would take and West replied, "If it's necessary to say some more later, we'll say some more. If it's necessary to do some more, we'll do some more."

The August 12, 1969, issue of the "Daily Oklahoman" contains an article stating that City Manager Robert H. Oldland, Oklahoma City, had reiterated his pledge that any sanitation worker walking off his job on August 19, 1969, will be dismissed. He said volunteers from the parks, street, water and sewer work forces will supplement sanitation crews if regular workers do refuse to work August 19th. Oldland stated that the city will continue to refuse to respond to demands or ultimatums but indicated some complaints by sanitation workers may be resolved soon. Oldland stated that no action on a pay raise for the sanitation workers will be taken until a scheduled review of pay raises for sanitation workers and other city jobs is completed around the end of the year. According to the article, the Oklahoma City Youth Council of the NAACP has pledged to stand or lie down in front of garbage trucks to halt sanitation operations August 19th, if the workers strike.

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Youth Council
The August 13, 1969, issue of the "Daily Oklahoman" reflects that City Manager Oldland would meet on August 13, 1969, and August 14, 1969, with city sanitation workers for a general dialogue and briefing on new working conditions. Oldland outlined the new job conditions which includes a five-day, 40-hour week beginning September 2, 1969. He had presented this report on job conditions and changes to the Oklahoma City Council on August 12, 1969, and the council members approved the report and urged Oldland to make the same report directly to the sanitation workers. The article quotes Mrs. Clara Luper, Advisor to the NAACP Youth Council, as stating she did not think the sanitation workers will be satisfied with Oldland's program. She said she felt a pay increase which has been rejected by Oldland is a key issue to the workers. According to the article, State Senator E. Melvin Porter, former NAACP official in Oklahoma City, said he is personally satisfied that Mrs. Luper and other supporters of the sanitation workers aren't planning any activities involving violence. He confirmed that several East Side residents of Oklahoma City had asked him to check on rumors that a sanitation strike may lead to violence and widespread disorder. He said that about 10 persons have expressed concern to him about the involvement of young men that have identified themselves as Black Panthers, in the sanitation controversy. In addition, Porter stated that all indications he has indicate that the Black Panther group intends to follow Mrs. Luper's lead in making a non-violent stand on behalf of the sanitation workers. Porter stressed that he believes the sanitation workers have a legitimate complaint but said he hopes some compromise can be reached before August 19, 1969. OKLAHOMA CITY

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE
MAJOR URBAN AREAS

The BPP intends to dominate the conference and claim it will be held at Merritt College, Oakland, California. The President of the college has advised local law enforcement officials that no official request for campus facilities has been received to date, and further, that the college will be holding its regular summer session at the same time.

The BPP claims that it has secured the following as speakers during the conference:

CALIF.
Tom Hayden, Founder of the anarchist Students For A Democratic Society (SDS)

A characterization of the SDS is contained in the appendix

William Kunstler, New York attorney prominent in Civil Rights matters. CALIF.

CALIF. Charles Garry, San Francisco attorney for the BPP.

Organization of various committees is proceeding, but the agenda is not yet established.

One spokesman for the BPP, when asked the purpose of the conference, stated that it was to teach "Revolutionology".

San Francisco, California Area

On July 1, 1969, Bobby Seale, Chairman of the BPP, gave a press release by reading the text of a telegram received from Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

N.Y.

CALIF.

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE
MAJOR URBAN AREAS

Wilkins' telegram read as follows:

"I am desirous of exploratory conference with officers of militant group and particularly with you as chairman of the Central Committee of the Black Panther Party. Do not desire public meeting at this time. Certainly cannot arrange trip to West Coast before late July account prior commitments. At this time my desire to explore areas of possible agreement and disagreement is purely an administrative one on my own authority as Chief Executive Officer of NAACP. It is official, of course, but not binding nor does it have the formal endorsement of my Board of Directors. I simply feel very strongly that present situation of our race requires trying to reach some common ground and arrival at some sort of strategy that will be effective even if used in only a few areas. I may be in error and there is not unamanous support even among my immediate co-workers on staff, but I feel I must try. I hope we may continue the effort to arrive at a mutually satisfactory meeting date and place late in July or early in August.

It should be pointed out during the time this telegram was sent, the NAACP was conducting its national convention in Mississippi.

Seale stated he sent Wilkins a telegram on June 30, 1969, stating the Central Committee would meet with Wilkins on July 4, 1969, at a public meeting in DeFremery Park, Oakland, California, in connection with a rally and picnic originally scheduled.

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE
MAJOR URBAN AREAS

Seale stated the BPP will meet with Wilkins only under these terms and to date, no answer has been received from Wilkins. Seale stated that it is obvious that Wilkins does not want to meet with the people and that he is separated from the Black community. He commented that if Wilkins was really concerned, he would have accepted a public meeting.

The "Black Panther" newspaper, for July 5, 1969 published a copy of the telegram and a picture of Roy Wilkins. Under the picture was a subtitle, "The Grand Cop-Out".

The Community Relations Unit, of the San Francisco, California Police Department, which has been under fire in the past months from minority leaders, has seen the previous leader of the Unit retire and a Negro patrolman appointed to head the Unit.

The new head of the Unit has been presented with a new plan of action. The plan was drafted by a member of the Mayor's Crime Committee and calls for sweeping changes and broad community involvement.

Emphasis of the new plan is for the police department to go to the people rather than wait for the people to come to them. The plan proposes seven Divisions; Ethnic and Racial Relations; Youth Relations; Domestic Relations; Complaint Division; Social Abuses; Communications and Research and Library. The plan calls for the establishment of Community Relations Arms in each of the nine district stations.

Re Savannah airtel to Bureau 7/1/70.

On 3/10/70 a meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) in Augusta was held at which ROY WILKINS was the principal speaker. There were no incidents. On 7/11/70 a march and rally were held in Augusta, Ga., led by WILBERT ALLEN, a self-proclaimed organizer of the Augusta Black Panther Party, without incident. Both gatherings were well attended and received local news attention. Speeches made at both gatherings called for the identities of the Augusta police officers responsible for the deaths of six individuals during the rioting on 5/11-12/70 in Augusta, Ga.

PERSONAL EVALUATION

Sources report that following both of the above gatherings, as well as during regular contacts, tensions appear to be easing in Augusta, Ga. I do not expect at this time that the Savannah Division will have any major racial incidents. No indications have been received to date indicating that the integration of public schools in September, particularly in the rural areas, will be marred with any violence. It is expected that friction among the students will be present initially and perhaps generate minor incidents, however, no major difficulties are expected at this time.

RACIAL DISTURBANCE, AUGUSTA, GEORGIA,
BEGINNING MAY 11, 1970

b7D, b2 [redacted] advised July 11, 1970, that approximately 500 people attended the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) meeting at the Tabernacle Baptist Church at Augusta, Georgia, at 8:00 p.m. on July 10, 1970, where Roy Wilkins was the principal speaker. Eight or ten whites were present and the remainder were Negroes. The meeting was quiet and orderly with no violence. Those in attendance included Daniel Cross, Augusta, Ga., NAACP official; Frank Madison, a soldier with the U. S. Army at Fort Gordon, Georgia, as well as Matthew Mulherin, Chairman of the Richmond County Board of Commissioners. GA.

GA. According to [redacted] member of the party prior to the meeting Wilbert Lee Allen, self-proclaimed local Black Panther leader, and 15 to 20 unidentified individuals, all dressed in khaki shirts and blue jeans wearing black berets, were lined along the sides of the church in parade rest positions. Immediately before the meeting began, Allen and others in uniform left. Two or three of these uniformed individuals returned inside the church for the meeting but Allen did not return. A characterization of the Black Panther Party is attached hereto in the appendix.

[redacted] advised that the theme of Wilkins' speech was that the blacks and whites of Augusta should unite; that the police officers responsible for the killing of the six blacks in Augusta on May 11, 1970, should be brought to justice and that the city of Augusta owes something to the black community of Augusta.

observed throwing the fire bomb which was found to be a fifth-size whiskey bottle containing kerosene. There was no structural damage to the lounge and the persons responsible were not identified or arrested.

On September 23, 1969, 188 Negroes, all high school student age, were arrested at the Clarksdale High School, a white school, where they had assembled and marched to protest the segregated school system in Clarksdale. They were arrested after they were advised by local authorities that their arrest would result if they trespassed on the school grounds. There was no violence during the incident.

Following the above incident, frequent marches were held at Clarksdale sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to protest the segregated school system which operated on a district plan and to protest the above arrests.

A boycott of white businesses and picketing of the downtown business area as well as the businesses of the members of the Clarksdale City School Board, was also instituted by the NAACP. Marches were held regularly on Saturdays with as many as 1,700 Negro participants. There were no acts of violence during the marches, meetings or picketing.

Mr. Aaron E. Henry, President, Mississippi NAACP and Coahoma County Chapter of the NAACP, Clarksdale, arranged for speakers to participate in several marches and meetings, including Mr. Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary, NAACP, New York, New York, who spoke and led a march on November 22, 1969.

Reverend Ralph D. Abernathy, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), addressed a group of Negroes at Clarksdale on February 2, 1970, without incident.

Mitchell visit rapped

By JACK NELSON

The Los Angeles Times

WASHINGTON—Mississippi civil rights leaders Thursday launched a campaign for a massive demonstration to protest a scheduled speech by Atty. Gen. John Mitchell to the Delta Council—the epitome of the state's upper-crust white society.

Aaron E. Henry, Mississippi NAACP president said he had failed in quiet efforts to persuade Mitchell not to address the Chamber of Commerce-type organization, which Henry branded "segregationist and racist."

A spokesman for the attorney general said Mitchell does not consider the organization to be racially exclusive and plans to make the speech at its annual meeting on May 19 in Cleveland, Miss.

In letters mailed to other civil rights figures Thursday, Henry accused some Delta Council members of supporting private schools to thwart public school desegregation.

Among those he is inviting to Cleveland are Roy Wilkins, the Rev. Ralph David Abernethy, Whitney Young, Bayard Rustin and A. Philip Randolph.

Henry wrote that he was asking national church and civil rights leaders, as well as some political leaders, to convene in Cleveland on May 18 and 19 "for a demonstration of civil disobedience against Mr. Mitchell's presence here."

For years national political figures journeyed to Cleveland to speak at the council's annual meeting. It was there on May 8, 1947, for example, that then-

Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson first mentioned the European recovery program that a bit later was unfolded by Secretary of State George C. Marshall and became known as the Marshall plan. In his book, "Present at the Creation" Acheson wrote of the Delta Council meeting:

"Once a year the Delta Council meets on the tree-shaded lawn of the teachers college at Cleveland, bringing families and relatives with them to discuss their own area's interests and problems and to hear about the great world to which historically their products have gone. Those most immediately concerned listen to the speaker in the large gymnasium of the college. His words are carried to many more thousands on the surrounding lawn while they eat sandwiches, drink pop, and keep an eye on the sleeping children. The scene is an easy-going, good-natured, shirt-sleeved, thoroughly American one. . ."

By the 1960s, however, the heat generated by the civil rights movement persuaded national politicians that the scene might not be so easy-going and they stopped addressing the council. One of the last invited was Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman. A former council official recalled that "Freeman was supposed to come at about the time the freedom rides started and he suddenly decided he had to inspect the cranberry crop somewhere and couldn't come."

For more than two months Henry, a longtime civil rights leader, tried to convince Mitchell that lending the prestige of the attorney general's office to the Delta Council function would buoy segregationist sentiment.

After Henry first protested, Morris Lewis, Jr. of Indianola council president, wrote him a letter saying that if the council's meeting is all-white "It will be only because no Negroes want to attend. At our annual meetings in the past Negroes have attended and at no time were they denied admittance. . . The Delta Council has never had any restriction on Negro membership."

A spokesman for Mitchell said the attorney general, after receiving a copy of Lewis' letter, decided the council was not racially exclusive.

A former council official who has been a member for more than 20 years told the Los Angeles Times, "I've never seen a black face in the audience at one of our meetings. Negroes are not excluded by the by-laws, but they aren't included as members. It's just like Jews are not excluded by our country club's by-laws, but they're not admitted as members."

Council President Lewis, who is Jewish, said in an interview that he financially supports a private school at Indianola. He said he also has supported public schools.

He said he does not know how many of 18-county council's 4,000 members are Negroes "because our membership can't show race, but I recognize one or two names as friends of mine who are Negroes."

"I can say unambiguously I have seen them quite a few times at the meetings," Lewis said. "I can't recall whether I saw the last year or the year before, but I told by people I know that they saw some year."

April 30, 1970

Dear Friend of the Cause of Freedom:

I am sorry to have to report to you that all of our efforts have been futile in trying to persuade the Attorney General of the United States Department of Justice, Attorney John Mitchell to uphold the reputation of the Department of Justice of men who held the office before him. This list begins with Attorney General Brownell and goes thru Attorney General Ramsey Clark, and of course, in between were such dedicated Americans as Robert Kennedy, Nicholas Katzenbach, John Doar, Bob, Lisbon Berry, the Flannerys and many others.

None of these men deminished themselves to the extent that they would openly associate the name of the United States Department of Justice with an organization that was segregationist and racist..

Yet, on May 19, 1970, in spite of the persuasion of many of us, and some members of the U. S. Department of Justice, including Attorney Jack Landau, who reportedly is now on his way out, being fired by the Attorney General. On Friday, April 17, I made another inquiry in the Office of the Attorney General, trying to persuade him not to make the same kind of "Mockery of a department in Washington called "Justice", as is a town in Mississippi called "Liberty". I was informed on that day,... "The Delta Council, although it has no Negro members, that this in the Attorney General's mind did not constitute segregation nor discrimination." Therefore, we have decided to organize a demonstration of Civil Disobedience against this racist identification. We are inviting Mr. Roy Wilkins, Rev. Ralph Abernathy, Mr. Whitney Young, Mr. Bayard Rustin, Mr. A. Phillip Randolph, Rev. Dudley Ward, The National Council of Churches and other Church Groups, The Delta Ministry, The American Friends Service Committee and several national politicians both Democrat and Republican, to join us at a Public Rally at the United Baptist Church, 1028 Christman Street, Ext., on Monday May 18th and at 9:00 A. M. the morning of May 19th and demonstrate to the Nation our objection TO OUR ATTORNEY GENERAL, THE TOP LAW OFFICER IN THE UNITED STATES identifying with a group that remains in the valley of segregation. The activities of the President of the Delta Council and many of its members in support of segregation as they identify with the PRIVATE SCHOOL MOVEMENT that assists white children in the cause to not go to school with Black children is unforgivable.

The meeting is scheduled for Cleveland, Mississippi, May 19, 1970. Your presence is needed.

Your Friend,

Aaron E. Henry, President

Communiviews

The 36-page booklet captioned, "Who Controls Black Destiny?" is self-described as a publication of Communiviews, a newsletter of the Black Parent, Teacher and Student Coalition, a monthly publication, P. O. Box 17148, Chicago, Illinois 60617, special edition, Volume III, No. 6, Fall 1972. Page 2 indicates this is the only edition published since Spring, 1972.

Page 1 states: "Our Objectives: The Seven Stages to African Liberation".

The table of contents indicates this booklet contains 20 separate articles of interest to Black people.

The editorial on page 4 applauds President Idi Amin of Uganda for expelling the "Jewish-like" blood sucking Asians from his country. It derides President Julius Nyerere of Tanzania for invading Uganda and not Rhodesia or South Africa.

The cover story on page 5 condemns present Black leaders in industry, social and civic organizations as powerless informants who are really tools of the white man or honkies. Example of these Black traitors are General Benjamin O. Davis, Jr., United States Air Force; Sammy Davis, Jr., Entertainer; Preston Wilcox, Consultant; Roy Wilkins, Executive Director of the NAACP; Dr. Andrew Felton Brimmer, member of the Federal Reserve Board, and Reverend Dr. Leon Howard Sullivan, founder of Opportunities Industrialization Center. U.S.

U.S.
Black man of the month, on page 12 concerns a slanderous attack against George O'Hare, a white man, and the Black priest, Rev. George Clements. The article calls Rev. Clements a "traitor nigger" for naming O'Hare, Black man of the month for April, 1972. O'Hare is a merchandising manager for Sears, Roebuck and Company.

The National Black Political Convention in Gary, Indiana, is discussed on page 13. It was criticized for not being representative of Blacks in the United States, for allowing white "honkies" to be delegates and for not condemning Israel in their dispute with the Arab states. It condemned the actions of Rev. Jesse Jackson of Push, "People United to Save Honkies"; Mayor Hatcher, and legislators Diggs, Newhouse and Dellum's.

The article "From Gary to McGovern: Black Politics-Lost, Strayed and Betrayed", appears on page 16. This is an excerpt from a story appearing in the September, 1972 publication, Reverend Kyles spoke before television cameramen and newsmen and addressed the audience, stating, "There is no justice for blacks at City Hall," whereupon he was loudly cheered. He was followed by Reverend James Morris Lawson, Jr., who spoke, saying, "We have to escalate our fight," and he emphasized that he would bring a wave of national civil rights leaders and other individuals from other parts of the country to Memphis to aid in the current strike struggle and also emphasized that Roy Wilkins, National Executive Secretary of the NAACP, would appear in town on March 14, 1968, and possibly Bayard Rustin of the A. Philip Randolph Institute would come to Memphis to address the strike supporters.

Reverend Lawson called for all of the protesters to march en masse to Clayborn Temple where they would hold a rally, following which they would all go to his church, the Centenary Methodist Church, 564 East McLemore, for a mass rally on the night of March 12, 1968.

[REDACTED] advised that leaflets were being passed out at various Memphis high schools urging all Negro high school students to stay away from school on Wednesday, March 13, 1968 and to spend the day in strike support activities. [REDACTED] advised that one of the activities scheduled would be a picketing of Central High School in Memphis where Mayor Henry Loeb is scheduled to speak at 8:45 a.m. before the student body. b7D

NAACP leader says blacks should present united front

Blacks should present a united front and practice restraint in dealing with problems, the executive director of the NAACP said Monday in Minneapolis.

"There is nothing sadder than watching a black community that constitutes about 1 percent of the population throwing its weight around like they are the controlling community," director Roy Wilkins said at the 10th annual Opportunities Industrialization Centers (OIC) Convocation.

Wilkins urged the black community to put together a coalition to help them in their causes.

"You won't hear a politician saying he doesn't listen to blacks, even if they are only 1 percent of the population," he added.

Roy Wilkins

Some of the most crucial issues facing blacks today are education, employment, housing, drugs, crime and relationships with the police, Wilkins said.

said.

No matter how large or small a black urban community may be, he said, it must proceed along moral, legal and court persuasions to obtain its goals.

Two things have been realized by blacks in the last few years: The potency of the ballot and unity, Wilkins said.

"People are using the ballot. Even the Black Panthers have realized the potency of the ballot," he said.

Wilkins cited the number of black mayors in the nation. "They were not elected just because they are black but because they were the best men for the jobs," he said.

"There is a unity that never existed before among organizations," Wilkins said. He mentioned the cooperation between OIC and the NAACP: "OIC is a specialized continuation of the NAACP program."

"The great majority of blacks in the community want to learn a trade and have a fair chance at the jobs available. We know OIC can give them that chance," Wilkins said.

GI's protest military racism

AFTRICA

A group of 236 black, white, Chicano and Indian GI's--all of them members of the 173rd Airborne Brigade that recently returned from Vietnam--have signed an open letter to Defense Secretary Melvin Laird accusing the armed forces of racial discrimination. The GI's tried to present the letter to Laird earlier this month when the Defense Secretary visited Fort Campbell on the Tennessee-Kentucky border to welcome their brigade home from Southeast Asia. But Gen. William Birdsong, the commander at Fort Campbell where the 173rd is now stationed, refused to allow the GI's to make the presentation. The GI's letter asserted that "throughout our time in the service we've seen minority group GI's discriminated against. In Vietnam that's been evidenced by higher casualty rates. Other times it takes the form of slower promotions, higher penalties for rules violations and the worse job assignments. We feel that the Army fosters racism and has purposely avoided dealing with the day-to-day problems of minority groups."

b7c

In a press conference at the fort, Laird told newsmen he had not seen the petition, but acknowledged that the armed forces are beset with serious racial problems. "These are difficult problems," he said. "They are people problems." The secretary also contended, however, that progress has been made toward their solution. "We have made more progress in this area than any administration in American history," he asserted, and he said his source for that opinion is civil rights leader Roy Wilkins of the NAACP.

5 File JAB

Another black leader who is less impressed with the administration's record, however, is Congressman Ronald V. Dellums, a Democrat from Berkeley, Calif. (See Race Relations Reporter, Vol. II, No 5). In an eight-page telegram to the protesting GI's of the 173rd, Dellums told them he supported their efforts to end racism in the armed services, to secure full constitutional rights for GI's and to bring about a complete withdrawal of U. S. forces from Vietnam. Pvt. Mike McIntire of Los Angeles read Dellums' telegram to the cheers of about 50 GI's who were demonstrating peacefully outside Fort Campbell following Laird's departure on Sept. 2. The group was predominantly white, but it also contained a healthy sprinkling of blacks, Spanish-Americans and Indians. McIntire, who is an Indian, explained to RRIC that while non-white GI's may have a more difficult time of it, most of the problems that concern him are common to soldiers of all races. "They are sending us to Vietnam to get ourselves killed for absolutely nothing," he said. "It's a complete farce. And if we do make it back and try to say anything about it, we get hassled by the lifers and investigated by the police." As McIntire was talking, agents with cameras circled the demonstration, carloads of Tennessee State Troopers patrolled nearby, and two long-haired men, whom the protestors said were secret agents, listened intently. * * *

Volume I, Issue No. 7, dated Friday, August 31, 1973 of "The Voice of the Black Community" contained an article on page 1 entitled "They Must Have More than Promises", which was an article paraphrasing JULIAN BOND, saying "it is not enough to just aggitate, we must also educate.". The article was written regarding the school situation in Decatur, Illinois, insofar as their ability to meet the problems confronting black students in Decatur. According to the article, racism, ideologies, and philosophies still persists in the Decatur schools. t

An article on page 2 entitled "A Need for Justice" regarding the recent release of an individual in Decatur who was allegedly mishandled by the Decatur Police Department. According to the article, many blacks in Decatur receive this type of treatment, however, nothing is ever done about it.

An article on page 5 entitled "Would you Buy a Used Car from this Man?" regarding RICHARD M. NIXON cites the alleged improprieties of Mr. NIXON from 1940 in his political activity.

An article on page 7 reveals that on Saturday, September 15, at 7:30 PM the Chicago Urban League will sponsor its Third Annual Football Classic. The game is to be played at Soliders.

STUDENT ORGANIZATION FOR BLACK UNITY (SOBU) EXTREMIST MATTERS - SOBU

The Student Organization for Black Unity (SOBU) with headquarters at Greensboro, North Carolina, publishes each two weeks a tabloid-sized newspaper, currently 16 pages in length.

Student Organization for Black Unity (SOBU) was formed in 1969 at Greensboro, North Carolina, with the basic aim to initiate, coordinate, and lead a black student movement in the United States. During May, 1969, an organizational convention was held, attended by well-known black militants from the eastern part of the United States.

Following is a summary of material appearing in the April 15, 1972, issue of this publication:

The lead article on page one is entitled, "Need for New Leadership", and concerns a recent trip to South Africa by ROY WILKINS, Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. This article bitterly attacks WILKINS for not having denounced racial separation in South Africa while in that Country. It includes the statement that WILKINS "--- defended the imperialist role of American businesses which reap great profits through robbing the riches of South Africa, propping up the illegal minority white apartheid regime and totally brutalizing the African and colored populations.

EFFORTS TO ORGANIZE NONPROFESSIONAL WORKERS, LOUISE OBICI MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
SUFFOLK, VIRGINIA

Reference is made to memorandum from the Norfolk Office of the FBI dated November 4, 1969.

On November 12, 1969, [REDACTED] advised that since November 3, 1969, the situation in the Suffolk-Nansemond County, Virginia, area pertaining to the efforts of Local 26, Distributive Workers of America Union, Suffolk, Virginia, to be recognized by the Louise Obici Memorial Hospital has remained calm and no acts of violence have occurred. b7D

[REDACTED] stated that neither Reverend Ralph Abernathy, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, (SCLC), nor any other high official of the SCLC has appeared in Suffolk, Virginia, in connection with instant matter and, therefore, there has been no confrontation with the police. GA

[REDACTED] advised that Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) had appeared in Suffolk, Virginia, on November 6, 1969, at which time he had spoken before approximately 300 people, primarily Negroes, at the Metropolitan Baptist Church in support of the efforts of Local 26 to be recognized by hospital officials. Wilkins stated that the Negroes had no quarrel with the Chief of Police or law enforcement officers, and likewise did not have any quarrel with the local Hospital Board, the Board of Supervisors of Nansemond

County or the Sheriff of that county. Wilkins stated that the complaint was with the system in which the Negro laborer has not found his place. [REDACTED] stated that Wilkins had flown into Tidewater, Virginia, shortly before his speech and left immediately thereafter. There were no incidents as a result of this meeting or Wilkins' speech. b2 b7D

[REDACTED] stated negotiations had been conducted between union officials and hospital officials during the past ten days; however, these negotiations had not resulted in any agreement. [REDACTED] stated that hospital officials still are not willing to recognize the union as representing the non-professional workers; however, according to recent articles appearing in local newspapers, the union appears to feel that the hospital has recognized the union inasmuch as they did negotiate or confer with them. Now the union is stressing the point that the hospital should re-hire all striking non-professional employees who have not returned to work at the hospital. [REDACTED] stated the hospital officials have agreed to place the names of all striking nonprofessional employees on the list of applicants at which time when positions open, consideration will be given to employing them equally with any other applicants.

[REDACTED] stated that a small number of pickets daily have picketed the hospital and all of these pickets are former employees who are striking at the hospital. The number of these employees has not been more than 18 or 20 on any given day.

[REDACTED] advised that a total of 50 stores had broken windows as a result of the disturbance which had occurred on October 22, 1969 in connection with the "Solidarity Day March". The total cost of damage was estimated at $12,925.50. This also included the automobile and truck windows which were either broken out by rocks or were shot out. It also included the police vehicles and fire trucks which had broken windows.

THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY AND HISTORY

The essence, of the existence of MAN IN THIS COUNTRY NEEDS
The Black Panther Party is de- TO GET HIS FREEDOM RIGHT fined in the immediate need that NOW THAT THING SHOULD EX-something must be done to re- IST.

lieve us from the present oppressive social order. A series of activities spearheaded by the Party, ranging from the busting of Huey P. Newton on the streets with his liberation tool, 12 gauge shotgun, to the shoot out in L.A. where 11 nameless niggers held off 100 fascists, all living to tell about it and to talk about those pigs, both being a victory for black people! A victory over fear.

The focal point of party activities is affected by the knowledge that we are afforded very little time by the bloodsucking valtures, which on the other side of the coin tell us that, we must be doing something right. The quickenning sickening pace at which the fascists, are presently moving tells us that Black people must use whatever means at their disposal to secure revolutionary political power.

AND I DON'T SEE WHY ANY-BODY SHOULD BE SAD OR RE-GRETFUL IN ANY WAY, SHAPE OR FORM, IF SUCH DOES EXIST.
I RECALL IN 1959 WHENEVERY-BODY BEGAN TO TALK ABOUT THE MUSLIMS, ALL THE NEGRO LEADERS SAID NO SUCH GROUP EXISTED. IN FACT I RECALL ON THE MIKE WALLACE SHOW ROY
WILKINS WAS ASKED ABOUT THE BLACK MUSLIMS HE SAID
HE NEVER HEARD OF THEM AND THEN HE FLASHED A PIC-TURE OF HIM SHAKING HANDS WITH MR. ROY WILKINS U.S.A.

AND I THINK THAT ONE OF THE MISTAKES THAT OUR PEO-PLE MAKE IS, THEY'RE TOO QUICK TO APOLOGIZE FOR SOMETHING THAT MIGHT EX-IST THAT THE POWER STRUC-TURES FINDS DEPLORABLE OR FINDS DIFFICULT TO DIGEST.
AND WITHOUT EVEN REALIZING IT SOMETIMES WE TRY AND EVEN PROVE THAT IT DOESN'T EXIST. AND IF IT DOESN'T SOMETIMES IT SHOULD. I AM
ONE PERSON WHO BELIEVES THAT ANYTHING THE BLACK

AS FAR AS I'M CONCERNED,
EVERYBODY WHO HAS CAUGHT
THE SAME KIND OF HELL THAT I CAUGHT IS MY BLOOD BRO-THER. AND I HAVE PLENTY OF THEM. BECAUSE ALL OF US HAVE CAUGHT THE SAME HELL
SO THE QUESTION IS, IF THEY DON'T EXIST SHOULD THEY EXIST. NOT DO THEY EXIST, SHOULD THEY EXIST? DO THEY HAVE A RIGHT TO EXIST? AND SINCE WHEN SHOULD A MAN DE-NY THE EXISTANCE OF HIS BLOOD BROTHER. IT'S DENYING HIS FAMILY....

IF WE'RE GOING TO TALK A-BOUT POLICE BRUTALITY. IT'S BECAUSE POLICE BRUTALITY
EXISTS. WHY DOES IT EXIST
BECAUSE OUR PEOPLE IN THIS PARTICULAR SOCIETY LIVE IN A POLICE STATE, A BLACK MAN
IN AMERICA LIVES IN A POLICE
STATE. HE DOESN'T LIVE IN ANY DEMOCRACY. HE LIVES IN A POLICE STATE. THAT'S WHAT IT IS, THAT'S WHAT HARLEM IS...

Malcolm X

The shock troops of racist America have now developed to the point that their murderous, stark naked terror in the eyes of all is the standard. It is no longer shocking.
Pigs in N.Y.C. are now wearing "Pigs are beautiful" sweatshirts, failing to recognize that the more they endorse it, the clearer it can be seen. It's not shocking after all, New York is the capital of Babylon. 28 dead Black brothers illustrate the affects of such lies, that pigs are not beautiful.

The racist dog cops, don't know that there will always be worse or more descriptive terms which could easily be applied to his notorious nature.

Ask Fred Hampton, or brother
Mark Clark if pigs are beautiful.
Beautiful pigs have murdered Black people ever since we have had he misfortune of being stolen and brought here. "Black is beautiful"

cause the statement "Black is beautiful" has never been known to open open gates, Huey still is not free. Black is beautiful never secured us our liberation we still are not free. By that same token "Black is Beautiful" has never shown that we will be free from the painful unwanted existence of the racist dogs. It has not offed any pigs. The level of the broad masses of Black people is the only correct time clock for revolutionary activity. Babylon has shown us that as high as the level of the people goes, the level of oppression by the pigs goes that much higher. Armed resistance must be the order of the day on all levels. In our short three and one half years of existence we have made an important impression upon Babylonian politics, and racist oppression, never equaled in American history. The boiling point of the meltingpot came when Black men dared to arm themselves, in total defiance of the criminal power structure. Huey P. Newton is our personification of revolutionary historical development. He is the clearest example of correct revolutionary activity and we must do as he taught us to do. We must follow the correct analysis because we know that he is right.

BY ANY MEANS NECESSARY

Mumia

Our emphasis is on the racist Connecticut courts, where racist America hopes to conduct an 1819 style lynching, staged for Chairman Bobby Seale - 1970 - in the corrupt seduced name of justice. That in the historical experiences of Black people in Babylon we have continually failed to receive justice. "Just Ice".

10 million Black caged souls are the present victims of the universal war, thief, and hypocrisy. Domestic imperialism equals fascism. There were 30 million Black growing Panthers, before there was the Black Panther Party.

Denmark Vesey was a Panther. Marcus Garvey was a Panther. El Hajj Malik Shabazz - Brother Malcolm was indeed a Panther and in the end Martin Luther King became an uptight black cat.

The Black Panther Party is an organizational manifestation of the teachings of Brother Malcolm X; it is the demand of our people for an immediate end to cattle prods, water hoses, vicious service revolvers bent on the destruction of a race. The Black Panther Party is the practice of what Brother Malcolm preached, and no one can change that. The present has created us, and the present as Brother Randy Williams has said, need only to unleash the Black Kamikazi!

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are five copies of the May, 1972 issue of the Black News.

Analysis of Contents

The May, 1972 issue of the Black News consists of 32 pages of comments, illustrations, and a variety of advertisements from Black business establishments.

The Black News magazine bears no masthead but on Page 4 it is self-described as a "Black nationalist publication", 10 Claver Place, Brooklyn, New York, telephone number 636-9400.

It is noted that telephone number 636-9400 is listed to African American Student Association, 10 Claver Place, Brooklyn, New York, whose telephone bills are paid by Youth in Action, 1180 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, New York, as of 1972. Youth in Action is an anti-poverty program.

Pages 1 and 2 contain an article by EUGENE A. PAUL, captioned "Young, Gifted, and Black But Their Souls' Not Hardly Intact". This article seems to find that generation after generation of the Black people seem to be no more prepared for the future than the generation that passed.
It states that the anti-poverty programs and extended welfare is used only to cool the revolutionary zeal among Black youths.
Malcontents would get $40.00 a week to hang around store fronts and take dope. Organized groups of youths that are threatening drug pushers with bodily harm are trying to solve the drug problem, especially among youths. They are taking the law into their own hands. The answer to where the Black youths are heading is more of a question of what are we doing now with our own children. Youths

NY
Another article on Page Twelve states that the Triangle Shoe Store on Fulton Street in Brooklyn will soon close but two other stores are still open. The article continues we will get them soon. "Triangle sent a cream puff imitation Puerto Rican with a Jewish wife, (HERMAN BADILLO) to check out if Black News gets funds from Washington. That pig was snooping around seeing if the News is funded. (We're Not Funded You Fink)". Another article on Page Twelve states "Interested in a free college scholarship call Sister JEANETTE ADAMS at NSSFNS and ask about the interviews being held on Saturday, May 6th. Not that you can learn anything but maybe you will get a chance to travel and that in itself is an education. Then, when you get on campus agitate, educate, and organize blood (us) like mad."

On Page 15 is the magazine editorial. This article states that the "African nationalist too long has remained aloof and alienated from the Black masses". The article points out that if the average Black person does not go along with a so-called Black nationalist, he is called a nigger Tom, or Whitey lover. Some Black nationalists have even called for this "niggers" death. If the Black nationalist would take time to think about it and study the Black masses, he would find great majority of the Black people are concerned with their own day to day survival.

The African nationalist who has made no inroad with the Black masses could never be elected since Blacks are faithful to politicians coming up for a re-election despite their records of doing absolutely nothing for the Black people. Therefore, a Black nationalist who is attempting to help his people cannot help them by revolutionary methods and cannot help them by attempting to be elected but first must organize an African nationalist party, that is, on the ballot as a result of legitimate petitions by the people. There is no reason why a Black

ARTICLE

17. ~~*Row Doesn't Care~~, in which there are quotations from a pamphlet ~~*Who Cares~~, which is described as a publication of Black Sash, a liberal South African women's organization, edited by ~~SARAH JONKAR~~. The booklet is concerned with conditions of African women in South Africa and the difficulty facing working women, mothers and people on pensions. According to the article the pamphlet asserts that a stable family life will never be realized in South Africa until the apartheid policies are changed.

The article claims that the white racist regime in South Africa is supported by the investment of large corporations mainly from the United States and England. It goes on to criticize ~~ROD WILKINS~~ of the NAACP for statements he made about a recent trip to Africa in which he said that Africans would be worse off if American corporations pull out of Africa.

"Triple Jeopardy" claims that the large corporations are exploiting the African workers and that once the working people overthrow the white minority rule and replace it with a government controlled by the laboring class the exploitation will end.

WILKINS is attacked as a "dangerous enemy of both the African and the Afro-American", as well as an apologist for United States imperialism in South Africa.

It claims that no country in the world is safe from imperialist intrigue, pressures, and subversion as long as imperialism under any guise is left in the world.

This issue contains a poem by ~~ALTA CHRISTIAN~~ entitled ~~*Sisters Work is Never Done~~.

black community to combat a white racist power structure.

The paper stated that some of the black leaders were charging that the Police Department used excessive force in making arrests on November 21, 1969, and that the Board of Education had agreed to three separate actions which would give Negro leaders a greater voice in the administration of Memphis Public Schools, namely, to appoint two Negro advisors to the board; to work for legislation that would provide for Negro representation on the board and a study of the school system's administrative structure to be made with the goal of appointing a Negro Assistant Superintendent and a Negro Coordinator, and that advisors to make this study would be appointed by December 1, 1969.

The paper reported that Roy Wilkins, International Executive Secretary of NAACP, while passing through Memphis, on November 22, 1969, had "expressed confidence in the Negro leadership of the NAACP in Memphis."

The paper stated that Jesse Epps, International Representative of AFSCME denied that the ending of the school issue would hurt his campaign against St. Joseph Hospital in which he was seeking recognition of AFSCME. He said that until this time his union had put a higher priority on the educational issue than on the St. Joseph strike.

Mr. Epps accused the Memphis Police Department of excessive force in effecting November 21, 1969, arrests. The paper quoted the Memphis Police Director Frank C. Holloman as stating that the police had movies and pictures of students arming themselves with bricks, rocks and bottles during the demonstration activities, particularly on November 21, 1969, described above, and that when orders [REDACTED] that on September 6, 1970 there were about 2,000 persons present for the meeting. Jesse Jackson spoke and his speech was reported well by the Atlanta paper. Roy Innis spoke for education of, for and by blacks. He said Roy Wilkins and Whitney Young were hurting the movement. U

Workshop attended was the Political Liberation which has been attended by some six hundred persons. Nothing concrete has been decided except that a 25-man committee is being appointed to further study the problems brought up at the Congress. U

[REDACTED] advised that all is quiet and nothing has gone as scheduled at the Congress of African Peoples, September 7, 1970. Workshops were to submit results and conclusion at 2:00 P. M., but as of 3:50 P. M. have not done so. U

Dr. V. Harding is hosting the shows today and F. Lewson has introduced speakers. U

Julian Bond spoke about the cost of living being higher than ever. He also talked some of the intimidation of the blacks and that the FBI and its Director are intimidating Martin Luther Kings, Jr.'s widow and children. He referred to the Director of the FBI as a "Little Faggot". U

Other countries represented were Rhodesia by a female and Angola by a male. U

The most spirited speech today was given by Roosevelt Douglas, who offered comments identical to those mentioned in the workshop pertaining to the United States' involvement in the wars. These wars are financial in basis and are anti-black. U

GENERAL JOHN N. MITCHELL BEFORE
THE DELTA COUNCIL, DELTA STATE COLLEGE, CLEVELAND, MISSISSIPPI,
MAY 19, 1970

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] the main purpose behind the picketing of the Attorney General was to create an issue with which to start the NAACP's summer activities.

[REDACTED]

The following article which appeared in the May 1, 1970, edition of the Greenville, Mississippi, daily newspaper, The Delta Democrat Times, stated Henry had written to national civil rights figures inviting them to come to Cleveland "for a demonstration of civil disobedience against Mr. Mitchell's presence there":

Mitchell visit rapped

By JACK NELSON
The Los Angeles Times

WASHINGTON—Mississippi civil rights leaders Thursday launched a campaign for a massive demonstration to protest a scheduled speech by Atty. Gen. John Mitchell to the Delta Council—the epitome of the state's upper-crust white society.

Aaron E. Henry, Mississippi NAACP president said he had failed in quiet efforts to persuade Mitchell not to address the Chamber of Commerce-type organization, which Henry branded "segregationist and racist."

A spokesman for the attorney general said Mitchell does not consider the organization to be racially exclusive and plans to make the speech at its annual meeting on May 19 in Cleveland, Miss.

In letters mailed to other civil rights figures Thursday, Henry accused some Delta Council members of supporting private schools to thwart public school desegregation.

Among those he is inviting to Cleveland are Roy Wilkins, the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, Whitney Young, Bayard Rustin and A. Philip Randolph.

Henry wrote that he was asking national church and civil rights leaders, as well as some political leaders, to convene in Cleveland on May 18 and 19 "for a demonstration of civil disobedience against Mr. Mitchell's presence here."

For years national political figures journeyed to Cleveland to speak at the council's annual meeting. It was there on May 8, 1947, for example, that then-

Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson first mentioned the European recovery program that a bit later was unfolded by Secretary of State George C. Marshall and became known as the Marshall plan. In his book, "Present at the Creation" Acheson wrote of the Delta Council meeting:

"Once a year the Delta Council meets on the tree-shaded lawn of the teachers college at Cleveland, bringing families and relatives with them to discuss their own area's interests and problems and to hear about the great world to which historically their products have gone. Those most immediately concerned listen to the speaker in the large gymnasium of the college. His words are carried to many more thousands on the surrounding lawn while they eat sandwiches, drink pop, and keep an eye on the sleeping children. The scene is an easy-going, good-natured, shirt-sleeved, thoroughly American one. . ."

By the 1960s, however, the heat generated by the civil rights movement persuaded national politicians that the scene might not be so easy-going and they stopped addressing the council. One of the last invited was Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman. A former council official recalled that "Freeman was supposed to come at about the time the freedom rides started and he suddenly decided he had to inspect the cranberry crop somewhere and couldn't come."

For more than two months Henry, a long-time civil rights leader, tried to convince Mitchell that lending the prestige of the attorney general's office to the Delta Council function would buoy segregationist sentiment.

After Henry first protested, Morris Lewis, Jr. of Indianola council president, wrote him a letter saying that if the council's meeting is all-white "It will be only because no Negroes want to attend. At our annual meetings in the past Negroes have attended and at no time were they denied admittance. . . The Delta Council has never had any restriction on Negro membership."

A spokesman for Mitchell said the attorney general, after receiving a copy of Lewis' letter, decided the council was not racially exclusive.

A former council official who has been a member for more than 20 years told the Los Angeles Times, "I've never seen a black face in the audience at one of our meetings. Negroes are not excluded by the by-laws, but they aren't included as members. It's just like Jews are not excluded by our country club's by-laws, but they're not admitted as members."

Council President Lewis, who is Jewish said in an interview that he financially supports a private school at Indianola. He said he also has supported public schools.

He said he does not know how many of the 18-county council's 4,000 members are Negroes "because our membership cards don't show race, but I recognize one or two names as friends of mine who are Negroes."

"I can say uncategorically I have seen them quite a few times at the meetings, Lewis said. "I can't recall whether I saw an the last year or the year before, but I was told by people I know that they saw some last year."

The centerfold of the September 26, 1970, issue of "The Black Panther" contained an article by NEWTON captioned, "Open Letter To Roy Wilkins".

ROY WILKINS is a national leader of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

The complete text of WILKINS' article referred to by NEWTON is attached as an enclosure to this report.

Following is NEWTON's article:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

OPEN LETTER TO ROY WILKINS

WE RECOGNIZE THAT AMERICA IS NO LONGER A NATION BUT AN EMPIRE AND THE SAME TROOPS WHO OCCUPY A KILL AT JACKSON STATE, BRIMINGHAM, CHICAGO AND NEW ORLEANS ARE ALSO OCCUPYING AND KILLING IN MY LAI, IN PHNOM PENH AND MANY OTHER PLACES.

by the MINISTER OF DEFENSE, HUEY P. NEWTON

It is clear that your published criticism of my statement regarding the commitment of Black Panthers to the revolutionary struggle of the National Liberation Front in Vietnam was written for the comfort and aid of the oppressors in this nation rather than for the oppressed. I want to take this opportunity to make my intent clear to the oppressed of this wretched land.

I am very grateful for the support and encouragement I received from many thousands of Black people during my 33 months of prison. I always found the reports of their faith and confidence in me and their wish to see me free a great source of strength during that sojourn (to use for a while). My release was a joyous event to me and the people and I thank them for freeing me.

3. I am also aware that the enemies of the people--that of the ruling circles of America--are bent on various ways to see me dead or crippled and will go to any lengths to accomplish their purpose. This is not because I am a Jew because of the goals and the goals of the Black Panther Party. I am a Jew totally committed to the goals of those who are fighting for the liberation of my people by almost any means necessary. I have changed my position on the Civil Rights Movement. I have changed my position on my statement that I was not a Jew. My priorities are the same as the priorities of the Jewish people. I am interested as much as the Jewish people in the liberation of my people.

Black, who has the ear of the ruling circle, and your obvious class interests and identification with the ruling circle. Your insidious white baiting is also a reflection of self-interest, lack of understanding, and blatant black racism. Should you continue with attacks for the benefit of our movement, you will only reveal yourself to be a treacherous enemy of the people who misleads them by placing self-interest above the collective needs and interests of the Black happen-proletariat
America's wretched of the earth.

[illegible]

to have some need for dreams--of self-healing.

The Black Panther Party puts the struggle on such a level and gives analyses and answers to this madness so that it is no longer necessary for the people to accept a dream. We encourage the people to strive for real goals--survival, liberation, and freedom.

The priorities of the Black Panther Party are in full view of all Black people in this land. Our first priority is survival and we place this in the context of the needs of the people. Therefore our programs have helped people to survive through Breakfast for School Children, Health Clinics, and newly-developing programs such as Free Clothing, Free Shoes, Loans to Welfare Mothers, and Free Buses to Prisons for Families of Inmates. The people have rallied to these programs because they meet their basic and daily needs. The priorities of the Black Panther Party are well stated in our ten-point program which is published weekly in our paper.

We recognize that our oppression is supported and maintained by the fire-power utilized by the agents of the omnipotent administrators. We recognize that the small ruling class which exploits us here finds it to their economic advantage to exploit the people of distant lands. We recognize that America is no longer a nation but an empire and the same troops who beat down and kill at Jackson State, Birmingham, Chicago and New Orleans are also beating down and killing in my land. We recognize that the same ruling class which exploits the military and government here also exploits the military and government in South Vietnam and Cambodia.

America is World Enemy #1 and the military is its strong arm. We feel that it is imperative (necessary) to defend people of color when they are attacked by American troops in other lands. These attacks are designed to maintain the profit-mongering of the ruling class and their carbon lackeys. Black people in America have long been affected in a negative way by America's war--of imperialism. The Black Panther Party now understands that it is going on and is moving to develop appropriate responses. We are internationalists because our struggle must proceed on many fronts. While we feed and clothe the poor at home we must meet and attack the oppressor wherever he may be found.

It is clear, however, that you are also an internationalist, but in support of imperialism and at the expense of Black people who contribute so much to you. Recently you signed a full page advertisement in the New York Times urging this government to send jets to Israel. We challenge you to show the people how your support of this is designed to improve their lot rather than your own self-interests. That advertisement cost several thousand dollars of somebody's money which could have been put to good use by those very Black people you accuse of not knowing. Why do you support imperialism and ignore the reality which indicates so clearly that the only solution for Blacks are caused by a complex intermingling of capitalist and imperialist racism? All of us must be dealt with at the same time. We are all oppressed. We all have the need to attack and that this response must be a response to the oppressor and not to the oppressed.

people 100 miles from the United States that he downgrades the suffering of his own people in the slums of Los Angeles or in the shacks in rural Alabama?

Of course, Huey knows about this suffering. It was the resentment over this treatment that led, at least in part, to the founding of the Black Panther Party. But Huey, for all his talents, is also a revolutionary. He believes that the Black people are following a line that is leading them toward an improvement in their condition. They are worried about keeping their jobs, but they are moved but little by the sight of Black Americans copped up on Madison Avenue in Chicago or on Auburn Avenue in Atlanta.

What about the Black migrant workers in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York who told smart and dedicated Huey Newtons to let them out of the misery of their camps?

And there are the nearly two million Black school children who are being crippled by the inferior school systems perpetuated by politicians who are juggling desegregation and quality education.

They should know that the Black people of Washington, D.C., the nation's capital, are lined up in their homes each night, battered over robberies, rapes and murders. In all cities, big and little, coalitions and officials and just plain Black citizens are battling for jobs and paychecks.

They need low-income housing in suburbs. Mississippi has just reapportioned several districts and wants to reduce the Black vote by requiring re-registration. In short, as the late Bert Williams, the Black comedian, once said, "we need everything from an overcoat in the Selma-Dallas County area. The Reverend F. D. Reese of the Dallas County Voters League and such other moderate leaders, such as Reverend L. D. Shirley Mesher, a white civil rights worker, and Clarence Williams. This faction heads a small minority of young militant Negroes. The community support and political power in the black community appears to be centered with the more moderate group. Roy Wilkins, President of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is scheduled to speak at Selma University Auditorium, Selma, Alabama, under the auspices of the local chapter of the NAACP.

In this state, a Newton top priority plan for a company of Black American soldiers to fight for the Viet Cong generates only damp enthusiasm. Newton, an attractive and responsible young man, is described by one news dispatch as being the darling of White supremacist politicians.

Reverend C. A. Lett, Pastor of the Greene Street, Baptist Church and Treasurer of Selma University, made arrangements for the talk due to the dissatisfaction of local Negroes with what they have classified as "irresponsible direct action" activities by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) leadership. A threat by the local SCLC to boycott and demonstrate in protest at the visit of Wilkins has been dismissed by the black community as just being a threat with no substance to it.

My memorandum October 16, 1963, recommended that information about the participation of two Wisconsin Communist Party, USA, district functionaries in a Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) picket line in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, be furnished, through Crime Records Division, to Mr. James Farmer and Mr. Roy Wilkins, national functionaries of CORE and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, respectively. The purpose would be to warn those officials of the action of Communist Party members in participating in civil rights demonstrations and possibly illicit from them a public statement repudiating such Party support. This recommendation was approved by the Director.

Mr. DeLoach inquired about the possibilities of giving Mr. Farmer the names of the communists.

This is to advise that the two above referred to Party members are [REDACTED] b7C
The fact that they are district functionaries and participated in the picketing in Milwaukee is publicly known and may be given to Mr. Farmer by Mr. DeLoach without jeopardizing any Bureau sources or informants.

Two situations concerning the Communist Party (CP), USA, and the civil rights movement are illustrated below with two suggestions which may be instrumental in curbing to some extent the Party's activities in that movement.

1. Two Wisconsin CPUSA District functionaries joined a Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) picket line recently in Milwaukee and may do so again in the future. No indication CORE knew of their CP association. (A Milwaukee newspaper source is being notified so any future CP member appearance on that picket line can be publicized).
2. The CPUSA continues, as it has since its inception, its determined appeals to the Negro in America. Through its press, notably "The Worker," the CP is extensively publicizing the current racial unrest to show its alleged concern for the Negro.

OBSERVATIONS:

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED

If CP members have joined CORE picket lines in Milwaukee they may join them in other cities. It follows that CP members may join any similar activity by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), which, along with CORE, is very active in the civil rights movement.

Since the Bureau has excellent contacts through James Farmer in CORE and Roy Wilkins in the NAACP, as well as others in the news media field, it is suggested that:

1. Crime Records Division advise Mr. Farmer and Mr. Wilkins of the Milwaukee incident. (This will not compromise any Bureau sources or informants). It could be tactfully suggested to those contacts that they may wish to make a public statement repudiating any CP support of their organizations and organizational activities.

2. Any resulting statement could then be publicized through the Bureau's news media contacts including the Negro press.

This two-phase plan would vividly demonstrate to the American public that the civil rights movement is a definite CP target. It would further show that the Negro is aware of the CP aims and is attempting to resist them. Public disavowal of CP support by Negro spokesmen could be a serious blow to the Party.

RECOMMENDATION:

Forward to Mr. DeLoach for his consideration of the two suggestions itemized above.

NOT RECORDED

176 APR 14 1972

70 APR 11 1972

These efforts are getting substantial support from segments of the white Protestant church establishment whose mission boards have experienced first hand the inhumanities of regimes based on racial discrimination. A press conference here on Wednesday at the Church Center of the United Nations, Imamu Baraka, formerly known as Leroy Jones, announced plans for marches and demonstrations in Washington to celebrate "African Liberation Day" on May 25.

A Washington-based organization called the African Liberation Day Co-ordinating Committee has been established to enlist participation of blacks throughout the United States and the West Indies and to work out details of the day itself.

A week ago, a two-day conference was held in Washington on the United States and Southern Africa. It drew more than 200 persons—representatives of churches, human rights organizations, labor unions and individuals who are active in Africa.

A stated purpose of the conference was to explore ways in which concerned persons and groups in this country could provide support of various kinds for the African liberation movements.

According to the plans announced here, the African Liberation Day observance in Washington will include demonstrations in front of the Portuguese and South African embassies and the Rhodesian Information Center.

Baraka also promised demonstrations to dramatize "black peoples' disgust with American foreign policy toward Africa." The United States, he charged, "one of the chief oppressors of Africans in the world."

What is significant about the African Liberation Day Co-ordinating Committee is the spectrum of black leadership it brings together. Members of its steering committee run the gamut from churchmen to Black Panthers, from congressmen to avowed Communists.

The list includes the Rev. Ralph Abernathy of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; Amiri Baraka, now on trial for conspiracy to murder and kidnap; Reps. John Conyers (D-Mich.) and Charles Diggs (D-Mich.); Stokely Carmichael; Del. Walter Ransom (D-D.C.); the Rev. L. Martin Luther King, Jr., executive of the National Council of Churches;

Rep. Brown, now in New York jail awaiting trial for robbery; the Rev. Dr. Charles Shivers of the World Council of Churches; and Black Panther leader Huey Newton.

One name conspicuously absent from the list is that of longtime civil rights leader Roy Wilkins of the NAACP. Wilkins created consternation among liberationists in this country earlier this week when he said during a visit to South Africa that black workers there would suffer economic hardship if American goods were pulled out.

In a prepared statement at the press conference, Baraka unleashed a scathing attack on Wilkins using phrases like "ghettoism is responsible," "petit bourgeois" and "puppet head of the NAACP." He accused Wilkins of being a traitor to the majority of the black world.

Baraka, one of the organizers of the recent National Black Political Convention in Gary, Ind., acknowledged at the press conference that the African Liberation Day observance was intended as much to build unity among American blacks as to influence foreign policy. The Wilkins incident is illustrative of the lack of unity even among the relatively

The July 5, 1969 issue of "The Black Panther", Black Community News Service, which is the Black Panther Party newspaper, on page 5 reprinted a telegram from Roy Wilkins from New York to Bobby Seale, Chairman, Central Committee, BPP, Berkeley, California. Wilkins as Chief Executive Officer of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), requested a private meeting with officers of the Central Committee of the BPP and particularly with Bobby Seale as Chairman of this Committee. The same page of the BPP newspaper July 5, 1969 issue contained a reply to Wilkins from Bobby Seale, Chairman of the Central Committee, BPP. This telegram stated that the BPP would only meet with Wilkins in a public meeting in West Oakland.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP) - INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS - CANADA

Sources of the San Francisco Office have advised they knew of no plans on the part of the Black Panther Party (BPP) to establish a branch anywhere in Canada. Likewise they knew of no plans for reported regrouping or retraining.

The Black Panther Party (BPP) is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It formerly advocated the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government. Since early 1971, it has preached a policy of "survival pending revolution."

The "Los Angeles Times" of August 6, 1972, contained an interview of BPP leader Huey P. Newton, who claimed the BPP was very much alive with chapters "all over the country". No mention was made of any activity or interest outside the USA.

Recent issues of the Black Panther newspaper, as in the past, continued to refer to Party activities across the USA, but no mention has been made of any interest in affairs in Canada.

The chief thrust of the BPP at this period is in community political actions.

Current issues of the Party newspaper always mention that Bobby Seale, Chairman of the BPP, is running for Mayor of Oakland, California, in April, 1973, and urge its readers to register to vote. (See Black Panther issue of September 30, 1972).

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency nor duplicated within your agency.

OK
~~Roy Wilkins~~, head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), in the Oakland "Tribune" of October 3, 1972, claimed that the BPP was "not the bogeyman" it was often charged to be, and now had joined the NAACP in following the strategy of working within the system by exercising power at the ballot box.

The Registrar of Voters, Alameda County, California, in October, 1972, advised that the BPP had furnished 105 out of 145 Deputy Registrars to work in the voter registration just recently closed.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals, in a decision rendered in a case involving a member of the BPP, dated June 30, 1972, called the BPP "a dissident political party".

Chairman Bobby Seale was featured in a five part statement in San Francisco radio station KCBS beginning August 7, 1972. This series featured the "evolution" of the BPP from a revolutionary organization to one working within the system, under the first two paragraphs of the Declaration of Independence.

The prime interest in "The Black Panther" issue of November 4, 1972, was a printed guide to the California residents on how to vote on the various state propositions.

Enclosed for the Bureau are three copies of a

 ██████████ CECIL POOLE, United States Attorney, Northern District of California, San Francisco, California, dated April 23, 1969. This letter sets forth the details of the attack on his wife, ██████████ at California

 Unknown Subjects.

In this letter, ██████████ alleges a breach of his wife's civil rights "contrary to both the Public Accommodations Act and the Civil Rights Act."

In view of the fact that the Public Accommodations
 Section of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Public Facility Section under this same Act do not cover the above situation and it appears that this is a clear case of assault, San Francisco is taking no further action at this time, UACB.

The following letter was received by the San Francisco Office of the FBI from CECIL POOLE, United States Attorney, Northern District of California, San Francisco, California, on April 28, 1969:

"April 23, 1969

"CECIL POOLE, Esquire
"U. S. Attorney
"Northern District of California
"Federal Office Building
"San Francisco, California

"Dear Mr. POOLE:

"Yesterday, my wife, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] at the State College at Hayward, was savagely assaulted by black students, or ostensible students, in Meiklejohn Hall on the campus. She was on her way to an announced open meeting featuring ROY WILKINS of the NAACP. Unknown to her, the meeting had been taken over by members of the Black Students Union, who had thrown out white students and others. She entered, stood in the rear of the auditorium-sized classroom for a moment, letting her eyes adjust from the sunlight. A group of six or eight young blacks, pretty obviously there as a goon squad, crossed the rear of the room and told her to get out. She said that she was there for the meeting. Thereafter, and all within a few minutes, she was seized and punched, dragged stunned to the door, and thrown out bodily, leaving a trail of blood.

"Her injuries include two black eyes, bruises and marks where she was held while being punched, four stitches to close the wound in her forehead, separation of the cartilage from the bone of her nose, small wounds where her glasses had been smashed to bits against her face, and glass particles in her right eye. She staggered to a room on the next floor, still bleeding copiously, where staff members gave her assistance and summoned the school doctor and nurse. After being worked over for fifteen or twenty minutes, she was able to make a telephone call to me, to get to the police station in Hayward, and thereafter to the Kaiser Hospital for further treatment.

"The college administration has directed Hayward police to stay off campus and has kept the campus security force, made up largely of untrained older men, small and under orders not to aid staff or faculty members attacked as my wife was. The campus is a no man's land, effectively beyond the control of civil authority.

"I should point out that both my wife and I are liberal Democrats, who have worked for minority rights for thirty years. The attack was unprovoked, without prelude, irrational, savage, nihilistic, and on a purely racist ground. The entire course of action was clearly a breach of her civil rights, contrary to both the Public Accommodations Act and the Civil Rights Act. I ask that you take action immediately, before the campus is overwhelmed. The time is Germany 1934.

"Respectfully yours,

[REDACTED] Hayward, California, who is conducting investigation along with [REDACTED] in an attempt to identify Unknown Subjects who committed battery on [REDACTED] on April 22, 1969, at CSCH, furnished the following information on April 28, 1969, which was obtained from [REDACTED] and interview with [REDACTED]

ROY WILKINS, leader of the NAACP, was a paid guest speaker at CSCH on April 22, 1969, with the approval of CSCH Administration. The CSCH BSU received approval under CSCH rules to reserve a room from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. on April 22, 1969, at Alexander Meiklejohn Hall and only BSU members and their guests were permitted to attend. The purpose of this request was to permit the BSU to have a private audience with WILKINS. This audience was held as planned. [REDACTED] sometime during April 22, 1969, telephonically contacted [REDACTED] CSCH Art Department, who was handling some of WILKINS' appointments, and/or [REDACTED] and was advised by one or both of these individuals that WILKINS would hold a general assembly after 3:00 p.m. at Alexander Meiklejohn Hall. Based on this, [REDACTED] and some of her students walked into the above room two or three minutes after 3:00 p.m. at which time she was attacked by three or four unknown Negroes. The individuals who attacked her struck her in the face, driving her eyeglasses into her forehead and the bridge of her nose, necessitating four stitches to close the tear in the skin.

As early as the fall of 1963, autonomous Negro students' organizations were properly registered and recognized as student organization on campuses in the Northern California area. The purposes of the organizations were generally given at that time as follows: "To engage in study of Negro life and history, to foster the growth and dissemination of Negro cultural contributions and to engage in projects which the membership considers to be in the interest of the Negro community."

At the outset, the organizations appeared to be purely cultural. As militant Negroes became affiliated with the organizations, the names of the organizations were changed to Black Students Union (BSU) in about 1965.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE
STATE CONVENTION, HATTIESBURG,
MISSISSIPPI, NOVEMBER 6-9, 1969

On October 8, 1969, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised a representative of the FBI that the State Convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), State of Mississippi, would be held in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, on November 6-9, 1969.

b7D [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

The convention will open on the evening of November 6, 1969, with a meeting of delegates at the Community Center, Hattiesburg, Mississippi. The business meetings of the convention will be held at Ebenezer Baptist Church, 908 East 8th Street, Hattiesburg, Mississippi. Anderson's 5/16/72 column reported the FBI is "conducting systematic surveillance of black leaders." Besides the individuals already described and explained above, he refers to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Jesse Jackson, Roy Wilkins, Bayard Rustin, Roy Innis, Dick Gregory, Eartha Kitt, and Mr. and Mrs. Ossie Davis.

Dr. Martin Luther ¹¹King, Jr. (100-106670). Because of communist influence of SCIC and King's reported close association with communists, investigation of him was conducted. The results were widely disseminated.

[REDACTED]

¹¹Roy Wilkins (62-78270). He has not been investigated by the FBI. Information he has furnished and from public sources has been accumulated. Upon request, information has been forwarded to The White House, State, Labor, Civil Service, USIA, the Department, and military intelligence.

Black Activists Are FBI Targets

By Jack Anderson

The FBI is conducting systematic surveillance of black leaders, who are guilty of nothing more serious than excessive political rhetoric.

Millions of dollars have been invested in the FBI's investigation of "racial matters." But our study of the secret files indicates that the investigation has been heavily one-sided. Only the most extreme white racists have come under FBI scrutiny, but almost every prominent black leader in the country has an FBI dossier in his name. Even congressmen and Nixon-Agnew supporters, if they're black, are regarded with suspicion by the FBI.

The list of black "subversives" includes such apostles of non-violence as the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., his wife, Coretta Scott King; the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy; Jesse Jackson, the handsome young "country preacher" who recently started a self-help group in Chicago; Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP); and Bayard Rustin, director of the A. Philip Randolph Institute.

The FBI has even zeroed in on President Nixon's most articulate black supporter, former CORE director Floyd McKissick Jr., whose political activities have been chronicled by the FBI in a fat file.

Now director of the new town of "Soul City," N.C., McKissick made headlines when he lambasted the Democratic Party for failing to deliver "on its promises." The Nixon administration, he said, has offered more than "just the rhetoric."

Like many a white politician, McKissick has jumped the political fence. For two years earlier, he had called Mr. Nixon "one of the nation's leading proponents of Law and Order — Fascist Style." McKissick's words were duly deposited in his bulging FBI dossier.

Secret Capitalist

Another entry, dated Jan. 13, 1970, is stamped "Secret—No Foreign Dissemination." One of the deep, dark secrets noted by FBI agent Thomas L. Beckwith was that McKissick "has made several speeches throughout the U.S. during 1969 wherein he advocated black capitalism..."

But far more grievous, McKissick, "in one speech stated the Black Panther Party should be supported."

FBI agents were also listening when McKissick at a black bash in Brooklyn "commented unfavorably on the fact that this affair was held in a church, since churches are among groups infiltrated by the FBI and Central Intelligence Agency which hold the blacks down."

The federal sleuths have also been poking their noses into McKissick's financial affairs. States one entry:

"Floyd McKissick, it was learned, had recently received check Number 2666 made out in his name and drawn against the account of the Louis M. Rabinowitz Foundation, Inc., in the amount of $2,500. This check was subsequently deposited to McKissick's account in the Freedom National Bank, Harlem, New York."

Mrs. King's Finances

The FBI has also been prying into Coretta Scott King's finances. When a documentary film about her late husband was appearing around the country, the top cops were busy counting receipts.

The movie's first run, says a confidential memo dated Aug. 5, 1970, "resulted in receipts in excess of $2,000,000. By arrangements made prior to March 24, 1970, by Coretta Scott King and officials of the SCLC the receipts for this movie were to be divided equally between King and the SCLC."

The finances of Roy Innis, successor to Floyd McKissick as chairman of CORE, have been meticulously catalogued, too. And Innis's file notes ominously that he has "attended marches to protest against the war in Vietnam..."

Ralph David Abernathy, successor to the martyred Dr. King, rates a file that would choke a hippopotamus. The FBI's investigators seem most intrigued over his troubles with his colleagues.

An FBI informant reported on March 8, 1970, for example that one colleague, Hosea Williams, "remarked to some associates he was rather concerned as to the cool and noticeably distant attitude recently displayed by... Abernathy."

Black artists, entertainers and sports figures, who speak up for their race, are also suspect. One of the thickest FBI files is devoted to former heavyweight champion Muhammad Ali. Actor singer Harry Belafonte and author James Baldwin are kept under surveillance, too.

The file on black comedian Dick Gregory could be measured by the pound. Author-actor-playwright Ossie Davis and his wife have been investigated numerous times. Singer Eartha Kitt is quoted as being opposed to statehood for Puerto Rico.

LOLA GRAHAM DU BOIS

President, Black Academy of Arts and Letters (BAAL), 475 Riverside Drive, New York City, to the Attorney General, United States Department of Justice, described BAAL as a nonprofit, nonpolitical organization founded to provide recognition and encouragement and incentive for those who have made a notable contribution to the interpretation and projection of the "Black experience in America". Further, the letter stated that the First Annual Meeting of BAAL would be held September 18-20, 1970, at which one of the activities was to be the establishment of a Hall of Fame honoring certain deceased Americans whose contributions and interpretation of the "Black experience" are universally recognized. It was stated that among those who had been elected to the Hall of Fame was Doctor W.E.B. Du Bois, described as a historian and sociologist. It was also stated that Shirley Graham Du Bois had been invited to be present and to receive the citation honoring her late husband. The letter requested that reconsideration be given to the application for a visa of Mrs. Du Bois to the end that she would be able to receive the citation at the First Annual Meeting of BAAL.

~~The INS~~ File concerning Du Bois disclosed that sixteen members of the United States Congress had had an interest in the visa case of Du Bois.

The INS File also revealed that the following other interested parties had had an interest in the ~~the~~ consideration of Du Bois' visa case:

Roy Wilkins, Executive Director, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), New York City. ny

E. Open Letter to Stokely Carmichael and Other Comments re Subject's Resignation from BPP

"The Black Panther" newspaper, issue of August 16, 1969, Page 5, contained an "Open Letter to Stokely Carmichael" from ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, Minister of Information, Black Panther Party, July, 1969. The letter indicates it is reprinted from Ramparts Magazine, and is as follows:

"Your letter of resignation as the Prime Minister of the Black Panther Party came, I think, about one year too late. As a matter of fact, since the day of your appointment to that position---February 17, 1968---events have proven that you were not cut out for the job in the first place. Even then it was clear that your position on coalition with revolutionary white organizations was in conflict with that of the Black Panther Party. But we thought that, in time, even you would be able to shake the SNCC paranoia about white control and get on with the business of building the type of revolutionary machinery that we need in the United States in order to unite all the revolutionary forces in the country to overthrow the system of Capitalism, Imperialism, and Racism.

"I know these terms are kicked around like lifeless bodies and that it is easy to allow the grisly realities behind them to become obscured by too frequent repetition. But when you see the squalor in which people live as a result of the policies of the exploiters, when you see the effects of exploitation on the emaciated bodies of little children, when you see the hunger and desperation, then these terms come alive in a new way. Since you've made this trip yourself and seen it all with your own eyes, you should know that suffering is color-blind, that the victims of Imperialism, Racism, Colonialism and Neo-colonialism come in all colors, and that they need a unity based on revolutionary principles rather than skin color.

"The other charges you make in your letter---about our new-found ideology, our dogmatism, our arm-twisting, etc.---seem to me to be of secondary importance, because, with the exception of the honorab~~le~~ Elijah Muhammad, you are the most dogmatic cat on the scene today, and I've never known you to be opposed to twisting arms or, for that matter, necks. In many ways your letter struck me as being an echo and rehash of the charges brought against the party by the bootlickers before the McClellan Committee. And since you chose this moment to denounce the party, we--and I am sure many other people outside the party---must look upon your letter in this light. The only point in your letter that I think is really you is the one about coalition with whites, because it has been this point on which our differences have turned from the very beginning.

"You have never been able to distinguish the history of the Black Panther Party from the history of the organization of which you were once the chairman---the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee. It is understandable that you can have such fears of black organizations being controlled, or partly controlled, by whites, because most of your fears in SNCC were spent under precisely those conditions. But the Black Panther Party has never been in that situation. Because we have never had to wrest control of our organization out of the hands of the whites, we have not been shackled with the type of paranoid fear that was developed by you cats in SNCC. Therefore we are able to sit down with whites and hammer out solutions to our common problems without trembling in our boots about whether or not we might get taken over in the process. It has always seemed to me that you belittle the intelligence of your black brothers and sisters when you constantly warn them that they had better beware of white folks. After all, you are not the only black person out of Babylon who has been victimized by white racism. But you sound as though you are scared of white people, as though you are still running away from the slave-catchers who will lay hands on your body and dump you in a bag.

"As a matter of fact, it has been precisely your nebulous enunciation of Black Power that has provided the power structure with its new weapon against our people. The Black Panther Party tried to give you a chance to rescue Black Power from the pigs who have seized upon it and turned it into the rationale for Black Capitalism. With James Farmer of the Nixon Administration to preside over the implementation of Black Capitalism under the slogan of Black Power, what value does that slogan now have to our people's struggle for liberation? Is denouncing the Black Panther Party the best you can do to combat this evil? I would think that your responsibility goes a little further than that. Even though you were right when you said that LBJ would never stand up and call for Black Power, Nixon has done so and he's bankrolling it with millions of dollars. So now your old Black Power buddies are cashing in on your slogan, in effect, your cry for Black Power has become the grease to ease the black bourgeoisie into the power structure.

WFO 100-43503

"By giving you the position of Prime Minister of the Black Panther Party, we were trying to rescue you from the black bourgeoisie that had latched on to your coattails and was riding you like a mule. Now they have stolen your football and run away for a touchdown: six points for Richard Milhouse Nixon.

"In February, 1968, at the Free Huey Birthday Rally in Oakland, California, where you made your first public speech after returning to the United States from your triumphant tour of the revolutionary countries of the Third World, you took the occasion to denounce the coalition that the Black Panther Party had made with the white Peace and Freedom Party. What you called for instead was a Black United Front and would unite all the forces in the black community from left to right, close ranks against the whites, and all go skipping off to freedom. Within the ranks of your Black United Front you wanted to include the Cultural Nationalists, the Black Capitalists, and the Professional Uncle Toms, even though it was precisely these three groups who were working to murder your (obscene) even before it broke wind. (Remember what Ron Karenga did to your meeting in Los Angeles?)

"You had great dreams in those days, Stokely, and your visions, on the top side, were heroic. On the bottom side, when it came to the details of reality, your vision was blind. You were unable to distinguish your friends from your enemies because all you could see was the color of the cat's skin. It was this blindness that led you to the defense of Adam Clayton Powell, that Jackal from Harlem, when he came under attack by his brother jackals in Congress. And it was this blindness that led you to the defense of that black cop in Washington, D. C., who was being (obscene) over by the whites above him in the Police Department for whom he carried his gun as he patrolled the black community. In short, your habit of looking at the world through black-colored glasses would lead you on the domestic level, to close ranks with such enemies of black people as James Farmer, Whitney Young, Roy Wilkins and Ron Karenga; and on the international level you would end up in the same bag with Papa Doc Duvalier, Joseph Mobutu, and Haile Selassie. Yes, we opposed that (obscene) then and we oppose it now even more strongly, especially since the Nixon Administration has stolen your program from you and, I think, included you out.

"And now your going to liberate Africa! Where are you going to start, Ghana? The Congo? Biafra? Angola? Mozambique? South Africa? If you are not aware of it, I think you should know that the brothers in Africa who are involved in armed struggle against the colonialists would like nothing better than for you to pick up your suitcase full of African souvenirs and split back for Babylon. They have never forgiven the fat-mouthing you did in Dar-es-Salaam when you presumed to tell them how to conduct their business. It seems to me that you are now trapped between the extremes of your own rhetoric. On the one hand, you have cut yourself off from the struggle in Babylon, and on the other hand, you are not about to become the Redeemer of Mother Africa.

"The enemies of black people have learned something from history even if you haven't, and they are discovering new ways to unite. One thing they know, and we know, that seems to escape you, is that there is not going to be any revolution or black liberation in the United States as long as revolutionary blacks, whites, and Mexicans, Puerto Ricans, Indians, Chinese, and Eskimos are unwilling to, or unable to unite into some functional machinery that can cope with the situation. Your talk and your fears about premature coalition are absurd, because no coalition against oppression by forces possessing revolutionary integrity can ever be premature. If anything, it is too late, because the forces of counterrevolution are sweeping the world, and this is happening precisely because in the past people have been united on a basis that perpetuates disunity among races and ignores basic revolutionary principles and analyses.

"You are peeved because the Black Panther Party informs itself with the revolutionary principles of Marxism-Leninism, but if you look around the world you will see that the only countries which have liberated themselves and managed to withstand the tide of the counterrevolution are precisely those countries that have strong Marxist-Leninist parties. All those countries that have fought for their liberation solely on the basis of nationalism have fallen victims to capitalism and neo-colonialism, and in many cases now find themselves under tyrannies equally as oppressive as the former colonial regimes.

"That you know nothing about the revolutionary process is clear; that you know even less about the United States and its people is clearer; and that you know still less about humanity than you do about the rest is even clearer. You speak about an 'undying love for black people.' An undying love for black people that denies the humanity of other people is doomed. It was an undying love of white people for each other which led them to deny the humanity of colored people and which has stripped white people of humanity itself. It would seem to me that an undying love for our people would, at the very least, lead you to a strategy that would aid our struggle for liberation instead of leading you into a coalition of purpose with the McClellan Committee in its attempt to destroy the Black Panther Party.

"Well, so long, Stokely, and take care. And beware of some white folks and of some black folks, because I assure you that some of both of them have teeth that will bite. Remember what Brother Malcolm said in his Autobiography: 'We had the best organization that the black man has ever had in the United States--and niggers ruined it!' POWER TO THE PEOPLE! ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, Minister of Information Black Panther Party, July, 1969."

BLACK REBELLIONS IN THE FLEET

Over thirty black seamen faced a variety of charges resulting from clashes aboard two US Navy ships—the aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk and the fleet oiler Massayampa, no whites were charged in either incident.

One account in the straight press claims that the situation on the Kitty Hawk stemmed out of an argument in an enlisted men's club in Subic Bay. On the night of October 11th supposedly there was a fight in a washroom of the club and it spread to the rest of the club involving about 25 black and white sailors, mainly from the Kitty Hawk. The fight was broken up and several blacks were arrested.

Those who were arrested were sent back to the ship and the ship sailed. One of the ship's higher ranking officers called in two of the black sailors who were arrested on shore for questioning. Eleven other black crewmen went along in an expression of solidarity. The two sailors who had been called in and their comrades left the interrogation session upset about being singled out. Later the same officer went outside to talk to the men and tried to calm the men down.

The group of about a dozen then left the mess deck and went to the hangar deck. The black sailors were just standing around talking in groups of threes and twos, however, the Marines guarding the planes on the hangar deck became uptight. The Marines tried to break up the group, which wasn't doing anything, with their guns.

That same night (Oct. 12) through the early morning hours the next day, fights broke out between a little over 100 black and white sailors, among the 4,935 man crew. The brass claimed that the fights which spread to various parts of the ship grew out of an initial fight in a dining hall. The fight left 46 crewmen injured - 40 whites and six blacks. Only 3 men were seriously injured. A large group of both black and white sailors were credited with breaking up the fights.

At least 25 black sailors have already been charged and two more might be. Twenty-one of the men were charged with both rioting and assault, and four were charged with just one of the two counts.

The black sailors on the Kitty Hawk have received support from several black

Some trials are already under way at sea for those sailors who decided to go ahead with them. In brothers could all face special court-martials.

In another incident eleven black sailors were detained and 6 were formally charged for being involved in a clash aboard the fleet oiler Massayampa while it was in Subic Bay. In the incident four white crewmen were slightly injured. Five crewmembers were charged with assault and will receive special court-martials. One sailor was charged with using provoking words and will get a summary.

After these two incidents and others Navy race relations specialists were forced to admit that shipboard tensions have been greatly aggravated on board WestPac ships by the unbearable working and living conditions that crewmen, particularly black crewmen encounter.

So far we have received no word from brothers on either the Kitty Hawk or Massayampa giving their account of what happened.

The "Stanford Daily", a daily newspaper published by the Associated Students of Stanford University on November 14, 1972, page 3, carried a story entitled, "Black Activist to Speak at Roble Lounge Tonight". The article reported that MUHAMMED AHMED, Chairman of the African Peoples Party, would speak on November 14, 1972, at Roble Hall on the Stanford University campus under the sponsorship of the Black Students Union (BSU).

The article noted that AHMED, 31, studied at Central State University in Ohio, where he formed the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM), that he thereafter joined the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), and subsequently worked with STOKELY CARMICHAEL in forming the New York Black Panther Party (BPP). AHMED reportedly was arrested and jailed on charges of advocating criminal anarchy in 1967 in the State of New York, at which time the authorities also brought charges against members of RAM for master-minding a plot to blow up the Statue of Liberty and to assassinate civil rights leaders ROY WILKINS and WHITNEY YOUNG. AHMED reportedly forfeited bail following his arrest and went underground, during which time he continued to write for "Black Scholar", "Vibration" and "Contrast" Magazines. On September 1, 1972, AHMED reportedly was arrested in San Diego during the Congress of African People's (CAP) Conference and he currently faces extradition to New York.

The African Peoples Party (APP) officially announced its existence in July 1971. The APP's 10-point program seeks independence, self-determination, black state power and independent nationhood for "African captives in America." It demands the States of Mississippi, Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama and Louisiana "as partial re-payment for injustices done to us for over 400 years."

RACIAL MATTERS

On December 4, 1969, Mr. John Lamer, Public Relations, Boston College, Newton, Massachusetts, advised that the Cultural Committee of the Boston College Student Council would present a program at Roberts Center, Boston College Campus at 7:30 p.m. on December 8, 1969 on the subject "Who Speaks for the Black Community". A panel of four speakers have been engaged consisting of Ralph Abernathy of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), Roy Innis of Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), Roy Wilkins of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and David Hilliard of the Black Panther Party (BPP). Mr. Lamer stated this program is one of a series arranged by the Cultural Committee with the approval of the Boston College administration.

RAYMOND HEWITT MASSACHUSETTS

The Boston Herald Traveler, a daily newspaper published in Boston, Massachusetts in its edition of December 9, 1969, carried an article concerning the panel discussion captioned "Black Leaders See New Racial Strife".

The article points out that for the first time the leaders of four nationally prominent black organizations spoke from the same platform before an audience of 2,500 and predicted the intensification of America's racial struggle.

Dr. Abernathy, the first speaker, attacked the war in Vietnam, the government for carrying on a "senseless" war in Vietnam, for ignoring the nation's poor and hungry, and for leading a "campaign of suppression" against the BPP.

A characterization of the BPP is attached hereto.

RACIAL MATTERS

Dr. Abernathy stated SCLC is now organizing a counseling service for boys drafted into the Armed Forces saying "it will be a department of peace, to counsel them to say no when they are asked to go 10,000 miles away to fight in that senseless, godless war".

He said the SCLC is still committed to the philosophy of non-violence on which it was based thirteen years ago. It will work with other black organizations toward their common goal--a better life for all black citizens. He pledged his support to the BPP and plans to fly to Chicago this week to "say in person that the United States is seeking to suppress the Panthers and we don't like it. If the nation can get by with suppressing one group, it won't be long before they suppress another".

Roy Innis of CORE charged that there is a national conspiracy against the Panthers and stated this is "the first phase of what might become a genocidal campaign against blacks".

Raymond "Masai" Hewitt, who represented the BPP in place of David Hilliard, equated the black problem in America with genocide. He claimed that black people understand what's happening to them. He claimed that rioting in Los Angeles, Detroit, and other cities was "the most eloquent statement" of the black position.

When the audience applauded Hewitt he said "Don't clap for me unless you'd clap for Huey Newton and Bobby Seale."

"I clap for Weathermen because the Weathermen shot pigs and pigs shoot niggers".

Roy Wilkins of NAACP said that two speakers referred to the United States as "your country", but "I consider it my country and I'm not giving up on it". He feels blacks have struggled too many years for racial equality to turn their backs now or go the way of violence or separatism.

57C, D On December 9, 1969, [REDACTED] stated that he was present at Roberts Center at the panel discussion mentioned above and confirmed in substance the veracity of the newspaper account set out above.

Report Assails Inquiry on Slaying of Black Panthers

By THOMAS A. JOHNSON

Neither the Federal Government nor the state sought to establish the truth in the killing of two Black Panther party leaders during a raid on a Chicago flat in 1969, the report of a blue ribbon commission contends.

The independent commission was formed by 27 persons in civil rights, law, politics and business after Fred Hampton and Mark Clark were killed and four other persons wounded in a raid by Illinois State's Attorney's police. The current co-chairmen of the group, called the Commission of Inquiry into the Black Panthers and Law Enforcement Officials, are Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and Ramsey Clark, former United States Attorney General.

According to the commission report, Mr. Hampton "was shot from the doorway to his bedroom as lay drugged and defenseless in bed."

Written nine months ago, the document was reportedly the source of much wrangling between commission staff members and some of the 28 prominent citizens who agreed to make the investigation.

Staff sources said that some commission members wanted the document toned down.

The report said that an atmosphere of suspicion and mistrust existed at the time of the raid. It said: "This commission found the situation had grown so critical by the time of the Hampton-Clark incident that many ghetto inhabitants no longer looked to the police for assistance in even the most harrowing of circumstances, for fear of risking personal abuse at the hands of the police."

'Virtual Warfare' Found

It said that "virtual warfare" had existed between the police and the community.

Commenting on the raid, the report said: "The indication is that the raid, contrary to its stated objectives [to obtain Panther weapons], was conceived and planned as a search and destroy mission aimed at the leaders of the Illinois chapter of the Black Panther party."

"Only one shot was fired by the occupants of the Panther apartment during the entire course of the raid," the report added, explaining that Mr.

Clark, had fired a shotgun blast through a door.

According to the report, the police fired the first shot during the raid. "Police fired through walls and doorways into darkened rooms," the report says. "There was no resistance to their gunfire. Occupants tried to hide from the bullets fired into their room, and cried out for police to stop, but the shooting continued. Fred Hampton was killed in his bed, and police kept firing."

Before he was killed, the report continues. Mr. Hampton "could not be roused by any of the three persons who tried to wake him." It says that traces of secobarbital, a sleep-inducing, nonaddictive drug were found in his body, "possibly in a lethal concentration."

It also says that a unnamed black informer had "successfully infiltrated the apartment and the Panther circle," and that "the Federal grand jury undertook not to investigate, but to rebut, this evidence."

County Jury Also Scored

"This commission is compelled to observe that the Federal grand jury failed to discharge its legal function and obligations fairly and fully," the report said. It was likewise critical of the county grand jury.

"It is the judgment of this commission that the raid was not planned nor executed in compliance with the Fourth Amendment guarantees against unreasonable search and seizures," the document said, continuing:

"The conception and planning of the raid, the sequence of events inside the apartment, the volume of police gunfire, and the toll of deaths and injuries do not particularly lend themselves to the characterization of these events as a 'police-Panther shoot-out'; they could equally well lead to characterizations of events as slaughter, and summary execution."

The pre-dawn raid was conducted Dec. 4, 1969, on the Panthers' west side Chicago headquarters.

During subsequent months, the Cook County State's Attorney, Edward V. Hanrahan, and 13 other persons were indicted for conspiracy to obstruct justice in this case. Mr. Hanrahan is seeking re-nomination in the primary elections next Tuesday.

The commission report, in three large, mimeographed documents, reportedly was sent to commission members on March 25, 1971, by Herbert O. Reid, a professor from Howard University who served as staff director.

Mr. Reid was said to have tried unsuccessfully to get commission members to release the documents for publication since that time. The New York Times has acquired copies.

A rewrite of the original staff report was done some months ago, but this did not satisfy commission members. Angered by the delay in publication of the report, Mr. Reid, the law professor, who is black and an expert on constitutional law, sent a memorandum to the commission last October 1 that read in part:

"To withhold the full report from the public is to deny the American people a respectful rendition of facts upon which to base their own judgment (on the Panther case) and demand a new morality for administration of justice in this country."
